Across Niagara's Gorge on a Wire.
Niagara Halls, Ont., Aug. 8.—About 8,000 persons witnessed Dixon's feat of walking a cable seven-eights of an inch-in diameter stretched across the Niagara gorge, between the suspension and cantilever bridges Saturday afternoon. When about a quarter of the distance had been traversed a halt was made. He stond on one foot, holding out the other almost horizontally, and waving his hand to the spectators. Then he continued on his journey until the center was reached, when he sat down and threw both legs over his balance pole, which was resting on the wire, and stretched out at full length on his back on the wire, crossing his feet and folding his arms on his breast. Then he went on until three-quarters had been passed. Then he again stood on one leg and went through a number of other maneuvers, after which he ran up the incline, reaching the American side at 3422. After a rest of five minutes Dixon returned to the wire with a hoop on his ankles walked out to where the Stars and Stripes floated in the breeze, about 150 feet from the cliff, and went through soveral maneuvers, winding the flag about his shuilders, after which he drove to the Canadian side, walked out about the same distance as he had done on the American side, and wound the Union Jack about his shoulders. He then returned to terra firma and went direct to his hotel. Dixon is 58 years of age, 5 feet

A SPOKANE FALLS CATASTROPHE.

Blast.

Spokane Falls, Wash., Sept. 7.—Last evening a premature blast in the Northern Pacific yards killed a large number of workmen. It was just before the hour of quitting work. A large force of men was engaged in blasting out a huge rock pile in the Northern Pacific freight yards in the castern part of the city. From 50 to 75 men were at work in the cut at the time. Some of the workmen were preparing a blast to be touched off after other workmen and teams had departed for the night. One blast had been prepared. In putting in the second it was exploded, the jar also touching off the first blast. Twenty-five thousand cubic feet of rock were thrown over upon the unsuspecting mass of humanity with terrible results.

At 11 p.m. the men engaged in taking out the mangled victims were forced to desist, because among the rocks which were being eleared away were five other blasts that might be exploded. Up to that hour eighteen bodies had been taken out. There are yet 27 men unaccounted for. There were about 200 pounds of giant powder in the blast. The accident was caused by some one's carelessness. The man in charge of the blast and three assistants were blown to atoms. The men had all finished their work and were getting ready to go to their homes, when they met a horrible and unexpected death. A man who was tamping paid the penalty with his life. A man who stood beside him escaped with slight bruises, although 20,000 cubic feet of rock were hurled for hundreds of feet in every direction. Another man who was near the deadly blast, and who was supposed to be dead, was seen shortly after the explosion in a half crazed condition, walking around with his clothing torn to shreds.

The men were working in a cut, leveling off the ground for the new freight yards. The cliff of rock on the side of the cut which was being removed was twenty feet high. The blasts are so arranged that the rock is thrown towards the cut. Not anticipating the blast, about 30 men were under the cliff when the blast exploded. A great mass of rock and earth rose in the air and pitched over into the cut, burying the men beneath its awful weight. Only a few escaped.
