A HEATED NARRATIVE.

The Toronto World says: Mr. Alexander Findlay, of London, was in Toronto before going home from the Masonic gathering at Hamilton. He says it was so hot in the Ambitious City on Wednesday that a horse fell down on James street and melted away. All that was left as evidence of the tragedy was a pool of grease and the horseshoes, which, by the way, were red-hot.

LIVED IN LONDON.

The Railway and Shipping World says: W. R. Haldane, who has been appointed district freight agent of the C. P. R. at Detroit, was born at Galashiels, Scotland, July 6, 1867. Coming to Canada in 1876 he lived in Fergus, London, and Toronto, and was educated principally in Toronto public schools, Upper Canada College and Trinity Medical College. He moved to Chicago in April, 1885, and entered the service of the C. P. R. on June 1 of that year. In July, 1890, he was appointed freight solicitor to the C. P. Dispatch, and in July, 1892, he became chief clerk and contracting freight agent of the
6 o'clock a train left the down town station—the only one that was not five trains left within an hour. The Saturday morning, half an hour ahead of advertised time. The leader was a double-header of 14 coaches, and every one loaded to the car platforms.

Its passengers were picked up in the East End entirely, and no stop was made at the down town station. The

THE TALBOT STREET PAY-MENT.

It appears to me a great pity, writes a correspondent, that in this otherwise beautiful city of ours, the roadways of some of our main arteries and most desirable residence streets, should be in such a deplorable condition. Take Talbot street, for instance. It is one of the most generally used thoroughfares from the country into the city, and its present condition, from Oxford street to Carling street, is simply abominable. I understand that a petition is about to be circulated among the residents of Talbot street, to have it macadamized, and it is to be hoped, for their own sakes, as well as for the general good, that they will sign it liberally. Nothing enhances the value of city property more than good roads and sidewalks, and the residents of Talbot street will be amply repaid for the small additional taxation entailed by macadamizing.

FORMER LONDONER WEDS.

On Wednesday of last week, at Detroit, Mr. Wm. Martin Brown, formerly of London, Ont., and now practicing law in Detroit, and Miss Bertha Rolls, daughter of Mrs. Edwin Cecil Rolls, formerly of Chatham, Ont., were married by Rev. Wm. Clark, D.D., of Emmanuel Presbyterian Church. It was a house wedding, and the guests were only relatives and very intimate friends. The sister of the bride, Miss Lillian Edith Rolls, was her only attendant. Dr. B. Lawrence Bryant was best man. The wedding dress was dainty and summerlike, of white organza and lace, with white and orange gossamer de sole from the bride. The yellow roses and ferns, Mr. and Mrs.
Brown will be at home after the 1st of September.—Toronto Saturday Night.

Y. M. C. A. DIRECTORS.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held Saturday. Among a number of communications that were received were those from the officers of the various regiments who had camped on Car-ling's Heights this year, thanking the association for the work that that body had done. Mr. C. E. German resigned as a member of the board, owing to press of other duties. His resignation was received with deep regret. A resolution of thanks was received from Mrs. Boomer on behalf of the National Council of Women. The membership committee are entering upon a vigorous campaign, and it is expected that a considerable increase will be shown over last year. It has been decided to lay special stress upon the swimming and bathing facilities at the disposal of members. The entertaining committee reported progress, and a report of the work done by the association during the late camp was read. The financial com-tee reported a need of funds to meet current expenses.

This Day in London Thirty-Three Years Ago.

[From The Advertiser Files of July 22, 1868.]

A deserter from the 69th Regiment strayed into the tavern at the corner of Duke and Wellington streets today and was arrested.

The imperial authorities today handled over possession of the Royal Exchange, Robinson Hall, MacKenzie building and the brick block fronting on Dundas street, to the Canadian authorities. The stores accumulated in the Exchange were removed to the Infantry Barracks, and there being no government property in this end of the city, the guard which formerly mounted at the Exchange has been taken off.

Today the city fire brigade left en masse for Port Stanley to hold their annual picnic.
