From Halls of Learning.

Western University, Feb. 15.—Mr. W. H. Snelgrove, '03, was summoned home on Friday last, owing to the very serious illness of his father. Mr. Snelgrove returned on Wednesday evening, his father having sufficiently recovered to be pronounced out of danger.

Several of the students attended the concert given by the St. George's Literary Society on Tuesday evening, Feb. 11. At the conclusion of the program, refreshments were served by the members of the society and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

It is a common remark among the students that the success of the conversation was due in no inconsiderable degree to the thoughtful consideration of Mrs. Burgess in placing a suite of rooms at the disposal of the reception committee. This courtesy is characteristic, though by no means exceptional, for the genial and kindly influence and hospitality of the west end residents is a cherished tradition with the university and college.

Among those who were present at the conversation on Monday evening were several of our graduates and former students: Dr. E. L. Williams, Miss Williams, Rev. W. E. V. McMillan, B.A., and F. E. Wade, B.A. Needless to say they were very pleased to be once more within the college walls, and expressed great pleasure at the success of the evening.

There were no lectures on Monday and Tuesday of this week, on account of the conversation. Wednesday being Ask Wednesday, all lectures in arts and divinity were suspended.

Rev. J. McCracken, a graduate of Huron College, formerly of Chesley, has been appointed to the parish of Thorndale. It is expected that he will commence his work at Easter in his new parish.

Rev. W. E. V. McMillan, B.A., of Princeton, who has been on a visit to his former home in this city, spent Wednesday afternoon with the students at the college. Mr. McMillan was loud in his praises of the way in which the conversation was carried on, and heartily congratulated all upon the success of the evening.

The preaching appointments for Sunday were as follows: Dutton—Chas. Ryan; Samia, Chas. W. Sanders; Oil Springs, Benjamin P. Fuller; Clamby, Francis Powell; Crumlin, Albert A. Bice; Westminster, Arthur Carlisle.

The heavy falls of snow of the last two weeks have interfered greatly with the Sunday work of the students.

Mr. H. W. Snel, who was appointed for Feb. 9 to Tesvater and Lakelet, received word on Saturday that the roads in that district were impassable, so he remained in the college. Mr. Snel, who went to Clamby, was prevented by the bad condition of the roads from taking the three services expected of him—Clamby, Tesvater and Lakelet. He remained at Clamby all day, where he took the morning service.

On Friday evening, the 7th inst., the students of Huron College gave a concert at Crumlin. Although the recent

HER HUSBAND WAS A DRUNKARD

A Lady who cures her husband of His Drinking Habits Writes of Her Struggle to Save her Home.

A PATHETIC LETTER.

"I had for a long time been thinking of leaving the Tasteless Samaria Prescription, but I was afraid for my husband's health, but I was giving him medicine, and the thought occurred to me. I hesitated for nearly a week, but one day when he was home very much intoxicated and his wife's salary nearly all spent, I threw off all fear and determined to make an effort to save our home from the ruin I saw coming, at all hazards. I sent for your Tasteless Samaria Prescription, and put it in his coffee as directed next morning, and watched and prayed for the result. At noon he was home, and also at supper. He never suspected a thing, and I then boldly kept right on giving it regularly, as I had discovered something that set every nerve in my body tingling with hope and happiness, and I could see a bright future spread out before me—a peaceful, happy home, a share in the good things of life, an attentive, loving husband, comforts and everything else dear to a woman's heart; for my husband had told me he was taking a dislike to it. It was only too true, for before I had given him the medicine he had stopped drinking altogether, but I kept giving him the medicine till it was gone, and then I sent for your letter, which I have on hand if he should relapse, as he has done from promises before. He never failed to write you this letter to tell you how thankful I am. I honestly believe it will cure the worst cases."

stomach had blocked the roads the attendance was very large. The program consisted of solos and speeches, readings and recitations. Judging from the applause and scores each number must have been thoroughly appreciated by all present. Besides the part of the students, a number of solos were given by Misses Sample and Moxat, who were all were delighted. Miss E. Burgess acted as accompanist. As Capt. T. Robinson was unavoidably absent, the chair was filled by Dr. Tamblin, of Western University. After the program was over those taking part were asked to remain, when refreshments were served.

The conversation of Feb. 10 was a surpassing success. There came

"The argent revelry,
With plume, tiara and all rich array,
Numerous as shadows hunting fairly
The brain new-stuffed, in youth, with triumphs gay,
Of old romance."

Many of our staunch old friends were present, among them His Lordship the Bishop of Huron and Mrs. Baldwin, Rev. Canon Richardson, Rev. B. E. Bice and Mrs. Sage; Rev. Canon Dann and Mrs. Dann, Rev. Dr. Johnston and Mrs. Johnston, Mr. T. H. Carling and Mrs. Carling, Rev. E. N. English, Rev. J. W. Holmes, Mrs. J. H. Moorhouse and Mrs. Moorhouse, Principal Radcliffe and Mrs. Radcliffe, Dr. Wishart, Mr. C. B. Edwards, Mrs. Culvin, Mr. R. M. Graham, Mrs. G. F. Jewell, Mrs. G. W. Armstrong, Mrs. S. J. Denison, Mrs. H. Meek, Mrs. J. Magee, Mrs. G. de C. O'Grady, Mrs. Reason, Mrs. H. Ziegler and Mrs. Ziegler, Dr. Woolverton, Mr. E. B. Smith and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Hewitt, Mrs. George Robinson, Mr. R. M. Graham and Mrs. Graham, Mr. R. W. Puddecombe, Dr. McLeay, Dr. E. Pardee Buckle, Dr. W. A. Piper, Dr. E. Piper, Dr. E. L. Williams, Mrs. E. L. Williams, Mrs. H. Ziegler and Mrs. Ziegler.

The students feel themselves deeply indebted to the lady patronesses, faculty and others who so kindly lent their aid. The patronesses who received were Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Hodge and Mrs. James. Prof. Dearness and Mrs. Dearness, Principal Merchant and Mrs. Merchant, Dr. Hugh Stevenson, Prof. Bowman and Mrs. Bowman, Prof. Burgess and Mrs. Burgess, Rev. Dr. Bethune, Mr. Edgar Brown, Mr. William Thornton, Mrs. R. M. Graham, Mrs. G. F. Jewell, Mrs. F. Love, Mrs. C. B. Hunt, Miss Baldwin, Miss Fraser, Miss Morphy, Miss Brock and contributed materially by their presence and assistance to the sweeping success of the occasion. The microscopy, wireless telegraphy and X-rays, aroused mingled awe and admiration for the vastness and their masters. Mrs. Calder Stock and Master Harry Carson, with exceeding kindness, singing in Miss Taylor's place, won the gratitude of the audience and of the university. Miss Taylor, taken ill just before the concert, was attended in the matron's apartments by Mrs. Wishart and McLeay. Too great praise could not be given to the eloquence of Miss Edna L. Sutherland. She would seem to be among the very first of our American elocutionists. Mr. George Fox easily sustained his splendid reputation as a violinist. Both he and Miss Sutherland showed great kindness in responding to their enthusiastic encores, and all London will be glad to see them again.

Programme, decorations and assembly seemed all in bright harmony. A buoyant feeling of trust and pride in the university, in its past and in its future, marked the first conversation. It pervaded the large assembly at every moment of the evening. If prophecy is not yet dead in the thought of men, the omen must be fulfilling. The students desire to express their thanks to the citizens who so kindly lent furniture, flags and materials for decoration for the concert of Provost James.
