

GOLDWIN AND THE DRAGON

PROFESSOR SMITH AGAIN BLACK-MAILED BY ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY.

A Large and Unpleasant Meeting Last Night—Letters from the Candidate Begging to Have His Name Withdrawn—A Vote of 75 to 47 Against Him.

The annual meeting of St. George's society last night was very largely attended, over 120 members being present. About 25 new members were proposed and elected then and there.

The secretary read the following letter from Mr. Goldwin Smith:—

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT:—I read with the greatest pleasure your letter of the 15th, reporting the kind reception of my last communication by the committee of the St. George's society.

I have, however, written to Mr. Piddington before this time as a personal favor to him, on the ground that it might kindly discard, which it was my special desire to oblige him.

Very truly yours,
GOLDWIN SMITH.

This letter was received with great glee by a portion of the audience, probably the anti-Smith wing thereof.

The secretary read the forty-seventh annual report of the society which showed that although the number of applications, 1898, had been less than last year, the amount granted, namely $1147.49 had been much larger. The fund had been supported. The treasurer had begun the year with a balance of $381.83, had received during the year $2641.06, and had wound up with a balance of $274.73.

Reference was made to the religious services, the annual dinner, the excursion to Lorne park and the Christmas distribution, also to the death of nine gentlemen who had been members of the society, namely: W. B. Phipps, Wm. Morley, F. W. Gooderham, Wm. Harris, T. Davidson and G. Hall.

The society now consisted of 14 honorary life, 216 life and 364 annual members, and was in a highly prosperous condition.

The treasurer's report showed that the assets of the society were $2532.72; receipts during the year $2222.90; balance on hand $274.73.

The adoption of these reports was moved by Mr. R. Lewis, who paid a high compliment to the president of the society, and carried unanimously.

The secretary announced that notices of motion had been given for the election of the following gentlemen as honorary life members: Goldwin Smith, Gooderham, J. A. Llewellyn, J. E. Pell, R. Spratt.

The president said he had been accused of attending caucuses in favor of Mr. Goldwin Smith. The charge was utterly false, he had never attended a caucus, and was perfectly independent in the matter.

Mr. Piddington explained the reasons which had induced him to bring up again the proposal for Mr. Goldwin Smith's membership, and read two letters from that gentleman. He said that he had found that those who opposed Goldwin Smith's election were those who knew the least of his writings, and merely took the specie dicta of a newspaper in this city, who will propose to grant to this man the right to receive the honor of an individual member of the society.

Let me tell the same to you, and if the votes of the house and the most sincere for honorary membership of the St. George's society, you and those who concur with you are not mistaken in believing that it should be a matter of the distinction which you propose to confer.

After the sentiments contained in those two letters he thought they should rise as one man and elect Mr. Smith an honorary life member. But if the meeting did not choose to do this he would prefer to withdraw Mr. Smith's name. Considering the order, look place, haste, and urgency upon Mr. Piddington to withdraw the nomination, others the contrary. The result was that Mr. Piddington moved the resolution.

It was seconded by Mr. Bird, who referred to the by-law—regulating honorary memberships and said that Mr. Goldwin Smith, as one who had conferred benefits upon the society, was entitled to honorary membership. At this juncture Mr. R. W. Elliott moved that the speakers be restricted to five minutes each. The motion was carried. Mr. Bird proceeded for a short time when the president announced that his time was up.

Mr. John Gardner here placed an amendment in the hands of the chairman. The latter, without reading it aloud, declared it out of order. Mr. Gardner then claimed the right to read his amendment. The chairman refused. Mr. Gardner protested that this was unfair. After a short discussion the chairman put it to the meeting whether the amendment should be read. The meeting unanimously decided in the affirmative and the resolution was read, and proved to be to the effect that Mr. Smith's name be withdrawn.

Mr. Gardner again rose to speak again, but was ruled out of order by the chairman. A scene of tremendous uproar ensued. The chairman said Mr. Gardner might speak to the resolution, but by this time the meeting had become worked up to such a pitch of excitement that it was impossible for any one to get a hearing, and Mr. Gardner resumed his seat. The uproar grew into a perfect babel. One corner of the room Mr. J. L. Evans was shouting in stentorian tones "chair, chair," while an equally strident voice was heard from the opposite corner, calling upon Mr. Evans to be down. Mr. Barlow Cumberland then proposed a resolution similar to Mr. Gardner's, which the chairman ruled out of order as being merely a negative of the resolution.

Matters were at length brought to a focus by the Rev. E. M. G. Patterson moving the previous question, which was carried, and the scrutineers, Dr. King and Mr. Frankland proceeded to take the vote which resulted as follows:

For Mr. Goldwin Smith's election 47; against 75.

This result was received with the most delighted applause by the seventy-five. Mr. Piddington then moved, seconded by Mr. Mulholland: "That in the opinion of this meeting the action of the committee in passing a resolution condemning two members of the society for issuing a circular relating to the election of a gentleman as an honorary member was unjustifiable, and that the said committee exceeded the function and duty of the society in passing such a resolution." After another excited discussion the resolution was put to the meeting and lost.

The election of officers was then proceeded with, Dr. King, S. G. Wood, and W. E. Lloyd being scrutineers, and result as follows: President, George Vint; 1st vice, George Booth; 2nd vice, Barlow Cumberland; 3rd vice, E. L. Beardsmore; treasurer, Ald. Trees; secretary, J. E. Pell; chaplains, Rev. J. S. Stone, Rev. E. M. G. Patterson; committee, R. W. Elliott, Harry Symons, Rev. J. L. Lobb, D. Lamb, J. Llewellyn, Wellington, James Vint, Physicians, Dr. Barwick, Oldright and King; Stewards, G. Lugden, J. J. Allworth, Marriot, S. G. Wood, G. Lugden, L. Goldman, Ald. Boswell, Auditor, Albert Mason, Wm. Hope. All the elections were by acclamation except those for third vice-president and committee.

After votes of thanks to the retiring president and other officers, and a speech from the new president, the meeting adjourned at 11.30.

THE LOCAL LEGISLATURE.

A Quiet Time in the House Yesterday—The Debate on the Address Still Unfinished.

The debate in the local house yesterday was quiet, after the lively time of the day before. The only cross firing was between the government and one of its supporters.

Mr. Miller, who on the merits of the rivers and streams bill, took sides against the government so far as it affected small streams. His speech was most important, as showing the value of the timber in the disputed territory. The house adjourned at six. Mr. Meredith proposing this as the opposition intended to move an amendment to the address, and the debate could not be finished yesterday.

Mr. McLaughlin (West Durham) said that the opposition not being able to defend the constitutional question were dragging in obnoxious issues in order to obscure it. Canada always claimed territory four hundred and fifty miles west of the Lake of the Woods, and Sir John Macdonald expended money with that idea. It was not until 1870, after the separation of Ontario and Quebec that the Dominion government took any different view. There had been no undue delay in making the award, and the terms of the appointments, and the language of the award showed that it was intended to be final and conclusive. The Dominion government in passing the Manitoba act expressed the opinion that it was giving the whole of the disputed territory to Manitoba. The opposition expressed their indifference to territory which would yield a large sum, perhaps a million a year, if the value were capitalized and placed at interest, when their leaders at Ottawa refused to hand it over. He trusted that the opposition would yet join in not only securing their territory for Ontario, but also her provincial rights.

Mr. Robertson (West Hastings) gave the government credit for what they had done in getting evidence by the agricultural commission. But the bureau of agriculture which it was hinted would be established would be too costly. Farmers were not in favor of abolishing market fees, as they got better prices for their produce at market than by private sale. In the country there was a feeling that the Judiciary act was one centralizing measure. The opposition would defend the rights of the province as well as the ministerialists.

Mr. Miller (Muskoka) gave the government, by a bill, should make all conditions in assurance notices the same so that the companies could not print conditions in the smallest type, not meant to be read. Already the Dominion government had sold at nominal rates of $4 per acre, and to their friends timber limits in the disputed territory, which had been resold by the banks for $750,000, so that there was three quarters of a million gone already, which could not be got back. The last sale by auction in Ontario was at the rate of $1 an acre for all kinds of land, rock, swamp and everything. And subject to dues which could be raised at any time.

Ontario one of the most sincere and fifty millions of dollars revenue from the disputed territory, taking the quantity of timber there at forty Mr. Dennis estimated, which was as likely to be an under as an over estimate. He thought the case of Messrs. McLaren and Caldwell should have been exempted from the rivers and streams bill, and then there would not have been this constitutional question. It was impossible to secure an adequate return for improvements on small streams by collecting tolls. The government should improve the streams and charge the lumbermen tolls. The government should restrain settlers from setting out fires without a permit from the stipendiary magistrate, and the latter should be appointed to look after the fires when set. Only unworthy settlers would raise objections.

Mr. Redger moved the adjournment of the debate and the house adjourned at 6 o'clock.

THE OLD, OLD STORY.

The oft told tale of a man going to a house of ill-fame and getting into a row at the police court yesterday. The man's name was William Johnson, the girl Selma Johnson and Lilly Jones, living at Nelson-street, and they were charged with having stolen $147 from Johnson on Thursday night. The evidence was given by Mr. Wilson's son, and the case was remanded for a week. Selma Johnson was then charged with keeping a house of ill-fame, and Lilly Jones with being an inmate, and the result was that both were sent to the Mercer Reformatory for six months.

MARITIME COURT CHAMBER.

Judge Mackenzie disposed of the following business yesterday: Mary Jane, No. 180, motion by Mr. Ogden for order for payment of money out of court to plaintiff. Order made.

George Maytham, No. 183, claim of Walker McNabb for wages. Motion by Mr. Falconbridge for order to set aside arrest of vessel on the ground of irregularity on the part of the plaintiff in the non-joinder of the petition. Mr. Ogden opposed the motion. Motion refused with costs to be costs in the cause.

Sue to it.—Chronic headache, sick head, acute, convulsions, wind on the stomach, pain in the side or back, distress after eating—all forms of nervous and hysterical ailments—permanently cured with Zepeda from Brazil.

BAXTER v. FRENCH.

A Criminal Information for Libel Laid by the ex-Alderman—an Adjournment Granted.

Partly, no doubt, to show that he is actuated by no mercenary motives, and partly to inflict a severe punishment than the loss of a sum of money, ex-Ald. Baxter has taken the course of issuing a criminal information against Mr. James French, instead of suing him for damages.

The information on which Mr. French was arraigned at yesterday's police court, sets forth that the complainant, at the time of publishing the libel, was and long before had been, an alderman of the city of Toronto, representing St. Patrick's ward, and one of her majesty's justices of the peace for the county of York; and was in the year 1872 a member of the court of revision, and as such member of said court had always acted in the most honorable manner in the exercise of his duties, and on the 25th day of December, 1881, was duly nominated as a candidate for re-election to the office of alderman, and that one James French, desiring to vilify the complainant, and to prevent him from being re-elected, wrote and published in the form of an open letter to the electors of St. Patrick's ward, the following false and malicious libel:—"When Mr. Baxter and his friend Mr. Manning in 1872 sat in the court of revision of the house the worthy alderman then lived in on Spadina avenue was assessed for $2000, and how well he adjudicated upon his own case, by that occasion, by actually getting a bonus; and his friend Mr. Manning gave him in a lump sum a reduction of $1215, being $22 more than the property was assessed for, and a charge of the resources of that journal—the only paper besides Grip that practically calls its soul its own, and I don't intend to speak out what it conceives to be in the interests of the public."

Of course all the M.P.P.'s will be at the Grand opera house to see Patten Monday night, because Haverly's Co. produce it.

NOT AFRAID TO SPEAK OUT.

The World is suing somebody for libel. The damages are laid at several thousands of dollars, and we hope The World may get the money, as it will strengthen the resources of that journal—the only paper besides Grip that practically calls its soul its own, and I don't intend to speak out what it conceives to be in the interests of the public."

Bunthorne, in Patten, will be raffled for at 9:20 Monday night at the Grand.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Moos Oakes says that within the next three weeks the weather will be very variable, and several cold spells will occur. He thinks that in the winter there will not be more than six or seven days of sleighing, and throughout the province not more than two weeks this winter. After the next three weeks he believes the weather will be exceedingly mild.

HAVERLY'S BIG COMIC OPERA CO.

at the Grand opera house at the regular price of 25c. 50c. Reserved seats 75c.

POLICE NEWS.

Wm. McKenzie was arrested yesterday by P. C. Denning for non-payment of a bill. Carl E. Thunberg, the demented Swede, charged with having attempted suicide by throwing himself into the bay, was remanded to jail for medical examination.

Several officers testified as to the questionable character of Fanny Dunn, a woman who had been convicted of several of the inmates had been convicted as well.

Charles Burns was then charged with leaving the house, No. 141 York street, to Fanny Dunn (nee Dunn), knowing that the same was to be used as a house of prostitution.

The defendant showed that he had leased the house for three years to Ann Hodgson, and that he did not know that Fanny Dunn was going to keep it. The case was allowed to stand for a week.

No evidence was offered against James McDougall charged on remand with having stolen about fifty yards of carpet from the station, belonging to the G.T.R. company, and the case was dismissed.

Mr. Sutherland wrote a letter to the magistrate saying he would not appear against her husband Ralph, who was charged with hitting her on the head with a coal oil lamp, as he had already been sufficiently punished.

The case was remanded until Tuesday. George Chapman, when charged with retailing beer from the cellar of his house, No. 141 York street, was fined $100, and his house was ordered to be sealed.

James McLaughlin, who was charged with leaving the house, No. 141 York street, to Fanny Dunn (nee Dunn), knowing that the same was to be used as a house of prostitution.

The defendant showed that he had leased the house for three years to Ann Hodgson, and that he did not know that Fanny Dunn was going to keep it. The case was allowed to stand for a week.

No evidence was offered against James McDougall charged on remand with having stolen about fifty yards of carpet from the station, belonging to the G.T.R. company, and the case was dismissed.

Mr. Sutherland wrote a letter to the magistrate saying he would not appear against her husband Ralph, who was charged with hitting her on the head with a coal oil lamp, as he had already been sufficiently punished.

The case was remanded until Tuesday. George Chapman, when charged with retailing beer from the cellar of his house, No. 141 York street, was fined $100, and his house was ordered to be sealed.

James McLaughlin, who was charged with leaving the house, No. 141 York street, to Fanny Dunn (nee Dunn), knowing that the same was to be used as a house of prostitution.

The defendant showed that he had leased the house for three years to Ann Hodgson, and that he did not know that Fanny Dunn was going to keep it. The case was allowed to stand for a week.

No evidence was offered against James McDougall charged on remand with having stolen about fifty yards of carpet from the station, belonging to the G.T.R. company, and the case was dismissed.

Mr. Sutherland wrote a letter to the magistrate saying he would not appear against her husband Ralph, who was charged with hitting her on the head with a coal oil lamp, as he had already been sufficiently punished.

The case was remanded until Tuesday. George Chapman, when charged with retailing beer from the cellar of his house, No. 141 York street, was fined $100, and his house was ordered to be sealed.

James McLaughlin, who was charged with leaving the house, No. 141 York street, to Fanny Dunn (nee Dunn), knowing that the same was to be used as a house of prostitution.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Mr. R. McAuley needs no introduction to theatre-goers in Toronto—each yearly visit brings with it an increase of popularity—until now he ranks among the most successful stars that visit our city. In his rendition of Uncle Danl, in a character from Jarvis Section, he displays a feature of character-acting unexcelled. The jolly and big-hearted comedy player is always welcome to Toronto audiences. His quaint speech and characteristic mannerisms, his rough but many qualities, and his readiness to lend a hand to those in distress, have the effect of exciting emotions widely different in rapid succession. The play is replete with humorous hits and striking situations, and throughout its performance the audience continues spellbound—until at the close, when the curtain goes down on Uncle Danl—there is always the consciousness of an evening well spent. Mr. McAuley opens at the Grand opera house next Thursday evening, and with the excellent surroundings of this popular theatre the engagement is sure to be one of the brightest and most successful of the present season.

Of course all the M.P.P.'s will be at the Grand opera house to see Patten Monday night, because Haverly's Co. produce it.

NOT AFRAID TO SPEAK OUT.

The World is suing somebody for libel. The damages are laid at several thousands of dollars, and we hope The World may get the money, as it will strengthen the resources of that journal—the only paper besides Grip that practically calls its soul its own, and I don't intend to speak out what it conceives to be in the interests of the public."

Bunthorne, in Patten, will be raffled for at 9:20 Monday night at the Grand.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Moos Oakes says that within the next three weeks the weather will be very variable, and several cold spells will occur. He thinks that in the winter there will not be more than six or seven days of sleighing, and throughout the province not more than two weeks this winter. After the next three weeks he believes the weather will be exceedingly mild.

HAVERLY'S BIG COMIC OPERA CO.

at the Grand opera house at the regular price of 25c. 50c. Reserved seats 75c.

POLICE NEWS.

Wm. McKenzie was arrested yesterday by P. C. Denning for non-payment of a bill. Carl E. Thunberg, the demented Swede, charged with having attempted suicide by throwing himself into the bay, was remanded to jail for medical examination.

Several officers testified as to the questionable character of Fanny Dunn, a woman who had been convicted of several of the inmates had been convicted as well.

Charles Burns was then charged with leaving the house, No. 141 York street, to Fanny Dunn (nee Dunn), knowing that the same was to be used as a house of prostitution.

The defendant showed that he had leased the house for three years to Ann Hodgson, and that he did not know that Fanny Dunn was going to keep it. The case was allowed to stand for a week.

No evidence was offered against James McDougall charged on remand with having stolen about fifty yards of carpet from the station, belonging to the G.T.R. company, and the case was dismissed.

Mr. Sutherland wrote a letter to the magistrate saying he would not appear against her husband Ralph, who was charged with hitting her on the head with a coal oil lamp, as he had already been sufficiently punished.

The case was remanded until Tuesday. George Chapman, when charged with retailing beer from the cellar of his house, No. 141 York street, was fined $100, and his house was ordered to be sealed.

James McLaughlin, who was charged with leaving the house, No. 141 York street, to Fanny Dunn (nee Dunn), knowing that the same was to be used as a house of prostitution.

The defendant showed that he had leased the house for three years to Ann Hodgson, and that he did not know that Fanny Dunn was going to keep it. The case was allowed to stand for a week.

No evidence was offered against James McDougall charged on remand with having stolen about fifty yards of carpet from the station, belonging to the G.T.R. company, and the case was dismissed.

Mr. Sutherland wrote a letter to the magistrate saying he would not appear against her husband Ralph, who was charged with hitting her on the head with a coal oil lamp, as he had already been sufficiently punished.

The case was remanded until Tuesday. George Chapman, when charged with retailing beer from the cellar of his house, No. 141 York street, was fined $100, and his house was ordered to be sealed.

James McLaughlin, who was charged with leaving the house, No. 141 York street, to Fanny Dunn (nee Dunn), knowing that the same was to be used as a house of prostitution.

The defendant showed that he had leased the house for three years to Ann Hodgson, and that he did not know that Fanny Dunn was going to keep it. The case was allowed to stand for a week.

No evidence was offered against James McDougall charged on remand with having stolen about fifty yards of carpet from the station, belonging to the G.T.R. company, and the case was dismissed.

Mr. Sutherland wrote a letter to the magistrate saying he would not appear against her husband Ralph, who was charged with hitting her on the head with a coal oil lamp, as he had already been sufficiently punished.

The case was remanded until Tuesday. George Chapman, when charged with retailing beer from the cellar of his house, No. 141 York street, was fined $100, and his house was ordered to be sealed.

James McLaughlin, who was charged with leaving the house, No. 141 York street, to Fanny Dunn (nee Dunn), knowing that the same was to be used as a house of prostitution.

The defendant showed that he had leased the house for three years to Ann Hodgson, and that he did not know that Fanny Dunn was going to keep it. The case was allowed to stand for a week.

No evidence was offered against James McDougall charged on remand with having stolen about fifty yards of carpet from the station, belonging to the G.T.R. company, and the case was dismissed.

AMUSEMENTS.

Occident Hall, Cor. Queen and Bathurst Sts. THE WEST END CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE SOCIETY. PROGRAMME.

Opening Hymn.....Orchestra
Service by Chaplain
Piano Solo.....Mrs. Martin
Song.....Mr. G. Mars
Reading.....Mr. G. Mars
Song.....Mr. Bacon
Recitation.....Miss Starr
Song.....Miss Dickie
Recitation.....Miss Robena Miller
Song.....Miss Bunting
Vocalist sketch.....Professor Rose
PART II.
Singing the Pledge.....Orchestra
Hymn.....Mrs. Martin
Piano Solo.....Mrs. Martin
Song.....Mr. Bacon
Reading.....Miss Dickey
Song.....Miss Bunting
Reading.....Miss Galtling
Song.....Miss Starr
Duet.....Misses Cavanagh and Brian
Recitation.....Miss Saunders
Song.....Miss Bunting

Admission 5 cents.
One used Sunday afternoon experience meeting at 3 o'clock and the gospel temperance meeting at 7 o'clock. This society will also hold a meeting on every Sunday at 8 p.m. in the hall, Kingston road, over the Dan, and a concert every Monday at 8 p.m. All seats are free. A collection will be taken up to defray expenses. Our children's band of hope meet at 2:30 p.m. every Saturday and the Young People's Band of Hope every Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. at Brock street hall up stairs.

A. FARLEY, President, 77 Brock street.
W. B. SHEPPARD, Secy., 40 Niagara street.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Grand Matinee to-day.
Positive last appearance to-night of FRANK L. GARDNER'S Company, with ANNE GRAHAM in the LEGION OF HONOR!

TORONTO GYMNASIUM. Members Joining Daily. FEES REDUCED NOW TO 25c.

JOHNSTON & MACDONALD, Managers.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Bond St. Congregational Church.
REV. JOSEPH WILKIN, D.D., Pastor.
Morning services, 11 a.m. Evening, 7 p.m. SUBJECT FOR EVENING, "The Kingdom of God is Within You."

"Prophecy Fulfilled in Queen Victoria."

Temperance meeting in school room Wednesday, at 8 p.m.

SECULAR SOCIETY.

At-morrow (Sunday) evening, at 7 o'clock, at ALBERT HALL, MR. PHILLIPS THOMPSON will lecture on "My Tour in Ireland."

Singing by the Olney Choir. Other Readings and Music. The public are invited.

JARVIS STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

LORD'S DAY, THE 22nd INSTANT.
The services will be conducted by REV. WM. COLUMBIE, D.D., assisted by REV. GEORGE RICHARDSON of Cornwall, at 7 p.m.

PERSONAL.

A RITHMETIC MADE EASY AT 166 SIMCOE street. Ladies and gentlemen may learn calculus at 1:40 p.m., and at 7 p.m. in the evening until further notice. G. L. FAIRBANKS, Teacher. L-28

THE HYGIENIC HOME.

No. 776 Jarvis Street, Corner Gerrard.
Dr. Watt, Surgeon, &c.
Specialist in the treatment of Chronic or Acute Diseases by Electricity.

Dr. Watt, Surgeon, &c.
Specialist in the treatment of Chronic or Acute Diseases by Electricity.

ELECTRIC BELTS.

NORMAN'S Electric Belt Institution.
No. 4 QUEEN ST. EAST.
Established 1874.

There is nothing so permanently beneficial to the sufferer as Norman's Electric Belt. Bands and trusses. They immediately relieve and permanently cure Asthma, Liver Complaint, Lumbago, Nervous Debility, Indigestion, Rheumatism, Swellings, Injuries, Neuralgia, etc., and a host of troubles, which medicine has little or no control. Circulators and consultation table, with the social and always ready for ladies and gentlemen. 146

INSURANCE.

Lancashire Insurance Co'y.
Mr. J. B. REED has been appointed to the City Agency of this Co'y. The business of the Toronto Agency will in future be carried on under the name and style of REED & ROGERSON.

REED & ROGERSON,

TORONTO AGENTS.
OFFICES: 30 Toronto Street, 30 Wellington Street East.
Liverpool & London & Globe INS. CO.

JOS. B. REED, Agent.
OFFICE: 30 Wellington St. East.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

A PARTY WHO HAS A USEFUL INVENTION would like to hear from any party who would furnish money, as an investor, for the sufficient capital to perfect it. Address INVENTOR, 70 Adelaide street West.

AMUSEMENTS.

Occident Hall, Cor. Queen and Bathurst Sts. THE WEST END CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE SOCIETY. PROGRAMME.

Opening Hymn.....Orchestra
Service by Chaplain
Piano Solo.....Mrs. Martin
Song.....Mr. G. Mars
Reading.....Mr. G. Mars
Song.....Mr. Bacon
Recitation.....Miss Starr
Song.....Miss Dickie
Recitation.....Miss Robena Miller
Song.....Miss Bunting
Vocalist sketch.....Professor Rose
PART II.
Singing the Pledge.....Orchestra
Hymn.....Mrs. Martin
Piano Solo.....Mrs. Martin
Song.....Mr. Bacon
Reading.....Miss Dickey
Song.....Miss Bunting
Reading.....Miss Galtling
Song.....Miss Starr
Duet.....Misses Cavanagh and Brian
Recitation.....Miss Saunders
Song.....Miss Bunting

Admission 5 cents.
One used Sunday afternoon experience meeting at 3 o'clock and the gospel temperance meeting at 7 o'clock. This society will also hold a meeting on every Sunday at 8 p.m. in the hall, Kingston road, over the Dan, and a concert every Monday at 8 p.m. All seats are free. A collection will be taken up to defray expenses. Our children's band of hope meet at 2:30 p.m. every Saturday and the Young People's Band of Hope every Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. at Brock street hall up stairs.

A. FARLEY, President, 77 Brock street.
W. B. SHEPPARD, Secy., 40 Niagara street.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Grand Matinee to-day.
Positive last appearance to-night of FRANK L. GARDNER'S Company, with ANNE GRAHAM in the