HOMERULE FOR SCOTLAND. it Will Remedy, Rule for Scotland has made rapid wrides among politicians in the Old Country. All Irish Home Rulers have declared for it," Wales is almost unanimously in its favor, the ablest English Radicals advocate it, in Scotland it is recognised as the one solution of many questions, and Mr. Gladstone has given it his benison.

The remedy for all this is to be found implese local government, claim the Home Rulers. The meeting in Temperance Hall to night will afford an opportunity of making the question in all its bearings known to

Dr. Schultze, of Vienna, advises the drink ing of beer out of mugs instead of glasses.

Reer deteriorates very quickly under the influence of light, and mugs, particularly covered mugs, are much preferable to transparent plasses.

If you want furs go to the Army & Navy. Practising For a Prima Douna. From The Springfield Union.
Now, Susie said Mrs. Djuke, as her little girl started out to take her music lesson, "I want you to practise faithfully, and some day perhaps you will be a prima donna."

The next day Susie handed her mamma the following manuscript: "I most cheerfully resonmend your soap as the nicest soap I ever saw. Yours sincerely, Susie Djuke."

"Why, what does this mean, Susie?" asked de mamma.
Oh, I've been practising to be a prima donna," replied Susie. Maried in haste—and the groom couldn't get a wed-diag suit made in time, so he dropped into the Army & Nayy store and there he found the finest ready-made suits, equal if not better than he could get made to his order. It is fine clothing at low prices at the Army & Nayy stores.

Fox Hunting in Saskatchewan. The Earl of Southesk, while hunting in askatchewan not long ago, had an experience with a fox which shows the remarkable intincts which that animal sometimes possesses? The Earl says: "After chasing him a number of miles, on a sudden he made an active spring and disappeared headforemost into the snow. Down we leaped to secure him. Behold a gaping budger hole! By what instinct could the for discover the exact position of that hole? No difference on the smooth shining surface was visible to us, yet the fox in all his fear and with could hight exactly upon the entrace of employ it in way of travelling.
