FRAMED A CURSE WITH DYING HAND

t Turner of Brantford Writes a Last Farewell end Drinks Carbolic

Brantford, Ont., Oct. 19.-Robert Turner, aged 45, a carpenter, committed night. In the passbook was written the following:

"Brantford, Oct. 10, 1894, 3 o'clock in morning. This is my last voyage on earth. I have been tired of life for the last five weeks. God forgive my poor wife and all the curses of — be put upon Miss D— and J— and Mrs.—God protect my little girl Nina, God bless my son Tom. R. A. Turner."

The boy went immediately to his father's room and found him in bed dead. A bottle which had contained carbolic acid was found on the table.

No cause can be found for the rash act. His wife is in the hospital suffering from inflammation. A CHEQUE SIGNED "ALMIGITY GOD"

Preschied By a Crank to a New York Paying Teller, Who Refused Payment. Ing Teller, Who Refused Payment.

New York, Oct. 19.—A crank entered the Clinton Place Bank in Astor-place at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon and demanded $1000 from Paying Teller Hind. About three days ago the bank officials received from a mam a postal eard saying that the writer would call in a few days for $1000. The police were notified, and a detective was sent to watch the bank.

This afternoon a fairly dressed man watch the bank.

This afternoon a fairly dressed man entered the bank, and put down a cheque on the window of Paying Teller Hind. The cheque was signed "Almighty God."

The paying teller looked around for the detective, but he was not in sight. The teller then told the man to wait until he could open the safe and get the money. When Hind's head was turned the man shot at him. The man was seized by employes of the bank after he had fired four shots at Hind.

The crank's identity could not be ascertained. He refused to say who he was. He was locked up.

Broadway Hall, 450 Spadina-avenue, Oct. 16, 1894.

At the last meeting of the West Toronto Medical Territorial Division Association, composed of the licensed practitioners of medicine residing west of Yongestreet, Toronto, the following resolutions were passed unanimously.

Will you kindly consider the matter, and send me a reply at your earliest convenience. Yours truly, Goo. H. Carveth, Secretary.

Moved seconded and carried unanimously that the secretary be instructed to write to the druggists west of Yonge-street, informing them that the matter of repeating prescriptions without authority has been formally considered by this association and unanimously condemned, and that each and every one of the druggists be asked if he will agree to desist from this time-the practice of repeating prescriptions without the knowledge and consent of the prescribing physicians.

This is a matter which the press (espec-
