

human beings feel the least pressure of her foot. The Assyrian empire was not so populous. The Persian empire was not so powerful. The Carthaginian empire was not so much dreaded. The Spanish empire was not so widely diffused. The Roman power was weak in comparison, and Greece was a small village." to the chair, and H. Ruggies, E.s., ap-pointed secretary. After a short discus-sion a committee of seven were appointed to to be submitted next Thursday (to-morrow) when a larger and more representative is to made a success. the submitted for the coming Carnival is to made a success. the submitted next thursday (to morrow) when a larger and more representative is to made a success. the submitted next thursday (to morrow) to be submitted next the su the copy for our own eartion initiatizety following the rising of the Council, was to copy from the supplement issued by the Spectator on the Friday previous, because our contemporary had in previous years always copied from the MONITOR. In the first place, if the Spectator was not sharp A NONOGENARIAN DROWNED .- Two ac- Hunter. ed in so personal and unimportant a matter as the contest between two printers for a year's public printing, we will condense printed in the MONITOR-was in its best and handiest position to be made up for the sheets, we would take our risks on it and strike them off. We did so and got stuck on them, that's all ; and we afterwards had the pleasure of cutting them up for wrappers for newspapers. Was that anybody's business but our own? Nobody authorized us to print them. As far as the owned by Clarke Bros., Bear River. anybody's business but our own? Nobody and got left. As for one of the boys "in-

Bear River to interview Mr. Piggott, an-other member of the committee. Well, he Middleton, was burned on Monday evenhad a hard time, poor fellow, but we cannot see how that was our fault.

He next says he again repaired to Bridgetown, and was informed by Mr. Vidito that

-The Kentville Star remarks, in its last late Isaac Woodward, ex-M. P. P., and a quarter article this week, in which it makes many dire revelations in regard to us. In the first of its article, it claims that the use had in regard to receiving the the reduction of the receiving the rece us. In the first of its article, it claims that all the rights we had in regard to receiving the copy for our own edition immediately well Hill, left in yesterday's train to go to well Hill, left in yesterday's train to go to all advanced. -Have you seen the choice variety of their loyalty was an inheritance of the J. W. Beckwith's? 300 patterns ceased clergyman. Rev. Mr. Walker died cherish. St. John Globe. Southern California all events, if it copied from the MONTON it got clean copy, and not such a bungled up mess as the Spectator published, it being so full of errors that by its own pub-lished statement it had to republish to make good its contract with the Council. British American Citizen :

our reply as much as possible, and simply defend ourselves against his misrepresenta-tions. In the first place, Mr. Hamilton declares ings already printed. So he did, but what of that? We asked the Clerk on Thursday if Mr. Hamilton had asked for any esti-mates of the work yet, he said No. We then thought, although there was one day more, that as the matter—having just been in direct. Induct of the very dest material trian of Southern California is as varied as the deceased was connected with two news, papers during his lifetime, and was well then thought, although there was one day more, that as the matter—having just been in Halifax. A widow and five children are left to mourn their loss. —All persons in Truperville are hereby -All persons in Tupperville are hereby -Spectator.

notified to keep their cattle off the roads li EDGAR BRUCE, Cattle Reeve. Port Lorne Items.

Two candidates were baptized in the bay on Sabbath afternoon, by the pastor. Captain Joseph Brinton left to-day, to suthorized us to print them. As far as the Clerk was concerned, he had nothing whatever to do with them. We only sent them to his office to get them out of the way. He left them untouched until the tenders were decided. We simply chanced it, that's all,  $d_{i}$  and  $d_$ well deserved tribute of respect to the a curious misnomer, and gives many the memory of the late Rev. D. S. Gordon, impression that rain falls constantly durin Fine weather, good health, and fair pros-poking fun at him. Printers are usually very innocent. How on earth could he tell him a thing he knew nothing about? Mr. H. next goes on to relate his trials and difficulties in getting the Committee in regard to the tenders. How he hired a team and drove up to Mr. Vidito's, and then hired another team and drove down to Bear River to interview. May and the tenders. How he hired a then hired another team and drove down to resent Rev. George Walker and Rev.

Milledge Walker are in the city. The de-ceased gentleman's wife was diss Ann Woodward, of Halifax, and sister of the was a small village." —The Spectator comes out with a column and a quarter article this week, in which —The Spectator comes out with a column and a quarter article this week, in which —The Spectator comes out with a column and a quarter article this week, in which —The Spectator comes out with a column and a quarter article this week, in which —The Spectator comes out with a column and a quarter article this week, in which —The Spectator comes out with a column and a quarter article this week, in which —The Spectator comes out with a column and a quarter article this week, in which —The Spectator comes out with a column A mole a success. —The Kentville Star remarks, in its last issue, that A. W. Phinney, of Middleton, and Balcom & Nixon, of Nictaux, had as-signed. There is nothing like news. They assigned about two months ago. —The Kentville Star remarks, in its last issue, that A. W. Phinney, of Middleton, and Balcom & Nixon, of Nictaux, had as-signed. There is nothing like news. They assigned about two months ago. —The Kentville Star remarks, in its last issue, that A. W. Phinney, of Middleton, and Balcom & Nixon, of Nictaux, had as-signed. There is nothing like news. They assigned about two months ago. —The Kentville Star remarks, in its last issue, that A. W. Phinney, of Middleton, and Balcom & Nixon, of Nictaux, had as-signed. There is nothing like news. They assigned about two months ago. ily, by whom Charles the First was hidden in the oak tree at Bosobel. The pursuing soldiers searched the Pen but failed to find the fugitive king The old home is still standing, and a part of the allowance made to the family > at a ripe old age, simply of natural decay, - Abraham Daniels, who turns our having filled up the measure of a very ac wheel, has peas up over a foot, -Gold tive and useful life, and leaving behind him a memory which men will respect and

So many persons are carried away with the idea that Southern California is little

"That the advantages to settlers in Southern California, and the benefits to be derived by invalids from its climate, have been over-estimated, is perfectly true. This may also be said in regard to representa-tions circulated over the country by news-Misses' Aprons.

papers and land agents regarding the value of its agricultural and horticultural products.

e contractors nands by the government. Spectator. Somebody who has been looking into subject has discovered that of the 215 the subject has discovered that of the 215 on what the soil receives from the winte the subject has discovered that of the 24b members of the Dominion house of com-mons, 59 are lawyers, 47 merchants and members of financial or trading corpora-tions, 39 farmers, 21 physicians, 11 lumber-men, 9 journalists, 7 manufacturers, 6 contractors, 3 shipbuilders and 2 civil en-best sections of the valleys, lands withou ing,

HATS.

ETC., ETC., ETC., Always in stock, a full line of First-Cla

DISE, at Lowest Prices. welve to fifteen inches; but, as all the rain Best Goods, Flour & Meal

Silverine Ware,

ANOTHER ACCOUNT. The Wilmot Spa Springs Hotel, near Middleton, was burned on Monday even-ing, 27th inst. The fire occurred at about half-past ten, and is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue. Very little furniture was saved. Interpret to the directors were elected: W. Vassic, Daniel Pattoe, W. H. Thorne, H. D. Troop and James Manchester of St. John, H. B. Short, of Digby, and S. W. W. Pickup, of Granville Ferry. At a meet-ing directors held subsequently furniture was saved. Interpret to the directors held subsequently managing director. W. H. Thorne, vice ing of the directors held subsequently Howard D. Troop was chosen president and managing director, W. H. Thorne, vice president and John E. Irvine, secretary-our tender was $97, but that we had agreed to throw off about ten dollars worth of work done previous to Dec. 1st. This he calls a pretty small trick. Was it? By the terms of every one of our contracts that we have made since the old sessions (which sat in October) were merged into the Munici-pal Council, we have always included the SWEET POTATOES, UNIONS, TOMATOES

FULL LINE OF GRUCERIES

10 per cent Discount SIR GARNET

To the From

I have in Stock & Fresh Lot of