

CONTENTS OF THE SECOND VOLUME.

CHAPTER I.

St. Andrews' day at Kingston—The Chief MacNab—Anecdote of the North Country—Masonry—Saturnalia of the 93rd—Deer hunting in winter—Provent for the bush—Loughborough Lake—The hunter, Knapp—The runways—The Lake in the 'Fall'—A crafty hunter—The death of the roe—Stories of wolves—More sport—Dog Lake—Bad consequences of 'pistolling'—Camp in the snow—
Horse-shoe Lake—Kill a four-year old buck—Discomforts of the runways in winter . . . 1

CHAPTER II.

Proposal for a great military road—General idea of New Brunswick—Author is invited to survey and explore