-London Field Battery.—This battery was inspected by Colonel Strange, R. A., on the 26th ult. The target practice had to be postponed until the full, owing the disticulty of obtaining a range.

practice, which was very fair, was carried out on the 8th Capt. Short, C.A., range officer.

-The inspection of the 14 P. W. O. Rifles, Col. Kerr, took place on the 7th inst. Col. Korr and the officers of this regiment, afterwards give a dinner at the Windsor Hotel, Kingston, to which the officers of B" Battery and lowing —General Orders, No. 1.—The attack in extended order, instruction in. Staff and regimental officers are were invited. This Battalion is highly efficient inspected the 40th Battalion at Cobourg, on the 38th ult.

-- The 4th Cavalry, Col Duff consisting of four troops, one hundred and forty horses are in in camp at Bath, the unancing by rushes, according to the nuture of the ground and the position and formation of the enemy in front. imspection takes place at an early date this month.

The Ottawa Rifles go into camp in August An Boon as their Captain returns from the North-West.

the 27th ult. They numbered altogother about four

-The Montreal and Toronto Engineers the former under the command of Major Kennedy and the latter Col.

Engineers paraded on Barriefield Common under be command of Lt. Col. Strange, R.A., Commandant R.S.G., in honor of Dominion Bay. The troops went through an extended sories of manouvres in the attack of Barriefield village, and marched and trotted past. The following was the programme of manmuvres carried out -1. The force will murch past in col-.mu. 2. Artillery will trot and gallop past. 3. Resume original position, fire a Royal salute and feu-de-joie, genforce will represent a convoy advancing in the direction! pede the general attack. 6. The Artillery will take up of military tactics.

- Kingston Field Battery commanded by Major position on the left, close to the bank of Rideau Canal and Wilmot, has been quartered, at Artiflery Park, Kingston, open fire on the village at Barriefield. 7. The Gontleduring the past month, for the annual training of the men Cadet Battalion under Major Ridout will be extend-same. The mon had their rifle practice on the 29th alt., ed for attack to the right of the road leading to Barrieand made the splendid score of five hundred points. The field and occupy the high ground commanding the vil-Battery was inspected by Col. Strange, R. A., D. I. of A., blace, where the field guns of "B" Battery, under Captain who expressed himself to the Commanding officer as pleased with the working of the corps. tend for attack on the left or the road. 9. The Engineer Battalion and train, under Lt. Col. Scoble will represent the convoy with its immediatoguard. They will advance, along the road towards Barricheld, and finally when arriving near the village be deployed and open fire by vol--The Gananoque Field Battery has been encamped hes to resist close attack from the village; before this near the village bearing that name, and was inspected on the train carts may be formed under cover in the the 7th inst., by Lt. Col. Strange, I of A. The gun hollow to the left of the read. 10. The whole forces will retire, covered by the Gentlemen Cadets Battalion and "B" Battery, R.S.G., the convoy and its escort rétiring along the road. 11 The force dismissed the private parades.

by al School of Gunnery and the local volunteer corps of order, instruction in the corps in the duties.

This Battalion is highly efficient requested to study and instruct their corps in the duties.

Light Col. Straubenzie and Brigade Major Worsley of soldiers as explained in part 3, pages 202 to 242 of the Field Exercise and Evolutions of Infantry, of 1877. having special reference to the attack in extended order. the necessity of taking advantage of cover, and of ad-managuvres -" It must be carefully explained that extended order is applicable both to the termation for at-The troops quartered at Kingston, including the that in the attack the object is gradually to bring up the gentlemen cade to of the R. M. C, had a church parade on battalion with as little loss as possible to a point sufficient. ciently near the position of the enemy, whence the hothundred strong and were under the command of Colonel test fire can be poured in, and the final assault by the Van Straubenzie. The band of "B" Battery played them battalion, as a compact body, can be made a whereas, in skirmishing, the object is either to cover a body of tracing not formed for attack, or to feel for an enemy when advancing through an enclosed or wooded country. In this. rander the command of Major Kennedy rud the latter Col. Scoble have been in camp near the Royal Military College, Kir ton, from the 21st ult. to the 1st inst., indergoing instruction in military enginering, under the direction of Lt.-Col. Hewitt, R. E. The Toronto division had with them their pontoon and telegraph troop.

The command of Major Kennedy rud the latter Col. track, therefore, men must not be permitted to seek cover during through an enclosed of wooded foundly. Application of the content of the latter Col. track, therefore, men must not be permitted to seek cover during through an enclosed of wooded foundly. Application of the cover during through an enclosed of wooded foundly. Application of the latter Col. It will be advance, when by so doing they lose their, intered and fail to move directly to the front, further, therefore, men must not be permitted to seek cover during the advance, when by so doing they lose their, intered and fail to move directly to the front, further, therefore, men must not be permitted to seek cover during the advance, when by so doing they lose their, intered and fail to move directly to the front, further, therefore, men must not be permitted to seek cover during the advance, when by so doing they lose their, intered and fail to move directly to the front, further, therefore, men must not be permitted to seek cover during the advance, when by so doing they lose their, intered and fail to move directly to the front, further, therefore, men must not be permitted to seek cover. The gentlemen cadets, R.M.C., "B" Battery, the Kingston Field Battery, and the Montreal and Toronto and manceuvres are to be allowed." This was precisely. what was followed out in the Quebec sham fight. The line advanced to the attack in extended order, and it was absolutely necessary that its formation and and the interval between the men should be strictly kept, so that the final rush could be made in a compact lody. In a line advancing to the attack in extended formation, the men composing it will invariably and naturally edge away from the centre, where the fire is the hottest towards the flanks, and if not kept well in hand by those in command; eral salute. 4. Force will form mass of quarter columns and allowed to lose all formation, when the objective at head of bridge, facing north, artillery in front. 5. The point is reached, not a single man would be found direct. y in front to earry it by assault. Skirmishing and advancing to the attack are very different managures, and of Barriefield met by an enemy, a small party of Enthe manner in which the line advanced to the apack, over incore, under direction of Lt.-Col. Scoble, will advance the Plains of Abraham on the 24th of May leat is into the Plains of Abraham on the 24th of May last is in then retire quickly or get under cover, so as not to im-