A recent letter from Alberta says that a proposal has been made by a Bible Class that, during the coming winter, superintendent, teachers and class should set apart one night a week for a "sort of religious literary society," making the Teacher Training Course the basis of their studies. In many places, where a class cannot be formed, families and individuals are taking it up. Write for information to Rev. J. M. Duncan, B.D., Secretary Committee on Teacher Training, Confederation Life Building, Toronto.

WHAT HE WAS PROUD OF

Colonel N. A. Bartlet, of Windsor, had the honor the other day of parading his regiment in Detroit, in connection with the welcome to President Roosevelt. The President was greatly pleased with the sturdy swing of the Canadian volunteers, and with their neatness and soldierly-like bearing, and com-
