CHICAGO MARKET—January 20, 1900.

From the Bartlett Frazier Co., Chicago. H. J. Coon, Manager, 39 St. Sacramento St.

MARKET STRONG TO-DAY. WHEAT SELLING AT PRINCIPAL TRADERS ARE BELIEVING A RALLY IS SAID TO BE IN THE OFFING — NO WIRES TO-DAY.

Chicago, Jan. 20.

Owing to disturbance in telegraphic wire systems no detailed communications about the market are to hand. There is no quotation except 66 for May wheat to which figure this near option advanced to-day. The market was said to be strong, however.

Northwest receipts 361 at Duluth, Minneapolis and Chicago yesterday were small compared with the 666 of the same week last year. Without news of any sort a sharp rally should be due on general principles, especially as liquidation would seem almost if not quite complete. A period is approaching when crop scares are almost as certain as the change in the seasons. Yesterday there seemed to be fair buying orders for May wheat at Chicago at 65 cents and to-day as stated before it has advanced to 66. Puts and calls were quoted at Chicago and the selling there will be extended ten minutes after closing time to enable a settlement out of the Board of Trade there.
