"About 1730," says Dr. Ashe "Porter has first manufactured in the City of London." This name was given to the beverage, because the principal consumers, were the Stalwart Porters of the day, who found its invigorating properties most beneficial, under their strain of work.

The names of Porter or Stout (as used by the public) are synonymous. We wish to mention our STOUT. Made from pure Malt and Hops it is most nourishing to the Invalid, because of its peculiar, aromatic flavour.

It is grateful to the Jaded Palate, because of its TONIC QUALITIES. It creates a healthy appetite, and builds up the system.

All sized bottles from half pints.
