

which will indicate, in particular, the insured periods under the legislation of the first Party.

3. On receipt of the application form and the liaison form, the institution of the other Party will add to the liaison form information concerning the insured periods under the legislation which it administers and will, without delay, return the liaison form, through the liaison agencies, to the institution of the first Party.

4. Each competent institution will subsequently determine the applicant's eligibility and notify the other institution, through the liaison agencies, of the benefits, if any, granted to the applicant.

ARTICLE 7

1. In regard to the application form referred to in Article 6 of this Administrative Arrangement, there will be separate forms for claims for benefits under the legislation of Canada and of Spain.

2. The liaison agencies of the Parties will, by common agreement, decide what documentation should accompany an application form. In the case of an application for a disability pension, with the consent of the person concerned, copies of medical documentation, if any, will be attached to the application. In the case of an application for a benefit under the Old Age Security Act of Canada, the documentation will include, to the extent possible, certification of periods of residence in the territory of Spain.

3. The institution of the Party to which a claim for a benefit is submitted will certify the accuracy of the personal information regarding the applicant, the members of the applicant's family and any other person to whom the claim applies. The type of information to which this paragraph applies and the type of documentation which will be used to verify that information will be agreed upon by the liaison agencies of the Parties.

4. The transmission of an application form certified in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, and the transmission of the liaison form referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of Article 6 of this Administrative Arrangement, will obviate the need to send documents corroborating the corresponding information.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 8

1. The liaison agency of one Party will, to the extent permitted by the legislation which it administers, provide, upon request, to the liaison agency of the other Party such medical information and documentation as are available concerning the disability of a beneficiary.
