

9. A woman whose husband was naturalized, no matter at what date before January 1st, 1947, in any of the following countries, retains British nationality:

Argentina	Guatemala
Brazil	Paraguay
Chile	Uruguay
Dominican Republic	Venezuela

11. Czechoslovakia: A woman who married a Czechoslovak citizen retains British nationality unless the woman makes application to acquire Czechoslovak citizenship either to the Czechoslovak Ministry of the Interior or to a Czechoslovak diplomatic or consular mission abroad, either prior to or within three months after the marriage. (CEI Amend #9).

10. Hungary: A woman of Jewish race who marries a Hungarian cannot acquire Hungarian nationality by marriage and, if such a woman was a British subject prior to marriage before January 1st, 1947, she retains British nationality.

Children

6.08 a. The national status of a child is not affected by the death of either parent or the divorce of the child's parents.

b. The national status of a child is not affected by the remarriage of the child's mother, after the date of birth.

c. In cases of birth out of wedlock within Canada citizenship arises from the place of birth, and the child is a Canadian

Section 4(b) & 5(b)