FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
AUGUST 9, 1966.

LIQUIDATION OF THE TERRITORIAL BANK OF CUBA

On May 6 the Department of External Affairs issued a Press Release drawing attention to an official announcement received from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Cuba dated March 15, 1966, giving notice of the liquidation of the Territorial Bank of Cuba. The Department of External Affairs now wishes to draw attention to a second official announcement received from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Cuba dated June 15, 1966, concerning the liquidation of the Territorial Bank of Cuba. This second announcement gives notice that the deadline which had been June 15, for the submission of claims against the Territorial Bank of Cuba has been extended for ninety days to September 12, 1966, after which any legal action shall be considered to have lapsed, and all rights the claimants may have shall be regarded as waived.

The Liquidating Commission in Cuba has its office at Central Office of the National Bank of Cuba, located at 402 Cuba Street, Havana.

Canadian citizens who may require assistance with regard to claims against the Territorial Bank of Cuba should communicate with the Department of External Affairs, Ottawa.
