

This summer as you would have found the place a chaos of wilder's yards, but that is small compensation for missing the pleasure of having you all under the roof of the University House. We still talk of the time you were in St. Andrews and stayed at a hotel!

I'm giving next year's Inter-University Conference a kniss, believing with you that little good can result from such meetings if always
