

2.

stood anywhere around the 90's, and because of considerable humidity we have all been uncomfortable.

I have not seen George for some time, though we usually play some golf together during the summer months. His son, Brooke, takes quite a prominent part in many local affairs, and I believe is some relation by marriage to the Durnfords, one of whom married my daughter a year ago.

I trust you are well.

Ever yours faithfully,