

---

SUMMARY OF CONTENTS

---

CHAPTER XIV—"THE GOOD OLD DAYS (?)"

Social and Other Conditions Years Ago—Ignorance and Poverty—Educational Facilities—Few Home Comforts—Starvation Wages—Distress Among Rural Population—Fall of Montmorency Bridge—Suspension Bridge at Quebec—"Great Eastern" in Port—Red-men at Indian Cove—Huron Tribe and Village—Smoking and Snuffing Among Women and Men—Calèche Drivers—Buffalo Coats and the "Ceinture Fléchée", Etc., Etc. .... 185

CHAPTER XV—CRIMPING ALONG THE COVES

Cruel Ship Captains—Bold Work of Sailor Catchers—Jack Tars Kidnapped—Forced to Fight in United States—Water a Luxury—Asiatic Cholera—Thousands of Victims—People Buried Alive—City Deserted—Explosion in Military Laboratory—National Schools—Finlay and Female Orphan Asylums—Royal Grammar and High Schools—Ste. Foye Monument—Fall of Sebastopol, Etc., Etc. .... 196

CHAPTER XVI—QUEBEC'S FIRST RAILWAY

The Gosford Road—Wooden Rails—Directors of the Company—First Locomotive a Curiosity—Marvelous Results—Grand Trunk in the Early Fifties—Train Snowbound—Canada's Earliest Locomotive—Other Roads—Horse Cars and Electric Lines—Random Shots from the Citadel—California Gold Fever—Pioneer Shoe Business—Explosion at the Worsted Factory, Etc., Etc. .... 208

CHAPTER XVII—THE GRAVE AND THE GAY

Quebec's "Cities of the Dead"—Oldest Cemeteries on Record—History of St. John Street Burying Ground—Men of Note Interred—Quaint Epitaphs—Where Montgomery was Buried—First Interment in Mount Hermon Cemetery—St. Patrick's and Other Cemeteries—Theatre Royal Holocaust—Names of Many of the Victims—Credit System Not Popular in Quebec—Old Curiosity Shop, Etc., Etc. .... 223

CHAPTER XVIII—FOUNDERS OF QUEBEC'S NATIONAL SOCIETIES

St. George's, St. Patrick's, St. Andrew's and St-Jean-Baptiste Societies—Irish Protestant Benevolent Society—Death of D'Arcy McGee—St. Patrick's Literary Institute—Annual Soirées of the Latter Society—Methodist Church—Prominent Men Who Were Odd Fellows—The Young Men's Christian Association—Past Presidents—Debating Club and Its Members—Gough and St. Lawrence Divisions, Sons of Temperance, Etc., Etc. .... 239