

JUST PUBLISHED.

A History of the Red River Rebellion, And the Creation of Manitoba.

Containing a full and authentic account of the conduct of the Hudson Bay Company ; the Transfer of the Territory to Canada ; the Uprising of the Inhabitants ; Taking of Fort Garry ; Trial of Major Boulton ; Arrest and Murder of Thomas Scott ; Letters of Hon. Joseph Howe ; Laws of Assinibola ; Biography of Gov. McTavish ; the administration of Governor Archibald, &c., &c.

BY ALEXANDER BEGG, ESQ., OF WINNIPEG.

Opinions of the Press.

"The contents are of more than ordinary interest."—Canadian Illustrated News.

"The interest which the recent troubles in Manitoba have given to all questions relating to the North-west Territory, will insure for this book a ready sale."—Montreal Gazette, July 25th.

"The author is the well-known Alexander Begg, a gentleman whose every statement may be relied upon as accurate, many of the scenes portrayed coming under his immediate notice. The account of the barbarous murder of poor Scott, is given in all its shocking details. The work is gotten up in handsome style, for which the publisher is proverbial, and is just such a book as cannot fail to prove of intense interest to all."—London Herald, July 26th.

"We have perused the work before us to acquire information about Manitoba, and have found facts clearly stated and positions satisfactorily proven. The book is full of information and reads like a true narrative. It is well printed and tastefully bound."—The Hearststone, August 12th.

"Mr. Begg's history will be accepted as reliable, and it is, besides, written in an easy clear style worthy of commendation. We hope for the sake of author and publisher that it may be largely circulated."—Toronto Express.

The work is published in a handsome crown octavo volume, of 408 pages, printed from new type, on fine white English paper, and embellished with portraits of Gov. McDougall, Dr. Shultz, Riel, and Bishop Tache, and a view of FORT GARRY; the whole is superbly and substantially bound in extra muslin, with side stamp in ink and gold.

Price $1 50. Sent post-paid on receipt of price.

"DOT IT DOWN,"

A Story of Life in the North-West,

BY ALEXANDER BEGG, ESQ., OF WINNIPEG.

This is a Book for the times, and is a very faithful picture of the Country, its soil and resources, and of the manners, customs, and social position of the inhabitants. While pleasing the fancy of every class of readers, it Gives intending Emigrants reliable and valuable information.

380 pp., Crown 8vo., illuminated cloth, gold side and back titles.

Price $1.50. Sent free per mail on receipt of price.

Opinions of the Press.

Altogether the work is one that cannot fail to commend itself to every loyal Canadian, and will, we doubt not, receive a wide-spread circulation.—London Evening Herald.

An Emigrant's Guide concludes the book, which will prove very useful.—London Free Press.

This volume contains a large amount of valuable information concerning a country in which we are deeply interested.—Guelp Evening Mercury.

This book, in a light and easy style, gives a great deal of information about the North-West Territory, and issued alike to the taste of the mere novel reader, and to that of a person in quest of sound information regarding that important country.—Ottawa Free Press.

HUNTER, ROSE & CO.,

Printers and Publishers, Toronto.