chants compute the imports from Britain to be above 500,000 Pounds.

Q. What may be the amount of the produce of your province exported to Britain?

A. It must be fmall, as we produce little that is wanted in Britain. I suppose it cannot exceed 40,000 Pounds.

Q. How then do you pay the balance?

A. The balance is paid by our produce carried to the West-Indies, and fold in our own islands, or to the French, Spaniards, Danes and Dutch; by the fame carried to other colonies in North-America, as to New-England, Nova-Scotia, Newfoundland, Carolina and Georgia; by the fame carried to different parts of Europe, as Spain, Portugal and Italy. In all which places we receive either money, bills of Exchange, or commodities that fuit for remittance to Britain; which, together with all the profits on the industry of our merchants and mariners, arifing in those circuitous voyages, and the freights made by their ships, center finally in Britain to discharge the balance, and pay for British manfactures continually used in the province, or fold to foreigners by our traders.

Q. Have you heard of any difficulties lately laid on the Spanish trade?

A. Yes,
