

ILLUSTRATIONS

FROM DRAWINGS BY W. APPLETON CLARK

|                                                                    |                |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| "I am the keeper of the light"                              | Frontispiece   |
| Perfectly content if she looked up nowand then         | Facing page 16 |
| "Den you play on de violon — lak' dis one — listen"         | 3              |
| "He has given me a light for my pipe again"                 | 80             |
| "But to fight — that is another affair"                     | 94             |
| "But I'll be selling him gladly"                            | 144            |
| The whole river rushed down upon the canoe                  | 232            |
| "He winks," she said, "old one-eye winks beauti-fully" | 272            |