

science, but a University of which the religious character shall be known and acknowledged, in which the doctrines of the Church of England shall be taught in their integrity, and in which her pure and "reasonable service" shall elevate and sanctify the labours of the teacher and the scholar.

We hope to succeed in establishing for ourselves, without pecuniary aid from any public source, a University clearly and avowedly in connexion with our Church, receiving only from our gracious Sovereign what other religious denominations in the province have received, a Charter of Incorporation, providing for the government of the Institution, and conferring on it the privilege of granting Degrees.

I am labouring, at an advanced age, to lay the foundation of a work which I believe will, at no distant day, be of inestimable value to that rising country. The efforts which I made in the Province, just before my departure, have been nobly seconded. Within a few weeks, the contributions in money and land amounted to more than twenty-five thousand pounds. Yet this effort, astonishing as it is, considering the state of the contributors, struggling for subsistence in the wilderness, far from the land of their fathers, is scarcely sufficient to erect the necessary buildings. But does it not constitute a claim all but irresistible upon the Members of the Church in this country, to supply the deficiency as to endowment? Hence, having done our utmost, my people as well as myself feel ourselves justified in relying with filial confi-
