

service on the plain. Else we shall be blasted by the very splendour that was granted us for blessing. From the mountain and the glory we may go with Jesus through the valleys with their shadows to the crown of life.