Dr. J. G. McPherson's Hackneys Auctioned At the Repository

There was a big crowd at the Repository when the sale commenced at a little after 10 o'clock yesterday. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson's hackneys were sold, and they were a splendid lot. J. E. H. Barnett of Renfrew, Ont., purchased Sir Rufus, a chg. by Red Squire for $875. There was very spirited bidding over this horse, and Mr. T. A. Crow of Crow & Murray, vied with Mr. Barnett for the possession of the horse from a bid of $200 up. Finally, however, Mr. Barnett made the successful bid of $875. Mr. C. A. Burns officiated as auctioneer, and it was possibly due to him that Sir Rufus came up to his price. This horse will, no doubt, be heard from again if Mr. Barnett intends to show him.

John Rose of Guelph, Ont., bought British Born, a chg., for $340. Hywel's Study Actress, a chm. by Lord Elphinstone, was purchased by John Henderson, Toronto, for $225. The others sold went to Mr. O'Mara, Palmerston; H. Taylor, Belleville, and N. Watts of London, Ont.

Canada Drank 6,400,000 Glasses Last Year

From the modest beginning David Kuntz made in 1852 the products of the Kuntz Brewery have steadily grown in popular favor until, last year, over 6,400,000 glasses of this delicious beverage quenched the thirst and helped the health of Canada. One vital reason for the excellence of this fine lager is the perfect purity of the water which is its base. The flavor of any lager largely depends upon the quality of the water used to brew it; and the Kuntz Springs yield a water that is exactly right chemically and absolutely pure naturally. Other brewers must depend upon artificial means to purify the water they use. That is why the ORIGINAL Kuntz Lager possesses an exquisitely fine flavor in contrast to the heavy, flat taste ordinary lagers offer. Look for the star on the label and find super-quality in the bottle. Demand ORIGINAL Kuntz's Lager, brewed only in Waterloo for nearly sixty years.
