Montreal, March 18.—(Special)—Hon. J. A. Chapleau came to the city last evening, and to-day a significant ar-ticle appeared in La Presse, a news-paper that is held to be devoted to His Honor's political interests. The leader holds that Freinch-Canadian in-fluence has steadily declined in the Cabinet since the death of Cartier, and declares that Hon, Messrs. Masson, Oversight Hammon matter. Dr. Campbell repeated the testimony already published as to the purchase by Hammond of one ounce of prussio acid on the morning of the 6th. ## GOSSIP AT THE CAPITAL.

Will the Montrealers Agree to Postpone Their Exhibition Next Year? Ottawa, March 18.-(Special.)-There is a prospect of a lively fight between Montreal and Torouto over the proposed Dominion Exhibition next year. Mr. H. J. Hill, af-ter to-morrow's meeting here. will go to Montreal to interview the Montreal au-thorities and to urge them to postpone their exhibition until 1888 or 1890. It is felt there that Toronto ought to have a free course next year for her Exhibition. Now that the Montreal project has fallen through, the least that city could do is not to hamper Toronto. to hamper Toronto

Mr. Budge says that the merchants of the West Indies, Nova Scotla and New Brunswick are unanimous on the necessity of cheaper rates and a more direct cable service for the derelop-ment of trade. The present rate from Halffax, N.S., to Jamaica is $1.19 per word. This rate the Bermuda Company proposes tance be given it by the Dominion and Im-would lead to the opening out of new com-mercial routes for trade. ### To Help the Dying Armenians.

To Help the Dying Armenians. The Presbytery of Algoma, through Mr. Charlton, M.P., presented a petition to Parliament to-day on behalf of oppressed Armenia. It says that the Armenian's dying cry has not yet led to any protest from any civilized power, and that Parlia-ment ought to pass a resolution asking the Imperial Government to Interfere and to express our sense of the grievous wrong England's inaction does to this peaceful Christian people. The petition winds up with a couple of verses of "God Save the Queen."
