This idea ly stifle discussion upon the contingents is not taken seriously by the leaders of the Opposition, as an appeal on the Redistribution bill would be swamped by a counter-appeal on Sir Charles' amendment that is considered an infinitely better measure. Besides, many constituencies have not yet had their conventions, and it is desirable in some to have exceptionally good men chosen.

All Eyes on Joe Martin.

The members from the west still have their minds fixed on Joe Martin. They do not think W. W. B. McInnes will go west just yet. He is too foxy for that.
