OAK HALL CLOTHIERS, 115 King E.——116 Yonge.

Chatham, N.B., July 19 .- The Pan-Americon Circus, which played here yesterday, met with a disaster last night about 11 o'clock. A gasoline stove in one of the cars exploded. One man was badly burned and another less seriously. A car loaded with nonies caught fire, three of the animals being burned to death, and one jumped from the burning car with its eyes burned out.

In front of the clubhouse.

Some days ago several trunks in the Crow's Nest Camp were broken open and some articles taken. The police were notined, but up to the present time have found no trace of the thieves.

**RAWARTHA LAKES.**

These charming lakes are now at ther height. Stony Lake is hubming. The numerous cottages look elegant, and carpenters and painters are still busy erecting and decorating.

Bobcaygeon, the head of the Kawartha Lakes, is enjoying an immense crowd this season. By invitation of the T.V.N. Company, the guests of the Rockiand House, to the number of over sixty, took the trip to Burleigh Falls on Thursday by the beautiful steamer Ogemah. Mr. Kenney, the proprietor of the Kockiand, accompanied his guests and looked after their refreshment, and the outing was greatly enjoyed by the party.

Hon. J. R. Stratton is having his cottage at Stony Lake very artistically painted.

Col. S. Hughes, M.P., of Lindsay is starting to build his summer cottage on Cameron Lake.
