A PONY NO LARGER THAN A TOY.The little daughter of Israel Hunton, a farmer of Orange county, Ohio, has one of the queerest pets ever seen—a 2-year-old horse that measures only 13 inches high.This strange midget pony is regarded by many as one of the most remarkably interesting bits of horse flesh in the land; certainly, the tiny horse is the smallest equine on earth.Dot, as the midget is called, has a remarkable history. For, unlike other dwarfs of her race, she is the offspring of an ancestry of ordinary, every-day horses. Both her father and mother were horses of the usual size and appearance, and so far as is known, there is no reason for Dot's extremely small stature.When born, she was a good deal larger than a kitten, and had to be fed by her owner from the beginning.
Great care was given the tiny colt in the effort to raise her, and now she is full grown, almost perfectly formed, and vigorous in health, but only as big as a full-grown Newfoundland dog.Offers of large sums have been made Mr. Hunton by museum and circus managers for Dot, who is, of course, much wanted for exhibition purposes.
These have all been refused, because Mr. Hunton's daughter is so much attached to the family pet that he has not been able to secure her consent. Being wealthy himself, it is probable that those who wish to see the tiniest horse on the globe will have to see it on the farm of its owner.Disease attacks the weak and debilitated. Keep yourself healthy and strong by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

SPORTS AT THE BARRACKS.

A Long Programme This Afternoon—Preliminary Events Thursday.The annual sports at Wolsley Barracks began at 1 p.m. today, with a programme of nineteen events, including a tug-of-war, horse reel competition, a football match, and all kinds of races. There were a few preliminary events yesterday afternoon, which could be better put through without a crowd of spectators. In kicking the football, Pte. Evans took first, Pte.
Hall second and Pte. Flowers third.
Pte. Hosgood was first in throwing the cricket ball, Pte. Gibbs second.
Pte. Hall took first place in throwing the hammer, and agreed to throw divide first and second money. Pte.
Henderson took third.The officials for the sports are: Starters: Lieut. R. (Twenty-sixth Battalion); time-keeper, Second Lieut. Macbeth (Twenty-sixth Battalion); judges, Lieut.-Col. Smith, D.

nine years ago. Mrs. Goodacre had been a resident of the city since shortly after the death of her husband, and was universally respected. Her younger days were also spent in London. She lived some years in success and then came back to this city. Mrs.
Goodacre was a member of the Colborne Street Wesleyan church. She was 55 years of age, and leaves four sons—Leon, of Chicago, and Arthur, Fred and Benjamin, of this city. Her

MRS. TILLEY IN OTTAWA.

The public meeting held last evening under the auspices of the King's Daughters in the Y. W. C. A. rooms was attended by a large number of ladies, who were given a rare treat in hearing Mrs. Tilley, the fluent and graceful speaker of the King's Daughters. Mrs. Tilley is the secretary of this order throughout Canada, and is doing a great deal of good work. Mrs.
Tilley, who was listened to with the greatest attention throughout, in conclusion made an earnest and pathetic appeal to the King's Daughters to strive to infuse a higher moral tone in the community in which they dwell.
—Ottawa Free Press.THE PHOTOGRAPHERS' CON-VENTION.The Canadian Photographers' convention was opened in Victoria Hall, Toronto, yesterday by Mr. F. Westlake, of this city, who read a paper entitled "My idea of a photographic convention." He thought that the place of meeting should be changed around.
He also made several other suggestions, which the association will hereafter try to carry out. It was decided to hold the next meeting in London when an exhibition of pictures will be made and large prizes awarded. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mr. James Hopkins, of St.
Thomas; first vice-president, Mr. Thos.
Blakie, Chatham; second vice-president, Mr. J. Green, Berlin; secretary, Mr. Frank G. Westlake, London; treasurer, Mr. J. Ramsay, Toronto.

CANADIAN JUBILEE SINGERS.

The Canadian Jubilee Singers, with their orchestra, will be in London on Monday evening, Oct. 28. They will appear in Wesley Hall. The following is from the Democrat, Amsterdam, N.
Y.: "The First Baptist Church was crowded last evening by an intelligent and appreciative audience, who assembled to listen to a concert by the famous Canadian Jubilee Singers and their Imperial Orchestra. The troupe consists of seven male and four female singers, and is the only troupe of jubilee singers which carries a complete orchestra. Last evening's entertainment was first-class in every respect. The orchestral selections were well rendered, and the singing was the best ever listened to by an Amsterdam audience. The programme consisted of seventeen numbers, and nearly every one received an enthusiastic encore from the delighted audience."
