

MUTT AND JEFF.—Ah, Well, Easy Come, Easy Go.

ALGONQUIN PARK.

No better place could be devised for a real holiday for red-blooded men and women than Algonquin Park, situated about 200 miles north of the city of Toronto. It is an unspoiled territory of nearly 2,000,000 acres, starred with beautiful lakes and intersected by rushing streams. No reserve in Canada approaches it in the wealth of attractions it offers to the lover of out-of-door life. Away up in the Highlands of Ontario, the park is a wonderful spot in which to renew the energies of a tired body or refresh a wearied spirit. Its tonic air, its pine, balsam and spruce, the days are unusually long with brilliant sunshine, while the cool evenings are a time of enchantment. The park is a paradise for the fisherman and canoeist, and from every state in the Dominion, the canoeist can travel for hundreds of miles in his light canoe and be in a veritable kingdom of his own.

The accommodation in the park is such that the most varied tastes can be pleased. There are hotels for those who want to be in the wilderness yet enjoy all the comforts that good service and social companionship can bring; there are groups of log cabins, comfortably furnished and ideal for family parties, with central lodges containing recreation and dining rooms, where you may dine and find everything ready for you on your return from the tramp; or if you have planned to camp under your own canvas you may step into a canoe at one of the little railway stations, and after a short haul find a site unmarred by the hand of man, yet within easy reach of the park's outfitting stores.

LEONARD WALLOPS

JOHNNIE KILBANE

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—Henry Leonard, lightweight champion, stopped Johnny Kilbane, featherweight titleholder, in the third round of what was to have been a six-round bout.

At no time during the three rounds did Kilbane class with Leonard.

Leonard won the first round by a good margin, the second by an even greater odds, and in the third beat Kilbane helplessly to the floor.

Kilbane, who weighed 127 pounds and Leonard 135, the lightweight limit, the six pounds difference aided Leonard. But he won because he completely outboxed the featherweight champion and outlast him during every minute of the fight.

The third round had gone but half a minute when Leonard started Kilbane to retreat. Kilbane led a hard fight for the head, but Leonard ducked. When he came up he shot both right and left to the jaw and Kilbane went back against the ropes almost helpless.

He clinched with Leonard and when Referee Frank O'Brien tore them loose Leonard landed a right hook to Kilbane's jaw. Kilbane staggered and fell, clutching Leonard's knees. He was up when the referee started to count and looked wearily around the ring with Leonard in close pursuit. Leonard landed a light left to Kilbane's head and Kilbane dropped his guard. Leonard measured Kilbane carefully and landed a right across to his jaw. Kilbane fell face forward. The timekeeper was about to pull the bell for the end of the round when Kilbane's manager threw the towel into the ring, ending the fight. Kilbane was helped to his corner. Leonard is credited officially with a knockout.

A large crowd saw the fight, which was for a purse of $20,000, divided evenly between the two men.

LABATT AND TECUMSEH TROPHIES FOR THISTLES; L. R. C. WINS M'NEE CUP

Three Tight Games Feature Closing Events in W. O. B. A. Tourney—Heaman, Bluet and Snelgrove Are Winning Skips.

After one of the tightest, most hair-raising games ever played on the Rowing Club greens, Bert Heaman's Thistles defeated Billy Shannon's Rowing Club yesterday afternoon for the Labatt trophy, the premier cup of the tournament. Both rinks showed all kinds of bowling ability, so much so that at the close of the sixteenth end the score stood tie at 15 points. On the next end A. W. Fraser, playing lead for the Rowing Club, drew a nice bowl, which stood 10 pins. With visions of another close to the Jack on his last shot, with two down, things did not look any too rosy for Heaman, but he took a firm grip on his last bowl and let it flicker. When the smoke blew away Bert had chased away his opponent and lay three. It was the bowl that won the game, for the Rowing Club stood no chance at all on the last end, the Scotchmen coming through with three more points.

It was a fitting game for the most coveted cup in Western Ontario.

The Thistles were the on the last end, but the Thistles bore up well, C. K. Bluet, not to be outdone by his coworkers of the north end, took a winning end on his last bowl.

The M'Nee trophy finals furnished just as much excitement as did the other trophy events. Jake Taylor, of the Thistles made an almost impossible shot on the second last end. He cut out Snelgrove's bowl, lay four and tied the score. On the last end Thistle game lay shot until Brother Snelgrove spilled the beans by gently boosting a Rowing Club bowl into it, kissing the Jack. Hynd and Snelgrove both lay three, and it was all over but the shouting.
