MARKET FLOODED WITH EGGS AND PRICES CAME DOWN UNTIL

The hens have signed an armistice. If not, why that plutocratic display of eggs over in the market house and on the market square this forenoon?

Eggs, eggs, everywhere eggs, and scarcely a chicken, dressed or in plain feathers, in sight. By the way, it is remarkable the way great minds seem to think alike. Take last Saturday, for example, the market was literally flooded with poultry. Today, everybody with one impulse appeared with baskets and crates of eggs. The person who goes in for deep thinking, metaphysics and things like that, tried to explain it psychologically.

Hens Have a Say.

"Huh." grunted a farmer, who was taking in the monologue on metaphysics while the soulful lady and her comrade shut him and his basket of eggs off from the view of possible buyers. "I guess the hens have had some say in the matter. There's been a consider-

"Somebody's been pilling up the parlor carpet to keep the load from freezing." commented the market clerk, who happened along about that time. Then the market clerk began to "I remember." There was an old man lived away down near the hospital who used to do the weaving of rag rugs, and the market clerk knew a fine way to fasten the rags together without sewing them. How did he know? Ask him.

The cabbages may have been fit for kings, but they looked a trifle shivery. So did the tender green onions, the crisp lettuce and other spring-like garnishments of the Saturday market. And so did a lot of the people who found "trading" in the open air considerably less pleasant than most other Saturday sthis winter. Inquiries are being made by returned soldiers indicating that coufusion still exists as to the amount of waf service gratuity payable to a discharged soldier indicating that coufusion still exists as to the amount of waf service gratuity payable to a discharged soldier and month. The order-in-council dealing with the matter fixed the minimum allowance at $70 for a single man and $100 for a married man. This means that a man discharged as a private and entitled to draw war service gratuity will be $100 instead of $83. Which would be his pay as a soldier. $70: or, if he is married, the monthly gratuity will be $100 instead of $83. Which would be the amount based on his army pay.

Where a man's pay for his rank is a much or greater than this minimum his war service gratuity each month will be the same as would have been his pay if he had remained in the army.

GUELPH SHORTHORN SALE TOTAL $28,125

Forty-Six Fine Cattle Placed Under Hammer.

GUELPH, Feb. 7.—One of the largest and most successful sales of Shorthorn obtained. The total amount of the sale was $28,125 on an average of $625 per head. The top price of the day was $1,500 paid by T. A. Russell of Downsview, for a 3-year-old cow, Rosa Nope, bred by W. A. Dryden of Brooklin. Mr. Russell also secured two other good cows, paying $1,400 and $750 for them. Mr. Johnston of the Shorthorn World of Chicago, paid $1,500 for Mr. Elliott's imported bull, Newton Royalist, which has a great record as a sire. The sale was eminently satisfactory to Mr. Elliott, whose stock is known all over the country.

within our bodies keep the disease germs in subjection. They are not expelled entirely, but they are kept harmless. Some indiscretion in diet and the digestion is upset; overwork and worry disturbs the nervous system, the blood gets thin and watery and the ever-present disease germs assert themselves. The blood fights the body's battles, but the blood can only keep you healthy when it is rich, red and pure. That is why it is of the greatest importance that thin-blooded people. people with pale faces, or those troubled with skin blemishes, or indigestion, or rheumatism, or any of the many ailments due to poor blood, should fortify themselves with a safe and effective tonic like Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
