ed the run making in the sixth with a one baser to right. Allen sacrificed. Trout walked. Meyer hit to Shannon and with an easy double play in sight, Shannon fumbled, filling the bases. Kelly then singled to right, and before the resulting plays were over three runs were scored and Kelly had been put out. On the hit to centre Lajoie naturally scored, and when McAvoy let Barber's throw get away Trout scored. Meyer came dashing along and Hagey, who had recovered the ball, threw badly to McAvoy, Benny tallying. Kelly had run up, but Truesdale recovered the ball and threw it to Bues for the out.

An error by Hagey, Kelly's single, a base on balls to Thompson, and Jacobson's single all contributed to the pair of runs in the sighth.

Singles by Fewster, Truesdale, Shannon and Lamar, a double by Barber and Williams' sacrifice made up the four-run combination of the Birds.

The following officers for the present season were elected: President, Geo. T. Peppall; vioe-president, John Witchall; treasurer, D. A. MacKenzie; secretary, Wm. Oulster, 73 Dorval road; executive committee, Geo. Tingle, H. S. Rupert, F. H. Sykes, J. D. McTaggart, Jack McNair, Chas. Starr.

It was decided to open a junior membership with a moderate fee to encourage the young devotees of the game.

A Babbington court has been added to the equipment of the club, and will be installed on the lawn. It is thought this will be an added attraction to the already fine clay tennis courts.

Geo. Peppall referred in an eulogistic address to the forty-five members who had enlisted for active service, some of whom have paid the supreme sacrifice.

The courts are now being prepared.

Hamilton or Boscombe of Toronto will referee.

Kingston qualified to meet London in the final by winning a sudden-death semi-final from St. Andrew's College, Toronto, three weeks ago, but Saturday's final was postponed on account of delay in arranging a play-off between St. Catharines and London, when both teams played a tie in the home-and-home semi-final games. THEY WILL MISS JIMMIE,

Jimmie Currie, who last season held down the keystone sack for Oslers, is going to Vancouver for six weeks or so, and his loss will be keenly felt by the Oslers, as Jimmie was a clever, brainy player and as good a second baseman as there was in these parts last season.

First Canadian Rugby Game Played in England

The brothers H. T. and W. A. Leslie write their mother, Mrs. Alex Leslie, of 22 Westminster avenue, of the first game of rugby, according to the present Canadian code, ever played in England.

The sons are officers of the Royal Flying Corps and qualified in record time at Oxford, and it was there they arranged the matter with the Royal Flying Corps of Reading. The result was in favor of the Oxford avistors by 25 to 7, and the play made quite an impression on the large crowd of spectators.

H. T. Leslie learned rugby at Queen's and W. A. Leslie at Harbord C. I.

RUSHING RELIEF TO OUR LARRUPING LARRY

Pitcher Engight joins the Leafs at Richmond today and Zabel is another, coming at once. Zabel is a big right-hander, and last year was with the champion Los Angeles team in the Pacific Coast League, where he pitched in 44 games, and stands sixth in the list, with 17 games won to 15 lost. He had a batting average of 383.

The Toronto management has been dickering for some time with the Louisville ciude for Outfielder Whiteman. He has now been secured and will join the club at once.

This gives Larry Lojoic two more pitchers and an outfielder. Larry has long wanted the men and they will go a long way to rounding out a first-class outfit.

Dan Costello, the outfielder, bought from Pittsburg, who failed to report last season, is up to his old tricks. He wired for transportation and then failed to show up. He has been put under suspension by the local club. Pitchers Herbert and Markle, who notified the club that they will not report this season, have also been put under the ban.

The Giants have asked waivers on Bradley Kocher, the former Leaf catcher, and want to send him down. Kocher was drafted from Toronto, and under baseball rules waivers must be secured from this league. President McCaffery has refused to waive on this good receiver.
