HUSTLERS BID PENNANT GOODBYE LEAFS ANNEX FIRST GAME EASILY

Buster Brown Weakened in the Ninth But Lush Was Sent to the Rescue-Five to Three Victory.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Sept. 20.—(Spe-ial to The Sunday World.)— Twe thousand fans greeted the Hustlers and Leafs as they took the field toda for the last games of the season. Th weather was clear and warm.

The Hustlers need both games if they are to win the pennant, and even a double victory would not help them unless the Skeeters should take three games in a row from the Newark Indians.

Outmet did not gain the lead until the turn for the home heles, all three having gone to the haif-way mark in an eyen 88. But after that he was never headed.

Enthusiastic followers carried the victor on their shoulders to the club house, where Secretary John Reid, Jr., of the United States Golf Association, made the presentation speech.

Vardon received $170 and Ray $100 for second and third prizes. The final score was: Outmet, 72; Vardon, 77; Ray, 78.

Ray, 78.

Golfing battle btween England and the United States for the open championship of America with Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, two seasoned British players, playing 20-year-old Francis Oulmet of this tewn in an 18 hole contest, began today in a typical Scotch mist. Yet the sodden turi and dripping trees failed to keep back one of the largest galleries ever following a golf match in this country. One hundred club members armed with red flags and 100 fathems of rope was necessary to keep the easer growd from treading on the heels of the three players and give them breathing space on the greens.

Vardon and Ray were 2 to 1 favorites.

red flags and 100 fathoms of rope was necessary to keep the cager crowd from treading on the heels of the three players and give them breathing space on the greens.

Vardon and Ray were 2 to 1 favorites over the Brookline boy at the drive off at 10 o'clock, yet the army of Yankee enthusiasts was hopeful of victory. Oulmet started the playeoff with a most thoro knowledge of every hole on the Country Club course. He lives just across the street from the 16th hole, and has been on the course almost since infancy and began carrying clubs when less than 10 years old.

Oulmet had the honor and drove off 220 yards down a lame of 2000 persons. Vardon followed with the same distance and Ray five yards better.

Vardon took the lead on the sixth hole by laying, his approach dead and holing out a three. Oulimet and Ray played par golf with customary sopres. The gallery houbled in size during the first six holes? Total on six holes; Vardon 25, Oulmet 26, Ray 27.

Ray recovered his lost stroke when the other two players overran their nutts on the seventh hole. Ray almost holed out in two, Total scores; Vardon 29, Oulmet 39. Ray 30.

Ray outdrove the other pair going to the eighth hole, and Oulmet played one fifty-yard mashle shot two feet from the hole. Ha took a three amid deatening cheers. Ray followed with a sensational 30-foot putt for the same figures. As Vardon missed a ten-foot putt, the three players stood all even: Vardon 33, Oulmet 33, Ray 32.

At the end of nine heles the score was: Vardon 33, Oulmet 38, Ray 38.

They turned into the home stretch even at 78. Oulmet secured the lead in the match for the first time at the tenth hole with a 3, Vardon and Ray each taking a 4. The eleventh was halved at 4. Oulmet took the twelfth with a 4, Vardon 5, Ray 5.

Francis Outmet, a youthful amateur of Brookline, won the highest golfing theory in the United States, by defeating Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, the English professionals, by five and eix strekes respectively, in the play off for the American open championship today.

The victory of the boy carried with it a gold medal and the custody of the championship cup by his home organization, the Woodland Gelf Club of Newton.

No amateur in this country and only one abroad, has ever gained such golfing farm. There were few of the 5,000 persons following the play who felt at the start that the youth could possibly vanquish such renewned vetterans as the two former British champions.

In order to win, Ouimet was obligated to piay the best golf of the week. When he had accomplished the first 16 holes in 65 strokes and made the 17th in a wonderful three, Vardon, his closest copponent, breke under the strain.

Ouimet did not gain the lead until
