

WOMAN KILLED BY AEROPLANE

In Rising From Field the Machine
Crashed Into Crowd at Georgetown—Victim Hit by Propeller

Georgetown, Nov. 16.—Tragedy followed the landing of a flight cadet of the Royal Flying Corps at this point. Mrs. William Cleaves, aged 65, wife of a well-to-do farmer, being killed as a result of being struck by the propeller of the machine when the cadet made an attempt to rise into the air again. The cadet, who declined to give his name even to the coroner, made a landing in a large field just outside the town in a search for gasoline, and while he was supplying his needs a large crowd of citizens gathered, upwards of a hundred being in the field. When the aviator attempted to resume his flight he guided the machine along the ground, but as the field was not large enough to enable him to get up sufficient speed to take to the air, he turned it about and started back down the field. In doing this the aeroplane ran directly into the crowd, several people, mostly children, being knocked down, and Mrs. Cleaves being struck by the propeller. Her body was almost cut in two. The machine was so badly damaged that the cadet could not continue his flight.

A coroner's inquest was held tonight at which a jury was impaneled, an adjournment being arranged for a week. As the cadet would not give his name, the summons to attend was made out in the name of his machine. Mrs. Cleaves was the second wife of William Cleaves, who owns the farm adjoining the field where the tragedy occurred. A Mrs. John R. Williams, of Indian Road, Toronto, is a daughter of Mrs. Cleaves.

MATRON WRITES OF GR. T. H. PENNY

Is in 2nd Australian General Hospital
Seriously Wounded

Mrs. T. H. Penny of 75 St. Patrick street received the following letter from the matron of the hospital in which her husband is:

Dear Mrs. Penny—Your husband, Gunter T. H. Penny, was admitted to our hospital on October 21 inst. with bad wounds in the buttock and leg. We are feeling anxious about him as the condition of the leg is not all it should be. Everything that we can possibly do for your husband will be done. Will you please feel that he is amongst friends who will help him in every way possible. I know how anxious you will feel, being so far away. My heart aches for friends in the home lands, who are going through so much at this time. With sympathy in your anxiety, believe me,

Yours faithfully,
C. CRAIG, Matron.
