

DR. McALLISTER IS CHOSEN BY ROYAL LIBERALS

His Was Only Name Placed
Before Nomination Meeting at Sussex

(By Staff Reporter.)
SUSSEX, July 29.—In an open convention here this afternoon in the Opera House Dr. D. H. McAllister, of Sussex, was chosen as Liberal standard bearer for the riding of Royal in the Dominion election on Sept. 14. While Dr. McAllister's name was the only one presented to the convention by the nominating committee, the name of Hon. Dr. J. E. Hetherington, of Codrington, was placed in nomination from the floor but he declined. No other names were submitted.

The convention was marked by an attack by the speakers on the Conservative government at Ottawa as well as the Provincial administration under the leadership of Hon. J. B. M. Baxter.

NOMINEE SPEAKS
Dr. McAllister in accepting the nomination discussed a wide range of subjects. He said that reciprocity had been accepted by the country in 1911 there would be no question today of "Maritime Rights." He declared that there was more prosperity in Canada under Liberal regime than there ever was at any time under Conservative rule.

HON. DR. HETHERINGTON
Hon. Dr. Hetherington, former secretary-treasurer under the late Veniot government, made a strong appeal for a return to power of Liberalism and in discussing the policy of the Liberal party he declared that Grand Falls was lost to the people of New Brunswick and had been turned over to "an American syndicate" by a Tory party.

COUN. J. E. McALEY
Councillor John E. McAuley delivered a fiery address in the course of which he stated that he would draw a line cutting off the Maritimes from Quebec and Ontario, would link the eastern provinces up with the British West Indies and would let down the barrier between these parts and the United States. This, he declared, would be the only policy if the Maritimes wished to create industrial prosperity.

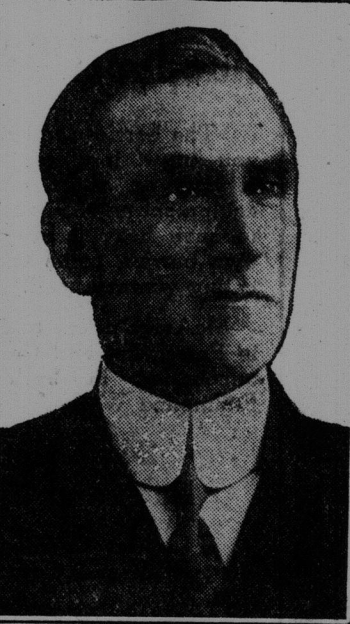

Other speakers heard were Colonel Wetmore, ex-M. L. A., Dr. Russell Snodgrass, of Codrington, and Carey Gagnon, of Gagetown.

THE PROCEEDINGS
Hon. Dr. J. E. Hetherington, of Codrington, Queens County, took the chair. Mr. McFadden, of Sussex, acted as secretary. Colonel Guy Kinneer, representing the nominating committee, placed the name of Dr. D. H. McAllister before the convention. Before he chairman had an opportunity to call for a mover and seconder Dr. Hetherington was nominated from the floor. He stated, however, that it would be impossible for him to allow his name to go before the convention. The chairman then called for an unanimous endorsement of Dr. McAllister. The delegates, with the exception of about 25, rose to their feet and the chairman declared Dr. McAllister the choice of the meeting.

PERMIT NO ACCLAMATION.
Dr. McAllister, on rising, was greeted with applause. He stated at the outset that he was sorry to have to accept the nomination. There were many reasons, but one particularly, was that he had only once been successful at the polls since 1908. This, he said, was indeed discouraging both for himself and the constituency.

"But," he declared, "I accept it because George B. Jones is not going to get in by acclamation. That is why I am in the fight to the finish. Probably with some fresh blood in the field there would be a fairer chance to win. But for the sake of Royal, New Brunswick and the Maritimes, I know that a high tariff is disastrous and that is the policy of the Conservatives. The great need in the eastern provinces today," he said, "was better trade relations and better markets. This," he said, "would never come under Conservative rule."

"We gave away in 1911 just what we in the Maritimes are fighting for today, for we then gave away our 'Maritime Rights,'" he declared.

MARITIME RIGHTS.
Dr. McAllister said he had no hesitation in saying that reciprocity was "Maritime Rights." He declared the country at large had always had greater prosperity under a Liberal government than under any other administration. He claimed that Conservatism was backed by the manufacturers of Ontario and "Jones is a member of that party," he added amid applause.

LIBERAL CLAIMS.
He traced some of the accomplishments of the former Liberal administration at Ottawa and cited as instances the reduction of the national debt, the reduction of duty on cars, the removal of charges on receipts and the return to the two-cent postage.

Dr. McAllister touched on the customs probe and declared the matter would be cleared up before election day. He claimed that a government could not be held responsible for the alleged sins of an individual. In the matter of reciprocity, he said, one only had to go back a few years and there was plenty on the other side of the fence that could be dug up.

Dr. McAllister concluded by stating that Toryism in Canada was backed by the moneyed interests. He cited the Manufacturers' Association, as a proof, and the recent "lumber assassination" in New Brunswick.

In urging support to the Liberal cause he said that Grand Falls was lost to the people of New Brunswick for all time.

"You people have no more to say about the development of Grand Falls today than the man in Russia," the International Paper Company will never bring hydro into the interior of New Brunswick. Direct taxation has been thrust upon you. The lumber industry is gone beyond redemption for 30 years with a 20-year renewal then I tell you people here today again that Grand Falls has fallen into the hands of an American syndicate."

COUNCILLOR McALEY.
Councillor McAuley in opening called for whole-hearted support for Dr. McAllister. He asked the Liberals of Royal to forget the man and vote for the party. He said there was no better time to organize than at present.

Voice from the audience—"If we organize we can win."
Mr. McAuley—"We'll have it."

Mr. McAuley referred to the reduction in the automobile tax brought about by the King government and the standing-pat of the administration in the face of moneyed manufacturers.

CITES SAINT JOHN
He declared that the words of Sir Joseph Howe on the matter of Confederation were gradually becoming true: "There will be grass growing on the streets of Saint John in 20 years if you vote for it." Mr. McAuley cited Prince Edward street in Saint John as an example of this. "What do you see

HON. G. B. JONES NOMINATED BY CONSERVATIVES

Minister of Labor Unanimous Choice of Meeting at Hampton

HAMPTON, July 29.—Hon. George B. Jones, of Apohaqui, Minister of Labor, was the unanimous choice of a convention of electors of Kings and Queens counties, forming the constituency of Royal, at a meeting held in the Court House at Hampton this afternoon, as Conservative candidate in the coming Federal elections. E. J. Fleetwood, of Rothermel, moved the nomination, Alfred West, of Cole's Island, seconded.

J. A. Vanwart, of Hampstead, chairman of the Queens county Liberal-Conservative Association, presided at the meeting. Ralph St. J. Frezza was secretary. Others on the platform were: A. J. Brooks, M. L. A., of Sussex; W. Benton Evans, M. L. A., of Rothermel, Queens county; J. Arthur Moore, M. L. A., of Gagetown, and J. William Smith, M. L. A., of Hampton.

CONFIDENCE IN MEIGHEN.
W. D. Turner, of Sussex, on behalf of the meeting, moved a resolution expressing the unbounded confidence of the meeting in the leadership and policies of the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen and approval of the appointment of Hon. Mr. Jones as Minister of Labor. "Only when a Conservative government is in power," concluded Mr. Turner's resolution, "will the Maritime Provinces benefit." The resolution was seconded by C. H. Cochran and passed unanimously.

Mr. Vanwart, in introducing the candidate, said that the constituency of Royal was proud of their choice. "Hon. Mr. Jones," said the chairman, "has made his name well and favorably known throughout the Dominion of Canada."

NOMINEE SPEAKS.
Hon. Mr. Jones at the outset of his address, thanked the meeting for the confidence they had placed in him. "I do not care a snap of my finger for any honors that result from my office," said Mr. Jones, "but if the position which has been conferred upon me by Premier Meighen can benefit in any there today where a few years ago you saw factories?" he asked. "The empty spaces are now being used for bill-boards to advertise Ontario goods," he declared.

He asked why there should be a high tariff between Canada and the United States. He claimed that the surplus of pigs and potatoes grown by Maritimers wallowed in the States and Ontario and Quebec but were sent across the border into the very country where they were needed. The Maritimers were today seeking a livelihood. Colonel Wetmore said that there was a good cause when the Liberal party went before the people for the party.

Dr. Snodgrass and Mr. Gagnon were heard in short addresses, the former discussing the constitutional issue and the latter dealing with specific instances where American ports were used in preference to Canadian.

way the people of Royal, it is yours for the asking."
Mr. Jones declared he appreciated the loyalty of the electors of Kings county during the last 14 years, and of the people of Royal for the last five years. "I will defend to the death anyone," Mr. Jones, "to point out to me any occasion when I received one red cent that did not belong to me."

HOPES COMMISSION A SUCCESS.
The speaker reviewed the recent political history briefly. Speaking of the last general election, Mr. Jones said that the former premier, Mackenzie King, was defeated in his own native county, North York, and sought election in the west. "King promised the west rural credits, proportionate representation and many other things," said Mr. Jones, "but the only thing the Maritimes were favored with was the Royal Commission. I sincerely hope that this commission accomplishes its aims."

CUSTOMS SCANDAL.
In speaking of the Duncan report, the minister said that one-half of the findings were never brought before the Commission appointed to inquire into the customs situation. "Parts of the disclosure were too dirty, too filthy to be brought to the attention of decent people," the speaker charged. "The Commission, which was composed of four Liberals, four Conservatives and one Progressive, Mr. Kennedy, might just as well be said to have had five Liberals in its personnel. Part of the Duncan report will be published and circulated throughout the Dominion, but if the entire findings were brought before the public eye, you would lose confidence in all representatives at Ottawa."

"Canada has lost millions of dollars through laxity in the customs department," continued Mr. Jones, "and the work of the commission is not yet finished. It will be at least a month or one year before that is accomplished."

ELECTION MACHINERY.
"In my last campaign speech to this constituency," the speaker continued, "I prophesied that from 10 to 15 Conservatives would be elected in Quebec in the last election. I was wrong. Only four successfully contested their seats. In this election we stand on a more equal chance. But, in the last election, the King government had the election machinery and that goes a long way toward winning a campaign. That machinery would be worth from 150 to 200 votes in this constituency, from 100 to 1,000 in Saint John and several thousands in cities the size of Montreal. We expect to use that machinery in this election but to no further extent than seeing that all who are eligible to vote have an opportunity to do so. Those who are ineligible will not cast a ballot."

URGES ORGANIZATION.
Hon. Mr. Jones concluded his address with the remark that, if the Meighen government was elected he would do all in his power for the people who have given them their loyal support during the last few years. He urged the electors to organize their committees. "I will not fear the result of Sept. 14, either in this constituency, this province or throughout Canada, if organization is behind us."

W. B. EVANS, M. L. A.
W. B. Evans, M. L. A. for Queens, was the next speaker of the day. He expressed his pleasure at being present and said he voiced the opinion of the meeting when he declared they would go for before they found an outstanding man as George B. Jones to represent them in the forthcoming campaign.

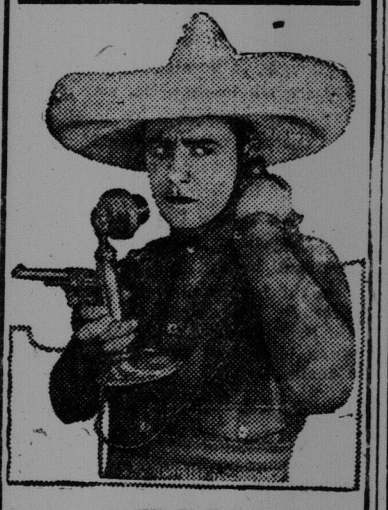

Speaking of the King administration, Mr. Evans declared that "the rottenness of the policies of the former Liberal government will not be tolerated."

Mr. Evans said that Mackenzie King was bringing the constitutional question before the electors in an attempt to blind them to the real issue of the campaign, which was, the speaker said, the customs probe.

A. J. BROOKS, M. L. A.
A. J. Brooks, M. L. A., also declared that the customs probe was one of the most, if not the most, important issues of the campaign. Remarking on the constitutional question, Mr. Brooks declared that King was bringing this matter up in Quebec and Western Canada in the hope that it will carry weight. "The late Premier has substituted the constitutional issue for the customs issue which has been worn to shreds by campaigners in Quebec," Mr. Brooks charged.

SURREY DEFEATED BY AUSTRALIANS

Visitors Overwhelm English Cricketers by 432 Runs to 86
LONDON, July 29.—The collapse of Surrey at the oval in their encounter against the touring Australian cricketers was one of the sensations of the cricket season, the home county being completely overwhelmed in their first innings in response to the magnificent stand of the Australians.

With a score standing at 432 for nine wickets, the Australians declared their innings closed and Surrey went to bat. One after another their best batsmen succumbed to the tricks of Grimmett and the splendid catches of the fieldsmen. The great Hobbs himself was dismissed at 5; Sandham, his customary first-wicket partner, fell at 15, and there were a regular succession to the wicket and back with none of the players apparently able to stop the deluge.

The game was witnessed for a time by the Prince of Wales, who took tea with the players.

When the game was called Surrey had secured only 86 runs with six wickets down, and the prospect of a full innings defeat staring them in the face. Surrey will resume the game tomorrow and will be required to follow on. Whether the Australian bowlers will be able to beat time or not remains to be seen, but as they stand tonight they are in an excellent strategic position.

TWO HORSES SEIZED AT BLUE BONNETS
MONTREAL, July 29.—The race horses, The Missus and Chula Vista, racing here at Blue Bonnets race track under the colors of Mrs. J. L. Brannon, have been seized under an order issued to Fred Lassiter, of Tampa, Fla.

The four horses brought here under the Brannon colors, Nine Sixty, Halo and the two above mentioned, together with the box car used to transport the horses, are now in the hands of local authorities pending the result of an action taken by Lassiter, who claims the ownership of the horses Nine Sixty and Halo. Mr. and Mrs. Brannon are out on bail on a theft charge.
