and notified Police Chief Nichols. The two then hurried to the river, where the body of the dead woman was seen floating in the water after a half hour's search. Mrs. Ingram wore only a coat over her right attice. TAKES OWN LIFE search. Mrs. Ingram wore only a coat over her night attire.

The husband of the late Mrs. Ingram died during the influenza epidemic in March, 1919, and since that time the widow has been despondent.

She leaves two sons and two daughters: Mary Rhoda, aged sixteen; Alexander, aged thirteen; William James, aged eight, and Agnes Cecile, aged six. The funeral will be held Monday afternoon.

OFFICERS' SMOKER.

widow with four children, was found smoker was held last evening by the dead in the Mississippi River behind Findlay's foundry. She is believed to have committed suicide while despondent. Dr. A. A. Metcalfe, coroner, of Almonte, has not announced whether an inquest will be necessary.

Several days ago she is believed to have attempted to take her life with a razor, but the instrument was taken from her by Charles Dowdall, who, with his wife, boarded with Mrs. Ingram. Since then Mrs. Ingram has been under care of a nurse.

At about 3.30 in the morning the nurse heard a door slam, and, finding that her patient was not in her room, called Mr. Dowdall. He immediately ran into the street; but, after a short search, returned to the house, dressed,

EXHIBITION OF CHILDREN'S WORK

CHILDREN'S WORK
AT TEA AND SALE

A tea and sale in the Protestant Orphanage in Britain street yesterday afternoon was a pleasant and successful affair. The event had been arranged by the lady directors as a means of showing the home and at the same time realizing a sum of money to provide a treat for the children. Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond acted as convener with Mrs. F. J. Harding, and those assisting were Mrs. David McLellan, Mrs. W. C. R. Allan, Mrs. F. J. Harding, and those assisting were Mrs. David McLellan, Mrs. W. C. R. Allan, Mrs. J. E. Secord, Mrs. Gunn, Miss Mabel Smith.

The big dining room was prettily arranged. Pine needles and asparagus ferns decorated the tea table, where Mrs. David McLellan had drawn the lucky winner from among the names

What Kind of a Day Do You Wish Yourself?

Suppose you could make a wish at the breakfast table and finally have the wish come true. Would you say,

"I want this to be a good day," or-"I'm willing for this day to drag along?"

If you keep on wishing your days with the food you eat, finally the wish is likely to come true.

Grape-Nuts helps your wish for a good day. Nothing miraculous; just the natural result from right food with the right taste.

There is a charm of flavor and crispness in Grape-Nuts that is like the smile of a good friend at the breakfast table-

And Grape-Nuts, with cream or milk, is fully nourishing—feeding the tissues and glands, the bone and blood, with just those elements which nature requires -building strength without any "heaviness."

Grape-Nuts is the perfected goodness of wheat and malted barley, scientifically developed—ready to eat from the package.

A Grape-Nuts breakfast or lunch is a practical wish for good luck.
