The organization of an athletic association was decided upon at the annual banquet of the McAvity Bowling League which was held last evening at Bonnet's restaurant.

After due attention had been paid to well loaded board, the chairman and toast-master of the evening, P. D. McAvity, commenced the evening's programme with a toast to the King. The presentation of prizes to the winners of last year's league, the Vulcan Foundry team, was made by G. C. McAvity and individual cups were also presented to those five making the highest average last year, H. L. Treat, David Foohy, Dexter Foshat, T. A. Ramsay and H. G. Turner.

A song by John Stenhouse followed. H. L. Treat then proposed "Shall we have an Athletic Association?" After a step dance by Charles Noddin a general discussion took place regarding the formation of an athletic association.

The toast, "The Firm," was proposed by A. C. W. Parke and was responded to by G. C. McAvity, followed by choruses by the company with Bert. Coupe at the piano.

Dempsey in Montreal.
Montreal, Nov. 3.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavy weight champion pugilist, gave a four round sparring exhibition here last night at the Mount Royal Arena. Dempsey did not create the favorable impression that George Carpentier did in his appearance here some time ago. He had not the flashy style of the European champion. He demonstrated, however, that he is a rugged fighter and can land a hard punch.

Dempsey left for Quebec following the exhibition. Other bouts staged were by Jack Thomas, local welterweight, who knocked out Willie Herman in the sixth round of a ten round bout.

Will Murphy of New York earned a decision on points against Marty McTigue. He says he is in training and will be ready for all comers in another week.

Mayor Parker of Halifax refuses to give a permit for the holding of a motor race between Man o' War and Sir Barton for a purse of $75,000 and a gold cup valued at $5,000 was shown on the screen. It was filmed by a swivel motion picture camera and showed the horses from the time they went under the barrier until they crossed in front of the judges' stand. While it was undeniably a great race there was no doubt left in the minds of all that Man o' War was the better horse. In addition to showing the race, the two reels of film gave many interesting views of the enormous crowd present, the presentation of the cup to the owner of the great three-year-old and the champion shows in slow motion to demonstrate the muscle action, which was astounding. The picture was a real treat.

Roddie McDonald is out with a challenge to fight Jack Bloomfield or Mike McTigue. He says he is in training and will be ready for all comers in another week.

They pleaded guilty and explained that there were so many street lights at that spot they did not think it necessary to have their lights turned on. The magistrates fined each $50, but allowed it to stand.

SIDELIGHTS ON SPORT

Lovers of horse racing were given a real treat in the Imperial on Monday and Tuesday evenings when the great race between Man o' War and Sir Barton for a purse of $75,000 and a gold cup valued at $5,000 was shown on the screen. It was filmed by a swivel motion picture camera and showed the horses from the time they went under the barrier until they crossed in front of the judges' stand. DIFFERENCES BETWEEN BOYS SETTLED WITH FISTS—PRINCIPAL AS SECOND FOR BOTH SIDES.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—School room disputes among the boys at the Webster school here, where children twenty-two nationalities attend classes, are not settled by the arbitrary fiat of the teacher. Instead, the principal of the school, Miss Alice M. Hoag, believes in letting the boys do their own fighting with their fists and in the latest quarrel acted as second to both combatants and referees.

It was a fight to the finish in a school basement between Salvatore Sorbino and Abe Selon, both aged 12. Time was called several times to enable the combatants to rest and rinse their mouths, and after fifteen minutes Sorbino had an unquestionable decision.

"Letting the boys fight out their troubles is the best way in a school such as the Webster," said Miss Hoag. "Of course the fights must be fair."

"I never permit any serious injuries. A black eye or two, such as Abe got, is usually the limit. Abe was inclined to be a bully and got just what he needed. They will be friends now and we will have no more trouble from them."

J. C. Mortensen, superintendent of schools declared he was in favor of Miss Hoag's method, saying it was the most successful ever tried in that school.

SMITH GOT WISE.

A sore corn, he said, was bad enough, but to have it stepped on was the limit. He invested in a bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn Extract, and now wears a happy smile. Corn is gone—though said. Try Putnam's Extract, 25c. at all dealers.

TAKES A HOLIDAY.

(Vancouver Sun.) Charles Quick, who was 100 years old yesterday, celebrated his birthday by ceasing his work as a saddler in order to greet the hundreds of callers who flocked to the old man's home in the 1500 block, Powell street east, to wish him "Many Happy Returns of the Day."

This is the first time Mr. Quick has left his work for many months and the day was a real holiday for the centenarian. Dressed in his best clothes, he had a cherry word for all comers and his hearty laugh could be heard almost continually through the day as he received callers which took place years ago.

As souvenirs of his 100th birthday he made scrolls and patterns on paper with the sewing machine in his little shop and distributed the beautifully decorated pieces of paper among his friends. Mr. Quick learned the art of making paper patterns in 1844 when he was demonstrating one of the first sewing machines put on the market.

A special meeting of the ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. was held yesterday afternoon to hold plans for a banquet to be held this week in honor of H. J. Fraser of India. Mrs. Eustace Barnes presided.

PLAN LIVING MEMORIAL.

Persuaded that a living monument to the dead would serve human purposes better than a dead memorial to the fallen, the Clan MacLachlan Society of Kintail, Ross-shire, Scotland, proposes to perpetuate the memory of those of Kintail and district who gave their lives in the Great War by establishing in Kintail a district nurse to alleviate the sufferings of those who may require her services.

complete a complete list of Jesuit missionaries to Canada and to trace their movements while in this country, that the society's archivists have given so much time and effort to the location of the annals of the province of France, the annals of the French regime at least six copies of each annual were sent out to the libraries of the Jesuit fathers in Montreal and Quebec and in all antiquarians and bibliophiles what all antiquarians and bibliophiles what could have happened to these copies. During an exhausting search lasting upwards of thirty years, the late Father Jones was able to locate only two copies. Even the annals of the province of Canada are extremely rare, only two complete collections of the annals from 1846 to 1920 being in existence, this despite the fact that the catalogues are now furnished to a group member of the order. Father Melancon also produced as an exhibit one of the volumes of Jacques Viger's "Sabretache" or manuscript collection of historical documents. Viger was the first mayor of Montreal, and is often referred to as the "Father of Canadian Archaeology." He it was who first realized the value of original documents as sources of history in contradistinction to the fancies of tradition. He spent all his spare time ferreting out rare documents, which he carefully copied in his own hand, naming the collection of his copies his "sabretache" or knapsack. Most of the original folios are now in the Provincial Archives at Quebec. The volume exhibited contains extracts from rare documents referring to Fathers Marquette, de Crespien, Joliet, Allouez, Dablon and Neslon on LaTouche, Hennepin and Charlevoix.
