

St. Michael's College

TORONTO, ONT.

ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE was established in 1852 by the Basilian Fathers from Annonay, France, at the request, and under the patronage, of the Most Rev. Dr. De Charbonnel, then Bishop of Toronto. For four years the College occupied the wing of St. Michael's Palace on Church street. In 1856 a more suitable edifice was erected on the present site, which was partly the gift of the late Hon. John Elmsley. Since that time the building has been more than doubled in size; and the chapel attached to the College also enlarged and improved. The location is one of the most beautiful and healthy in the City of Toronto.

The object of the Institution is to impart a thorough Catholic training, moral and intellectual, so as to fit young men for any position in life which they may wish to occupy. To secure this end the College is provided with a complete and efficient staff. Many are gentlemen of experience whose study and learning are for years devoted to education. All receive special training in the Scholasticate for the important work of teaching. Some are graduates of Toronto University. By reference to the List of the Faculty it will be seen that one of these is in charge of the class preparing for Matriculation at Toronto University and other Provincial Examinations.

The studies advancing steadily with the educational progress of the country, it was deemed to be to the advan-
