SCHOONER SEIZED FOR BREAKING CUSTOMS LAWS

DIGBY, N. S., Oct. 24.—Acting under instructions of Customs Inspector Jones for entering the port of Weymouth from a United States port without reporting at the customs house, and sailing again for Bellevue's Cove, where the captain reported. The vessel was released on the captain depositing the necessary amount to cover the fine.

Customs Inspector Jones has also caused the arrest of the master and supercargo of the schooner Mary, which was seized at Glace Bay for landing liquor from a United States port without reporting at the customs house, and sailing again for Bellevue's Cove, where the captain reported. The vessel was released on the captain depositing the necessary amount to cover the fine.

The trial of those connected with landing of liquor from the American yacht Mischief at Mira, C. B., will also take place at the same time.

Inspector Jones says he is going to follow up the case of smuggling which has developed within the past year. A few years ago smuggling was quite common on that coast, but after Mr. Jones succeeded in obtaining 32 convictions for violations of the customs law in one year smuggling at times was almost entirely stopped. Strict measures will again be enforced until the business is checked.

BUSINESS DIFFICULTIES

The creditors of Wm. C. Cunningham, of Doaktown, Northumberland county, held a meeting yesterday in H. H. Pickett's office at which John O'Brien, the high sheriff of Northumberland county, presided. There were also present H. L. Everett, J. M. Scott, E. L. Riving, W. B. Foster and J. H. Davidson.
