

PROVINCIAL NEWS

HOPWELL HILL, Jan. 12.—A telegram was received today announcing the death in a hospital at New Haven, Conn., of Charles Beckwith, son of John Beckwith of Harvey, Young Beckwith, who was about 30 years of age, was steward of the three masted schooner Harry W. Lewis, and was put ashore at New Haven after becoming sick. The deceased leaves a wife and young family, and a father, mother and several brothers and sisters. The remains will be brought home for burial.

The Baptist people held a very successful social this evening at the residence of Branch Woodworth at Chemical Road. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carnwath of Riverside have been quite ill for some days, as the result of vaccination. Miss Lily Mahor, who has been living in the states for some months, has returned to her home at Mountville.

The January session of the circuit court will open at the Cape on Tuesday, January 22nd. At the evening service at St. John's Church of England, last night, Mr. Elvin, a young Londoner, now residing here, sang the anthem Nazareth in a manner that completely delighted those present. Mr. Elvin has a fine baritone voice, and sings with much expression. A car loaded with hay, attached to the S. & H. train on Saturday, left the rails near the Hill station and was badly broken.

HOPWELL HILL, Jan. 12.—The northeast blizzard which prevailed on the night last week has made pretty good travelling throughout the country. Lumbermen report three feet and a half of snow in New Ireland.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Edgett of Riverside took place on Friday afternoon, at the residence of the new cemetery at this place. The services, which were largely attended, were conducted by Elder Langdon of the Seventh Day Adventists. Mrs. Edgett, who died at the home of her son-in-law, Capt. Edmund Kinnie, was the widow of the late Capt. Solomon Edgett, and a daughter of the late James Kinnie of Germantown, Albert Co. She was a most estimable lady, and her sudden death has caused widespread regret. The deceased leaves one son, Capt. Miles Edgett, and four daughters—Mrs. Edmund Kinnie and Miss Annie Edgett of Riverside, Mrs. Pearson, and Mrs. Webber, widow of the late Elder Webber. Several brothers also survive.

Mrs. James McRae of Riverside returned on Friday from a visit to Eastport, Me. She was accompanied here by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Toft, who will spend a few weeks in this county.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Nellie Dow of Harvey took place on Friday, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. J. K. King, pastor of the Methodist church. Mrs. Dow was the widow of the late Allen Dow, and leaves one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Robinson of Harvey.

Miss Della I. Peck, organist of St. John's Church of England, was presented during the Christmas season, by the rector and church choir, with a copy of the American Hymnal, handsomely bound in red morocco, the gift being a mark of appreciation of the efficient services rendered by Miss Peck during the past three years.

Taylor, "charged with stealing," Calais Bourque, "charged with unlawfully setting fire to two stacks of hay," This being the first time Judge Gregory presided, addresses were made him by the barristers and grand jury.

C. C. Knapp, the oldest barrister in the county, presented the barristers' address, congratulating Judge Gregory on his high and honorable position, and being freed from the cares of a practicing lawyer and politician, and trusted that the dominion executive would hereafter say, "come up higher." His honor's answer complimented Westmorland county as law abiding and fortunate in its bar representatives. He made a humorous allusion to politics, trusting he would have better success judicially.

The address from the grand jury was presented by Foreman Edgar Wilson.

Wm. Boutillier and Alfred Gillen were arraigned for attempted escape from the penitentiary, and Lawson Goodwin for escaping. All pleaded not guilty.

No bill was found against Wm. Taylor.

FREDERICTON, Jan. 14.—Burns v. Atherton, the malpractice trial, is drawing to a close. Evidence taking was concluded this morning and Attorney General Fuglesby then addressed the jury in behalf of the defendant. Dr. Stockton will follow for plaintiff, and a verdict may be reached tonight. At the close of evidence taking the attorney general moved for non-suit, arguing that there was no evidence of negligence on the part of the jury. Dr. Stockton argued contra. His honor decided to let the case go to the jury, but reserved leave to plaintiff to move court en banc for non-suit.

The circuit court took recess at 11 this morning, for an hour, on the notable York county court, to formally open its regular January term. The following civil docket was made up: Remoanae-Jury causes: David J. Stockford v. Hannah A. Burden, R. W. McNeilan, Frost & Wood, Co., Ltd., J. Norman Hallett, Phinney & Crockett.

New cases-Jury causes: Susan C. Kelley, assignee of Alex. A. Sterling, sheriff of York, v. W. Arthur Thompson, Robert W. McNeilan and J. Arthur Thompson, Jr., Phinney & Crockett.

County court thereupon adjourned till Tuesday morning next.

The Gleason says editorially tonight it is understood that the appointment to the lieutenant governorship has been made and will be announced at the end of the week on Mr. Blair's return from the south. Rumor, which has persistently fixed on Senator Snowball as the next occupant of the gubernatorial chair, was turned out to have been correct and will receive official confirmation.

It is rumored that the case of the People's Bank of Halifax v. the Bank of Montreal, entered for trial at the York circuit court, now in session, will go over to the June term.

FREDERICTON, Jan. 15.—In the malpractice case, this morning, Judge Gregory presided, and while the jury highly complimented the counsel of both sides and said that the case for both plaintiff and defendant had been conducted with marked ability. His honor spoke for an hour, and a half, reviewing the evidence, and while his honor's address seemed rather to favor the defendant, it was eminently fair and judicial. In giving the case to the jury his honor submitted to them sixteen questions for their consideration; and at the request of Mr. Hazen the judge subsequently added three other queries.

SUSSEX, Jan. 15.—The Free Baptist paragonage was beautifully illuminated Monday evening and was crowded with people who had come to spend a social evening with each other and Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Nobles. A suitable programme was rendered, consisting of recitations, music and speeches. Refreshments were served during the evening, and a silver collection was taken amounting to $12. The proceeds are to help pay for the handsome electrolers which have just been placed in the church and which add much to its appearance.

Rev. W. S. Martin (evangelist) of more than ordinary reputation as a very talented and devoted worker for his Master, will commence a series of evangelistic services in the Free Baptist church Sunday next.

Sussex parish held a Sunday school convention in the Free Baptist church on Tuesday, January 14th. This is one of a series arranged by the county executive for most of the parishes during the month. The afternoon session was opened by H. A. White leading devotions, after which he called the field secretary to open a conference on some of the needs of Sunday school work in the parish. This was shared by James Murray, county president; Rev. A. M. Hubley and others. In the absence of the president, Mr. Hubley, provincial president, and James Murray occupied the chair and led the opening service. The nominating committee reported, and the following officers were elected: H. A. White, president; Nelson Eveleigh, vice-president; Mrs. Prier, secretary; H. Folkins and Mrs. Burnett, additional members of the executive. In the absence of the president, Mr. Eveleigh was called to the chair and heartily welcomed Rev. A. M. Hubley, provincial president, and James Murray, county president, fellow workers. Mr. Lucas gave a Bible reading on the Bible on the Teachers' Work, persons in the audience reading the passages from their own Bibles. These passages were fundamental principles for teachers. A conference on Sustaining Interest in the Sunday School was opened by Mr. Murray, followed by Rev. B. Nobles and others. Rev. Mr. Hubly spoke on the importance of temperance in the Sunday school. The hour had become late and Mr. Lucas spoke only a few minutes on parish and county organized work. The offering was taken, and the convention decided to meet again three months hence at the residence of Mr. Hubly, 20th, secretary and Mr. Hubly; Studholm, at Carsonville, 21st, secretary and county secretary, Rev. C. W. Hamilton.

The fire wardens have under consideration the matter of building a new house near the school house.

Mr. Mills has been unable so far to repair the leaking pipe.

Next Tuesday evening, January 22nd, a grand concert will be given in the Free Baptist church. Prof. H. J. Gordon Perry of Moncton will have an important part, giving five or six organ solos. Prof. L. U. Titus of St. John, the sweet tenor soloist, will appear for three songs. Also Mr. Brown of St. John and Miss Laura Murray and Dr. W. H. White of this place will sing. Miss Margaret Lynde, graduate of the Summer School of Oratory, will read two selections. With this array of talent, the people of Sussex can not but be delightedly entertained, and the house should be crowded.

The first carnival of the season will take place in the Alhambra rink on Thursday, 23rd. Special prizes are being offered for the most original and handsomely costumed children, and comic gents' costumes. Admission 25c. for adults; 10c. for children.

MONCTON, Jan. 13.—The Westmorland County Council, which met at Dorchester last week, had a session of unusual length, continuing from Tuesday night to last evening. One part of the time was taken up in committee on the smallpox bills, most of which were cut down, some nearly one-half.

The report of the county board of health estimated the cost of the epidemic at about $17,000, of which $4,000 has already been contributed by the provincial government. There were 63 cases of smallpox reported in the county, but only two deaths. Besides these, there were reported 23 cases of diphtheria, with two deaths.

ROXBURGH, N. B., Jan. 14.—The county council met this afternoon, G. A. Jardine of Carleton was elected warden. Geo. V. McInnes resigned. Miss Wilson, of county secretary, and Fred J. Robidoux was appointed as his successor.

Wm. Humphrey and John Harris of Moncton are the guests of R. O'Leary, M. P., ST. GEORGE, N. B.

The schools of the town and neighboring localities have all reopened again for the Christmas vacation. Miss Wilson, one of the senior teachers, has not returned, much to the regret of her many friends. Miss De Wolfe of St. Stephen has taken her place on the teaching staff.

Miss Polly left L'Eglise school and taught at school at Macassar, Miss Hunt of St. Andrews taking the L'Eglise school.

The granite sheds have been closed down for a short vacation. They will soon be opened again and run at full blast.

Adam Kringhan of St. George met with a very severe accident the other morning. Falling off his doorstep, he broke his collar bone and got a very severe shaking up.

Mr. Stewart, the keeper of the almshouse, while showing the boys some smart tricks, fell off a scaffold and broke his collar bone in two places.

The lumbermen are all busy in the woods getting out their supplies for the summer's saving. It has been a favorable season for them so far, and they hope to have a large supply of lumber for next season.

30 cases of typhoid fever, with one death, and 25 cases of scarlet fever, no deaths. Measles were reported epidemic in every part of the county at some time during the year, with one death.

Some of the smallpox bills were passed last July. Those presented at the January session amounted to $1,215.25, and were passed at $437.55. Doctors' bills were presented at $3,423.47 and passed at $2,456.40; bills for supplies presented at $601.35 and passed at $622.59; guards, etc., presented at $2,994.52 and passed at $1,848.57.

The report of the county Scott Act inspector shows a deficit for last year, the total collections of fines, etc., being $1,519.85, while the expense of inspector, etc., amounted to $1,539.85. Only about half the fines imposed were collected. Seventy-eight cases were tried and a total of $2,300 imposed in fines.

The total amount ordered to be assessed upon the county the present year is $25,910.25, of which $12,000, or nearly one-half, is for schools. Two thousand dollars was granted for the new Moncton hospital building fund, but in view of the large amount required for smallpox bills it was ordered that the assessment for this amount should not be made till next year.

The financial position of the county continues to be satisfactory, a supplementary statement to Jan. 10th showing a surplus of $2,246.28. The bonded indebtedness was further reduced during the year from $4,100 to $3,400, and will be completely wiped out by the application of the sinking fund within a few years, unless something unforeseen occurs.

SACKVILLE, N. B., Jan. 14.—The Mt. Allison institutions have reopened after the Christmas vacation. Sixteen new students have arrived at the Ladies' College and several at the college and academy. Miss Annie Richardson, the new teacher of elocution and physical culture has arrived and has already created a very favorable impression on both students and fellow instructors.

The young ladies hockey teams of the college and town, which were organized before Christmas, are now practicing for a match game to be played in a short time.

GEN. BOOTH'S TROUBLES. LONDON, Jan. 15.—There is growing in Salutation Army circles here over the withdrawal of Mr. and Mrs. Booth from the Divines' Council. According to the Daily Mail, Mr. and Mrs. Booth Chibborn had many communications with John Alexander Dowie while the latter was in England. They demanded the right to beheading while remaining in the Salvation Army. This demand was refused by General Booth, who sent his most trusted lieutenant (Holland) to win them back, but in vain. The formal resignations of Mr. and Mrs. Booth-Chibborn reached London headquarters of the Salvation Army last Sunday. The leaders of the army say that their secession from the organization will not cause a serious split in that body, as hardly any Salvationists are followers of Dowieism.

ST. JOHN has secured its Jamaica subsidy without the question of government subsidy entering into the matter. We are glad to note that business enterprise has not waited the outcome of governmental aid, even though by its establishment Halifax may not reap great advantage. It is a great pity that Canadian business men everywhere, in Halifax as well as in other sections, do not realize that while governments may assist, and can do a great deal to open up new avenues of trade, that the burden of establishing business connections and a sale for our products and manufactures in centres outside of Canada rests still upon the individual or firm.—Halifax Recorder.
