Piles Not Taken Seriously

"Annoying, but not dangerous," seems to be the way many think of piles in the early stages. But gradually they become worse, until they prevent sleep, undermine the nervous system and make a wreck of life. When the doctor is finally consulted he recommends the use of a serious knife as the only means of cure. It may cure or it may kill. The risk is yours.

But there is an easier and surer way to relieve and cure piles. The earlier you begin the use of this ointment the quicker the cure. But you need not be discouraged because you have suffered for ten or fifteen years. It would be difficult to imagine worse cases than have been cured by this ointment. Relief comes at once and cure is just as certain if you persist in the use of this great ointment.

Was ever a man, who told a woman she was beautiful, plucked for perjury?

PAPERS BATHROOM WITH GREEN BONDS

New York, N. Y., May 3.—If perchance the business of the Whiting and New York Railroad can be revived, it will pay you to take a job as decorator in the house of the late Lever C. Weir, at 12 East Fifty-second street, go to work on the walls and ceilings of the lavatory on the first floor and claim salvage, for there are about 350 square feet of 200 pound bonds of that company pasted up like wall paper and bonds and stocks of other insurance corporations which appear here and there as a border. The color scheme is green and white.

Mr. Weir resigned the presidency of the Adams Express Company in 1909 after he had held office for 15 years. In that time and previously he had interested himself in various business undertakings, some of which didn't live up to expectations. So he found himself surrounded with chronos of all sorts, the bonds and stocks of corporations that didn't pan out.

The bonds of the Cincinnati, Wheeling and New York railroad, for instance, were green and the engraving was excellent, scrolls and circles and ornaments around the names and 200 pound bonds. The coupons, which ran as late as March, 1913, were in the same color, but the perforations kept them from being used as money. The bonds and stocks of other corporations that didn't pan out.

In Mr. Weir's lavatory, which adjoins the billiard room on the first floor, white bonds of the Transit Improvement Company and the American Aluminum Company, contrasted pleasantly with the green bonds of the Cincinnati, Wheeling & New York railroad.

The method of application is simple. In this house the edges do not overlap (though some householders may wish to let only the margins show, for in this way you can use more old bonds), but display the whole front of the issue, with coupons attached.

With care and forethought and in the hands of an efficient paperhanger almost any good, well executed bond can be made to serve a wall paper. The effect is charming, especially when one goes at the task properly. No good housekeeper need to be told that color in the decorations is of the very greatest moment. In the first place one should look at the colors. This is very important. For a library red would do very nicely. Pink or even carmine, in the reception room, and other colors which are very common in bonds, for almost all the good bond houses carry them would be acceptable. A dining room might require those few tones in gray and orange, and here we have very popular bond colors also, especially in the new designs. In this instance, often put out bonds in these new shades.

One should be careful not to confound too many colors in one room. It looks as though you didn't have many bonds to choose from. It often pays to buy a few white ones for the border. There is certain delicacy, not to say modesty, in white and the black letters are easy to read.

And when the paste has set, treat the whole with a good heavy-bodied varnish.

WICKED WASHINGTON

SMART SET'S LATEST

Washington, May 3.—Cigarettes and legs. They're doing it. Doing what? Cigarettes are doing it. Washington society, if you please, and if something doesn't happen soon, the social 400 will be well, I think, smoking a few cigarettes. Longworth smokes cigarettes and dances the Turkey Trot; when a woman, said to be between 40 and 45 years old, came in her bare legs, with a thin veil before her face, and when certain members of the 400 elect are connected with a new wrinkle that will make the tadpole twist look like a prayer book, it's time to call a halt.

That's the story of the saucer-eyed chaplains are saying. Oh, you naughty, naughty Washington! Franchise!

Aroused by the remarkable ball given by Mrs. Robert Patterson at her mansion in honor of her daughter, the Countess Gyzkyt this week when women guests including Alice Longworth, smoked cigarettes and Turkey Trotted at the same time, said Mrs. John Henderson, an exclusive member of the 400 said today that the cigarette habit is undermining the moral stamina of Washington society.

"I know society women who have taken up the smoke and drink habit, and I can see the difference in their manners and appearance," said she. "They acquire the habit abroad. It is a crime for a decent mother to allow her young daughter to smoke cigarettes. One effect of drinking and smoking is that a woman loses her natural reserve and becomes bizarre and gay."

A witless debutante, Miss Doris Haywood, expressed horror at the cigarette-Turkey trot ball.

"I can hardly believe my friends who attended that ball really smoked as they danced," said she. "While I know many of them smoke, it is hard to realize that they would so offend the proprieties as to turkey trot and smoke at the same time."

Exclusive society also is greatly puzzled over the unknown and mysterious woman, with bare legs and saucer eyes, who, holding a golden veil before her face, danced with remarkable grace and agility at the presentation of Mrs. Christian Barney Hemmick's own life romance, "The Love of Echio."

Firm belief is expressed that the mysterious dancer is none other than Mrs. Hemmick herself. On a previous occasion not so long ago she astonished society by marrying Christian Hemmick, who is 20, but is said to be over 60 years old, but as beautiful and as supple as many a woman half her age.

The "The Love of Echio" was a secret process brought by Mrs. Hemmick from Paris. It reached her by her knees. As she proceeded with all the skill and daring of Paris, she kept the golden veil between her face and the audience.

Announcement will be made of Hemmick's new dance by Mrs. Hemmick's own life romance, "The Love of Echio."

TO TAKE MINTO TO HUDSON BAY DURING SUMMER

Special to The Standard.

St. John's, May 3.—The government steamer Minto has been selected for the expedition to Hudson Bay to be undertaken this summer in connection with a selection of a terminal point for the Hudson Bay Railway. Captain Anderson will probably command the Minto, having with him both experienced navigators in northern waters. A land party of engineers has already started for Port Nelson and Fort Churchill.

I love my dear teacher, her hands are so warm; and as long as I'm sitting she'll do me no harm.

The One Perfect Food

The whole wheat grain is the one perfect, complete food given to man. This is affirmed by dietetic experience. It contains all the chemical elements that are found in the human body and in about the same proportion. If it is a complete, perfect food, why mix it with other grains?

Nothing could be purer, more wholesome or more nutritious than

SHREDDED WHEAT

It is the whole wheat, nothing added, nothing taken away—no yeast, no baking powder, no grease and no chemicals of any kind—just pure whole wheat made digestible by steam cooking, shredding, and baking.

For breakfast, heat the Shredded in the oven a few moments to restore crispness; then pour hot milk over it and salt or sweeten to suit the taste. It is delicious for any meal with steamed prunes, baked apples, sliced pineapple, berries or other fruits. At your grocer's.
