London, Feb. 8—The hazing of young officers of the First Grenadier Guards, followed by the retirement on half pay of Colonel Kinloch, commanding the regiment, has attracted much attention. The trouble began in November last with young officers, Lord Douro, son of the Duke of Wellington; the Master of Belhaven, son of Lord Belhaven, and J. H. Leveson-Gower, son of the late Capt.

After the business had been transacted in the different ward meetings a rally was held in the large hall up stairs. The speakers were Hon. H. A. McKeown, John L. Carleton, W. H. Trueman, Thomas Gorman, A. P. Barnhill, C. J. Milligan, Jas. Barry and E. J. Murphy. The meeting gave the speakers a hearty reception and as point after point was made puncturing the weakness and inconsistency of the opposition, the large gathering gave way to enthusiastic applause.

mapers for some time past:—
"Mysterious, everlasting fire. Marvelous new fuel that burns forever. Makes intense heat, but never burns up. Better, cheaper and cleaner than coal. Absolutely safe, and pronounced miraculous, super-natural. Agents making fortunes. Nine-tenths profit. No capital required."

To those who answered the advertise-ment, Bryan & Company announced that the formula for making the "mysterious" fire would be imparted for the nominal sum of $1. Thousands of answers were re-ceived, and those who sent the required sum were told to take a porous fire brick, scheme was more in the nature of a "gold brick" scheme, and has issued a fraud order against the promoters.
