

Board, are in St. John for a few days. Misses Carolyn and Kate Washburn have returned from a pleasant visit in Grand Manan. Miss Irene Corlies has arrived from Croisville (Me.), to visit relatives in Milltown. Misses Lillian and Mabel Richardson are visiting relatives in St. Andrews. This is Old Home week in Calais, and the city has a number of visitors from many parts of the United States. Miss Mabel Algar is enjoying a pleasant visit in Fredericton. Mr. Duval Blair, of the Bank of Ottawa, is in town the guest of his uncle, Dr. Frank I. Blair. Mr. Blair expects to spend a week yachting on the St. Croix with his friends, Messrs. E. G. and Harold Vroom. Rev. Canon and Mrs. Newham left on Monday morning for Canoe (N.S.), where they will visit their son, Mr. Frederick Newham. Mrs. Alma Nichols and her daughter, Miss Beatrice Nichols, of Boston, are visiting in Calais. Miss Julia Tilly, of Toronto (Ont.), is in town, the guest of Mrs. John D. Chipman. Mrs. Aubrey Upham has recovered sufficiently from her illness to be removed from the Chipman Memorial Hospital to her home, much to the relief of her family and friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson are visiting at Oak Bay at the pleasant home of Mrs. George Young. Miss Annie Alfred, and Miss Jessie Whitlock are spending a week or two in St. Andrews. Mrs. Henry W. Gillespie and Mrs. George Murchie are visiting in Boston. The Junior Aid Society of Christ Church, held a most successful ice cream sale in Christ Church school room on Tuesday evening. Rev. J. A. Winfield, rector of Trinity Church, has been visiting Halifax (N.S.), for several days. Miss Alice Robinson has returned from a pleasant visit in Grand Manan. Miss Lilla Murchie has gone to Penikese (Mass.), to visit her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Eaton and Mrs. Adam Gillespie are spending a month at the Eaton Cottage at Muddybump Lake. Mrs. A. W. Reed, of St. John, is the guest of her sisters, Misses Bessie and Annie Porter this week. Miss Whipple, of Cambridge (Mass.), is the guest of Miss Lavin. Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Abbot and Mr. Herbert C. Grant, who have been in Paris (France), during the past month, have decided to visit Germany, Austria, Switzerland and Holland before returning to Canada. Miss Agnes and Paula Duxan are in St. Andrews, the guests of their sister, Mrs. Thomas T. O'Dell. Miss Ruby Webber has returned from a pleasant visit in Fredericton (Mass.), is visiting friends in Calais. Miss Florence Holland, of Portland (Me.), is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Holland. Mr. and Mrs. John W. McMinch and little grandson arrived from Woodstock a few days ago, and are guests in Calais of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rose. Mr. Seth Mason has returned to New York City after a pleasant visit in Calais to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Mason. Mr. George W. Lord has returned home after an absence of several weeks spent in London (Eng.), and Paris (France). Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ames, of Machias (Me.), have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Hill. Mrs. Edwin J. Gannon and Mrs. Percy L. Lord were the hostesses at the golf tea last Friday afternoon. Miss Annie King has been visiting Grand Manan. Miss George Elliott is visiting friends in St. Andrews. Miss Gabrielle Boardman has arrived home and is cordially welcomed by her friends. Rev. C. G. McCully, with Mrs. McCully and Miss Emma McCully have returned from a pleasant visit in Campbellville. Miss Theo. Stevens, who has been spending several weeks in Boston with friends, has concluded her visit and returned home. Mrs. Daxell, of Boston, is the guest of Mrs. Frederick S. Hutchinson at "Hillmore Lodge," Champlain. Miss Jean Hoyt, who has been Miss Stella Robinson's guest, has returned to her home in Boston. Miss Retalick, of Woodstock, has been a recent guest of Mrs. Carson, at "Pine Bluff Cottage." Mrs. Walter Grimmer, of Grand Falls, has been visiting Mrs. R. W. Grimmer at the Lodge. Mr. Thomas Irvine and Miss Irvine leave at an early date for New York City and Newport, where they will spend some time before returning to Denver (Col.).

SUSSEX.

SUSSEX, Aug. 9.—Miss Alice Burgess, of Boston, is visiting at her home here. Miss Carrie Roach went to Riverside, Albert Co., on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, of Costa Rica, are in town the guests of Mrs. C. Smith, Church avenue. Mr. Wm. Farley, of Fredericton, spent Sunday in town. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. White spent Sunday at Perry's Point the guests of Mrs. Arthur Keith. Mr. Maxwell, of St. Stephen, spent a few days of last week in Sussex with his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Vessey. Miss Jennie Gannon, accompanied by the Misses Fowler, of Wollaston, (Mass.), arrived in Sussex on Tuesday to spend a few weeks with relatives. Mrs. Clark and her daughter, Mrs. Morrell, went to St. John on Monday. Mrs. Rogers is visiting relatives in Nova Scotia. Mrs. Files, of Brookline, spent Tuesday in Sussex with her friend, Miss Louise White. Miss Annie Johnston, of Lynn, (Mass.), is visiting Miss Bessie Suffern. Miss Christine Howes is spending her vacation at Shediac Cove. Mrs. McKenzies, of St. Stephen, was the guest of Miss Mabel Murray last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Short are spending a few days in Hillsboro. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Spruel left this week for the North Shore, where they will spend a month. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McFee spent Sunday in Sussex. Miss Mabel Duffy is spending her vacation at her home in Hillsboro. Mr. Jack Lucas left this week on a visit to his parents at Keswick. Mrs. Burgess and her daughters, the Misses Alice and Mildred, are spending a few weeks at Shediac. Dr. Graham is spending his vacation at Brown's Flats.

ST. GEORGE.

ST. GEORGE, Aug. 8.—A most pleasant home was given by Mrs. R. Hugh Lawrence on Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6. Mrs. Lawrence was assisted in receiving her guests by Miss Pittman, of St. John, both ladies being prettily gowned in white. Under the direction of Miss Wallace dainty refreshments and ices were served to the guests on the veranda. The reception was greatly enjoyed.

Miss Blanche Gilmour is visiting in St. Stephen. A fashionable audience assembled in Court's hall on Friday evening to listen to an interesting programme prepared by the committee of the Neighborhood Club. Those taking part were Mr. and Mrs. L. McLean, St. Stephen; Miss Holmes of Eastport; Mr. R. T. Wetmore, Mr. S. Lynott and Mr. Joe Murray, Mrs. Colleen playing the accompaniment. The most satisfactory of the dance dancing was indulged in. The proceeds go to the Neighborhood Club. Miss Sarah Baldwin, of Florida, is visiting friends in town. Miss Marie Lynott and her friend, Miss Mullen, who have been spending a few days with Miss Lynott's grandmother, Mr. James Lynott, have returned to Red Beach (Me.). Dr. and Mrs. Wilson leave this week to spend a month with relatives at the Narrows, St. John river. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Toul and Mrs. Bridges, of Millstream (Me.), are visiting friends in town. Miss Nellie Douglas leaves this week to visit relatives in Oak Bay. Miss Bessie Frouley, has returned from a pleasant outing at Beaver Harbor. Mrs. William McIntyre is visiting in Wilford. Mr. Oscar Baldwin and Mr. Ralph Gifford left on Tuesday for the North-west. Mr. Octave Plade left on Monday to join his family, who have been summering in Sandy Hill, New York State. A number of the young people enjoyed a delightful evening at the Dragoon Club room this week.

PETITCODIAC.

PETITCODIAC, Aug. 9.—Mr. B. S. Corey, of Amherst (N. S.), spent Sunday with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Corey. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Thompson, of Montreal, spent a few days during the week at the Burlington. Mr. R. O. Sherwood, of St. John, and Mr. H. Stenwood, of Amherst, N. S., were guests at the Mansard House Sunday. Miss Mabel Macdonald and her guest, Miss Wells, of St. John, arrived from Hopewell Hill, Albert county, to visit friends. Miss Mayne Trites spent Tuesday in St. John. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bickney, of Cambridge (Mass.), are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Brown, of Boston, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. S. M. Burnett. Miss Farrer, who has been spending the past few weeks here, returned on Monday to Dorchester. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jones, of Moncton, spent Sunday with Mrs. J. D. Cochran. Miss Laird, of Portland (Me.), has been visiting Mrs. E. C. Corey. Mr. Walter Jones, of Boston, arrived Monday to spend a week with his family, who are summering here. Harry Mann, D. D. S., of Campbellton, left Tuesday after spending the past week at his home here. Mr. Heber S. Keith, of St. John, is visiting his mother, Mrs. M. B. Keith. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown left Tuesday for Winnipeg, where they expect to locate. Mrs. H. W. Church went to Dorchester Monday to visit her mother. Mr. Stephen Pascoe, of Boston, arrived on Tuesday to visit his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Pascoe. Miss Bessie Holstead, of Moncton, has been spending a few days with friends in the village. Mr. H. H. Magee, of Pictou (N. S.), arrived on Saturday to visit his family, who are spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Trice. Rev. Mr. Grant, of St. John, left Wednesday to accompany his sister, Mrs. Smith, to Red Deer, Alberta. Mr. Wm. Pascoe is spending a few days here, having been called home on account of the severe illness of his mother, Mrs. Joseph Pascoe.

ST. STEPHEN.

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Aug. 9.—The great international town picnic came off Wednesday at Hill's Point, seven miles down the St. Croix, and was a success financially and numerically. H. P. Burpee, manager of the Frontier & Deer Island Steamship Company, was the prime mover, and his ability assisted by business men of both sides of the river. They induced the stores along the St. Croix to close, and take a day off from business. Three motor yachts, and motor boats, landed 4,000 people on the point. On the grounds were the usual stands for fish Chowder and refreshments, and many took lunch baskets for picnicking. Three base ball games were well contested, Calais High School team beating the Victoria team, Calais's team defeating Calais's. Motor boat races and other sports filled the time. At 5 o'clock the Viking started for home with the first crowd of tired picnickers. The Eaton was to make a trip at 6 o'clock, but shortly before that time, while enroute at the landing, ran on a rocky point and remained there until the early morning tide. As she had been strained and began to leak, she was towed out of business and went to Calais for repairs. This afternoon she started for Eastport on her regular trip. On account of the accident the Viking was forced to work all night, the Aurora making but one trip from the point. Quite a large number of people had to spend the night on the grounds. Excepting for the accident everything passed off nicely, perfect order being maintained. A resident near the point thought the government should buy the rocks as a protection for the many boats sailing in and out of the Wawog river, at the mouth of which the steamer grounded. Forty-five stalwart citizens left St. Stephen on Tuesday evening on the harvest excursion. A number go each year, but some remain to sail the tide of settlers in our great west. A long swell of hot weather has given the lake makers an opportunity to gather their hay. For many days the thermometer has shown from eighty-five to ninety degrees in the shade.

TURRO.

TURRO, Aug. 8.—Quite a novel event took place on Wednesday in connection with the Tennis Club. On this occasion the gentlemen members gave a few dollars each on the grounds and won laurels for themselves. The boats from Moncton, St. John, and St. Stephen, and W. P. McKay, and they received their guests in good style and served delicious refreshments, including hot tea, seed coffee, sandwiches of various kinds, salmon salad and cakes of various kinds. Miss Laura Brine is visiting friends in Halifax. Mr. Harold Boal is spending a short time in Sydney, the guest of his brother and family. Mr. Kenneth McKenzie is at home from Toronto. The Misses Bertha Tremaine and Dorothy Tremaine are visiting in St. John. Mr. Robert Prizell, of Hills Hill, was recently married to Miss M. J. Hann. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. S. Stannard, only immediate friends being present. The honey moon will be spent in P. E. Island. Mr. and Mrs. Prizell intend reading at Bible Hill, where Mrs. Prizell has a daughter living. Mrs. Ryland Archibald,

Mr. Rupert Archibald is at home from a trip to the Cape Breton Highlands. Rev. Stephen Cummings, of Amherst, has been visiting his father, Mr. William Cummings. Mrs. W. H. Buck and children are visiting at Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gunn are in Sydney for a few days. Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Randall and the latter's brother, Dr. J. B. Webster, of Halifax, have been spending a few days at Polly Lake, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Daltry. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Blair, of Boston, are spending some time with friends. Miss Rosina B. Goode is at home from the United States on a visit to her parents. Mr. E. M. Turnbull, of the Union Bank staff, and his mother, are visiting Clarke's Harbor, Shelburne county. Mrs. A. R. Watt has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. K. Telfer, in Amherst. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McFarlane are spending part of the vacation in Hants county. Miss E. P. McGill, principal of the Domestic Science school, is in Halifax. Rev. A. L. Goggin, of Parkside, Toronto, was welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Goggin. Mr. Goggin was a former pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church. Mrs. A. James McDonald and children are in Parkside on a visit. Miss Mary, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. L. MacFarlane, has returned from a visit to her family. Mrs. R. S. Boyd and children have returned from a visit to their family. Miss J. G. Boyd, who has been visiting in Amherst, has returned to her home. H. W. Yull left on Thursday for Wallace, where Mrs. Yull has been for a short time. Rev. H. R. Grant and wife, of New Glasgow, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Boyd. Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Boyd and two children are visiting friends in Wallace. Miss E. P. McGill is spending part of her vacation in Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacFarlane, of Wallace, are enjoying an outing near Wallace. Mr. R. B. Bole and daughter, of Westboro (Mass.), recently visited the former's sister, Mrs. L. A. Goggin. Quite a number of pleasure seekers are spending some time at Parkside. Among those who recently joined the party were Mrs. Harry Snook, Miss Rita Linton and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crowe. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. O'Brien are at home in Wallace, and are receiving a number of visitors in N. B. Hants county. Mrs. J. B. Bole is visiting his home in Stanley (N. B.). Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ryan and two children are visiting friends in Wallace. Miss E. P. McGill is spending part of her vacation in Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacFarlane, of Wallace, are enjoying an outing near Wallace. Mr. R. B. Bole and daughter, of Westboro (Mass.), recently visited the former's sister, Mrs. L. A. Goggin.

FREDERICTON.

Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 12.—A. V. Hagerman, a well known resident of Keswick, died last evening. Deceased, who was 44 years old, leaves a widow, formerly Mrs. M. B. Hagerman, of this city, and three children. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning. An electric storm accompanied by a very heavy rain passed over the city an early hour this morning. Rev. Canon Montgomery, of Springfield, preached at the cathedral at both services today. Among those who will leave here tomorrow morning to take part in the Provincial Rifle Association matches at Sussex are Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Massey, R. T. Mack, H. H. Hagerman, C. S. L. Coleman, F. W. Merritt, C. L. McLean, Howard Douglas, J. W. McFarlane, and A. S. McFarlane. Robert Logan, a well known resident of Stanley, had a narrow escape from being gored by an angry bull in the circus limit on Thursday night. The bull had him down on the ground for fully half an hour. Two cows owned by Michael Crotty, of Stanley, were killed by the lightning in the last electrical storm which passed over that section of the country. Another driver was brought to New York Public, who was a prominent member of the circus. There was about six million feet of lumber in the drive. The river is now entirely clear of ice, which was brought on by a heavy rain. This includes the lumber owned by Randolph and Chas. Miller, which was brought on by a heavy rain. It is very doubtful if that lumber will reach the boom limits this fall.

NORTH SHORE STORY WITH SKATER REYNOLDS IN IT

Alleged Hartford Man Tried to Get Line on Gate Receipts. Moncton, Aug. 10.—Mr. Knodell, manager of the roller rink for Mr. Campbell, of St. John, and Earle Reynolds, fancy and trick roller skater, who has been giving exhibitions here, say they had quite an interesting experience with a man who arrived here last Tuesday in company with a pretty young woman, and registered at the American Hotel as J. C. Scott and wife. New York (Conn.) Knodell, introduced his wife, and told him he had seen her perform in New York and would have the pleasure of seeing her here. Mr. and Mrs. Scott were at the rink and Scott made himself agreeable to the champion skater. He was putting on skates, etc. He volunteered to introduce Reynolds to the spectators and was given the job. Knodell picked up at Newcastle and offered his services to Knodell who gave him the job of selling tickets and handling the receipts from the refreshment booth. At the close of the entertainment, they say, Scott was a few dollars short in his accounts, but nothing serious appears to have been thought of. That night Scott was in the same room with Knodell. Knodell took the precaution to give his money to Reynolds for safe keeping over night. He returned with $300.00 in bills. In the morning one of Knodell's assistants suspected his room mate, and later in the day he was taken to the police station with the facts charged against Scott with theft. The latter was advised to skip before proceedings were taken, but the young man, who had been in search of a woman in Canada, stayed in Newcastle. Knodell and Reynolds came to Moncton Thursday afternoon, and soon after the arrival of Knodell received a telegram from Newcastle signed John J. Gallagher, instructing him to arrest Reynolds and Knodell. On instructions so indefinite the chief declined to act without further information. He wired Newcastle and received a reply not to act on the first telegram. Last evening Scott arrived here, and when cornered is said to have admitted he sent a telegram to his wife, who was traveling with him as his wife. He learned the story she appeared much affected and told a story. He said he had been in Hartford, where he was wooed and won by James Bradley to whom she was married recently, and they came east on their honeymoon. Bradley, she said, represented himself as being wealthy, but she said she had actually learned she had been deceived and was a wish she could untie the magical knot. The young man who registered as Scott is believed to be the brother of Hartford. The pair left on the C. P. R. for the west this afternoon.

FREDERICTON.

Fredericton, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Luke Stewart and Miss Cunningham paid a short visit to St. John, and returned to Fredericton. Mrs. George Clarke left yesterday with her children to join Mr. Clarke in Moncton, where they will in future reside. Miss Dora Murray is home from Worcester, (Mass.), to visit her father, Mr. H. H. Mark Tapley, of Havana, (Cuba), is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tapley. Mr. King and young son, of Boston, are here visiting Mrs. King's parents, Recorder and Mrs. Colter. Miss Annie Rapson, of Maryville, has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Nova Scotia. Mr. Fred Gibson, of the Bank of Montreal, St. John, spent Sunday at his home in Maryville. Mrs. Henry Esley and her daughter, Miss Myra, are spending a few weeks in Fredericton. Miss Emma Murray, of Wolfville, is the guest of Mrs. Esley. Mrs. B. J. Dowling, of St. John, and Miss Grace Dowling, are the guests of Mrs. E. A. Tapley. Miss Annie McKay and Miss Muriel Hatheway are in the Martello Hotel, Carleton Heights. Miss Dora Henderson, of Edmundston, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, returned to her home on Saturday. Mr. Charles W. Long, of Toronto, is here on a two weeks visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Long. Senator Thompson and his daughter, Miss Thompson, left today en route for Europe, and will be gone until the early Autumn. Mr. and Mrs. Settle are entertaining friends at Camp "Kankasebo." The Misses Dorothy and Gladys Edgar, who have come from St. John, and are visiting Mrs. Settle, at the Camp.

MONCTON.

Moncton, Aug. 12.—Ross Budd, Cook Wallace and Henry White, the three men accused by the police in a raid of one of the I. C. R. houses Friday night, were committed for trial at 10 o'clock this morning. The charge of robbing live roosts. The officers making the raid told the story of the live roosts. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with the chickens. The three men were taken to the court and later in the afternoon by the midnight fasters, identified three of the chickens found in the house as a property. The owners of part of the fowl found in the house could not be located. Budd and Wallace told their side of the story to the police magistrate. Budd denied stealing the fowl from Tom Butts but he had taken them from his father's coop and had stolen fowl from the same place previously. Wallace told a similar story, denying he had taken a fowl from a guest at the midnight feast. A guest at the midnight feast, who was charged with the chickens, was taken to the police station and released. Wallace was charged with