

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ST. GEORGE

St. George, June 22—Senator Gillmor arrived home from Ottawa last week. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. M. P. Phelan and two children, of Montreal. They will spend the summer months in this vicinity.

Miss Grace Atton, Sussex, is the guest of Mrs. Douglas Fenwick. An auto party consisting of the Misses Ada Connelly, Stella Alcorn, Beulah Kelly and W. Moore motored from Point Wolfe, Albert county, on Saturday and spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Connelly.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, June 21—Albert county friends will be pleased to hear of the marriage at Anacortes (Wash.), of Miss Mabel Melissa Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Elliott, of that place, former residents of Hopewell. The happy event took place on June 7, the groom being Ernest Norton Smith, a former New Brunswick, now residing in Anacortes. The bride, who is a very bright young lady, was formerly a teacher in this province, and went west with her parents a few years ago.

SALISBURY

Salisbury, N. B., June 22—George Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Chapman, of this place, who recently completed his studies at Normal school, will take the principalship of the Hillsboro, Albert county, school at the beginning of the fall term. Dr. C. A. King and son, Master Fred, of Petticoat, were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter.

Miss Myrtle McPherson, of Wallace (N. S.), is visiting at Hopewell Cape. W. S. Jones, a druggist at Albert, is fitting up a new store, near his residence, the building being constructed of concrete block masonry at Albert. Hopewell Hill, June 22—It is understood that Jack Hanson, B.A., of Fredericton, son of Inspector R. E. Hanson, has been engaged as principal of the Riverside Consolidated school, in the place of Mr. Seaman, who has resigned to take a position in Montreal.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, June 22—Miss Edith, Florence, and Marguerite Bourque, who have been attending a convent school at College (Que.) since home on Saturday to spend vacation with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Bourque. Miss Charlotte Irwin went last week to Moncton to spend a week before going to Toronto, where she will have her residence in the book department of the printing office.

Dr. John Menzies, of Pittsburg, is visiting a few days with relatives and friends in Norton and Bellefleur. Mrs. Wasson, of Moncton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. R. Patrizio. Miss Maggie McManis, of St. John, is visiting her friends here. Rev. Mr. Young, Methodist, preached his farewell sermon here yesterday. Mr. Young has been on the Bellefleur and Norton circuit for four years and his many friends regret to have him leave.

CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, June 22—Company S, of the 7th regiment, of Capt. LeBlanc, with Frank E. Lockhart, son, and Harry W. Ferguson and Charlie Archer, junior lieutenants, leave tonight for Camp Sussex. The company has fifty-six men, and in addition to these Capt. Faure of the signal corps also enroute for the camp tonight. They are a fine looking body of men and seem to be well trained and in good company. The decision of Rev. T. P. Drummond regarding the call recently tendered him by St. John's Presbyterian church, B. C. Ellis, of Fort Millard, was presbytery meeting in New Mills today. The result is awaited with much interest by many friends in Campbellton. The Presbyterian church is the strongest of all the Protestant bodies along the North Shore, and the church in Campbellton is one of the largest in the maritime provinces, having greatly increased its strength during the ministry of Rev. Mr. Drummond.

YARMOUTH

Yarmouth, June 20—The marriage of Miss Hannah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brackett of this town to Clifford, Gerald Ernest, Station Master at Lunenburg, took place on Wednesday morning at the bride home, at 7:30 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. S. Rogers, pastor of Wesley Church, in the presence of the immediate relatives and close friends. Following the ceremony the happy couple left by the H. & S. W. train for Halifax, enroute to the west on a honeymoon trip. Among those attending the Annual Methodist Conference at Lunenburg this week, are Revs. A. S. Rogers and C. E. Crowell, and Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Fuller, the three latter representing Providence Church, the former Wesley Church, and Miss Winnie Lewis, eldest daughter of

BATH

Bath, N. B., June 22—The marriage of Mrs. Emma C. Minard to William A. Squires, of Upper Kent, took place on Thursday last. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Milburn, here, and her many friends wish her and her husband many years of happiness. Mrs. Bohan has returned from Fredericton, where she was married to Mr. Matthew Butler (nee Lynch) last week. Mr. Butler (nee Lynch) is a grand-daughter of Mr. Bohan. The prospect in this section of Cap-

GAGETOWN

Gagetown, N. B., June 22—D. Moore and his son, Fred Moore, returned early in the week from a visit of several days in Chatham. Miss Lucile Nevins, of Mouth of Jesus, is a recent graduate of the Normal school, arrived home on Saturday evening, and on Monday visited friends in Gagetown. Mrs. R. Reid, Master Harry Reid, and little Miss Mary Reid are visiting in St. John as guests of Mrs. Reid's father, Harry Allingham. W. K. Wilkinson, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Lunenburg, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron. Wm. Redpath, recently transferred to Chipman, is taking Mr. Wilkinson's place until his return. Mrs. Greer, of Ottawa, and young son, arrived in Gagetown on Thursday, and is with her cousin, Mrs. J. R. Dunn. A pleasant little motorboat party of young people enjoyed a sail to Hart's Lake on Thursday afternoon, and picked up on McAlister's Island. The wild strawberries are already in this section, and they formed an agreeable surprise at tea. Mrs. E. S. Brodie, Miss Gladys McKinnon and Miss Gertrude Rubins were among a party which spent Friday at the Cedars, making the trip by motorboat. Mrs. T. H. Gilbert and son Adrian Gilbert, of Fredericton, are spending a few days in the former home. Miss A. Dingo returned from a trip up river on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patrick, who have been in the province for two years, here where Mr. Patrick has been engaged in superintending the railway work, are returning to Pennsylvania, where he will be similarly employed. Mrs. Wm. O'Byrne returned on Friday evening from a visit to her sister, Mrs. C. T. Clowes, Mauderville, and her mother, Mrs. Marianne Grey, who is with Mrs. Clowes. Friday was the day of the eighteenth birthday. Among those also present on this occasion were her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Clowes, of Upper Gagetown, her granddaughters, Miss Alice Clowes, of Oromocto, and Miss Leolin Gilbert, of Ashluke, Ohio. The latter will spend the summer with her relatives here. The family of Eugene P. Whitcombe receives a surprise one day last week when a good sized bear strolled into Mr. Whitcombe's yard, and began to inspect the premises. Harry Whitcombe hurriedly opened his gun and laid the bear low before he had time either to do any damage or to flee to his native haunts. Mrs. Holly Bridges and daughters, Edith and Lucie, returned on Saturday from a visit to their sister, Mrs. R. T. Babbitt, who was also a passenger up river to her home in Gagetown on Saturday. Mrs. Law and Miss Laurie Law returned home on Saturday after spending several days in St. John. Miss A. B. Dingo returned home from St. John on Saturday.

ANDOVER Andover, N. B., June 22—Miss Annie McGill and Dr. David Wiley spent last week with relatives and friends in Fort Fairfield (Me.). Mrs. H. H. Hetherington, of Waterville (Me.), with her friend, Mrs. Joy, are visiting Mrs. Charles Spikes, at Carleton Place. Mrs. George Cain and two children, of Belmont, (Arkted), in Yarmouth, are visiting relatives and will spend the summer at Lake Umbagog. Miss Muriel Helms arrived in Yarmouth on Monday morning from New York to visit her mother, Mrs. Thomas Helms. Mr. and Mrs. Willard M. Kelley arrived on Monday morning from Boston. A. E. Williams was a passenger by Steamer Prince Arthur on Saturday afternoon to Boston. Mr. Floyd Malone, Supt. of the Insane Department of the Government Hospital, Pemaquid, arrived in Yarmouth on Saturday morning and is visiting relatives in Yarmouth and Woods Harbour. The Civil Service Committee at Ottawa announces that among the list of candidates for the position of Inspector of the outside service held last week at Yarmouth is William Truell. Geo. F. Sanders has consented to be a candidate for election in Fort Millard district as councillor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Coun. C. H. Perry. One of the heaviest dockets is that to be presented to Mr. Justice Ritchie when the Supreme Court meets Tuesday, June 23. The Hilton murder case will be the first tried. Mr. Councillor Burgess M. Blackadar was a passenger by Steamer Prince Arthur on Wednesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Perry, of Westfield, (N. J.), arrived in Yarmouth on Wednesday morning and are visiting Mrs. Perry's parents, Capt. and Mrs. Cerezo Johnson, Church Hill, and Mrs. Miss Mary Lewis is visiting her friend, Mrs. Charles Hatfield, at her summer cottage, near Sydney K. Murray of New York will also spend the summer here. John W. Cann and son, Mr. Sewell F. Cann, of Brookfield, (N. Y.), who have been visiting relatives at Inverness, returned home on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. A. L. Getzler, who has been to the summer at Lake Umbagog, is now visiting relatives in Crowell arrived home yesterday morning from Florida. Mrs. Margaret Crowell Locke returned yesterday morning from Florida. A Spencer Allen of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Halifax, has been spending his vacation with his parents, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Albert street, returned to Halifax on Thursday morning. B. C. Ellis, of Fort Millard, was presbytery meeting in New Mills today. The result is awaited with much interest by many friends in Campbellton. The Presbyterian church is the strongest of all the Protestant bodies along the North Shore, and the church in Campbellton is one of the largest in the maritime provinces, having greatly increased its strength during the ministry of Rev. Mr. Drummond. The recital of vocal, violin and piano music given in the Opera House on Monday evening, June 22, by Miss DeCourvant and Miss DeCourvant, was a decided success. The audience was most enthusiastic, which should prove most encouraging to the young artists at their first appearance in joint recital. The programme was varied. The opening piano duet by Boda, Concert Overture, was well played. Miss DeCourvant was equally happy in the selections, Sens Toi, and Roly O'Moore, the latter completely captivating the house. The piano and violin solos were given to the given to the pianist, which shows the value of training with master musicians.

ANDOVER (Cont.) Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lewis, Queen street, has recently passed the examinations at the Provincial Normal School, and will be entitled to first rank diploma after one year's successful teaching. The local committee in aid of the Maritime Home for delinquent girls, held its first meeting last evening, at which the organization was completed. Judge Patton, the convenor, was elected permanent chairman, and C. Curtis McKay, permanent secretary. It was decided to invite Dr. J. W. McMillan of Halifax to speak at a public meeting to arouse public sentiment. Mrs. Miss Arabel M. McKay of the staff of Bradford Girls' Academy, Bradford, (Mass.), arrived here this morning by steamer, and will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David McKay, Forbes street. Mrs. Charles W. Murphy arrived on Saturday morning and will spend the summer at Lake Umbagog. Conductor Nathan Miller, of the H. & S. W., and Mrs. Moshier, returned on Saturday from a trip to Boston and New York. Mrs. Lou Killam who spent the winter with her son in Virginia, returned home on Saturday morning last. Postmaster Stoneham was a passenger on Saturday afternoon for Boston. Miss Lou Cain left on Saturday to spend a vacation with her brother in Lynn, (Mass.). Mrs. John Y. Robbins and daughter, Mrs. Wm. H. Hoar, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. H. H. Hoar, of Hopewell Cape, is home from Fredericton, where she has been attending the Normal school. Mr. and Mrs. Blair Bishop, who have been in the States for several months, have returned to Cape Station. Mayor Gross and Mrs. Gross, of Moncton, spent Sunday at the latter's former home, coming by the latter's train. Miss Myrtle McPherson, of Wallace (N. S.), is visiting at Hopewell Cape. W. S. Jones, a druggist at Albert, is fitting up a new store, near his residence, the building being constructed of concrete block masonry at Albert. Hopewell Hill, June 22—It is understood that Jack Hanson, B.A., of Fredericton, son of Inspector R. E. Hanson, has been engaged as principal of the Riverside Consolidated school, in the place of Mr. Seaman, who has resigned to take a position in Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Coggon, of South Easton (Mass.), are visiting relatives and are receiving a cordial welcome from many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coggon are natives of New Brunswick, the former of Sussex and the latter of Salisbury. They were in Salisbury on an automobile trip last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. J. W. Carter and Miss Carter. Mrs. N. A. McNeill, who has been ill with throat trouble for some days, is improving. S. S. Ryan and Miss Ryan, of Coverdale, Albert county, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gross, of Vancouver, were in Salisbury last week, spending a day with their cousin, A. E. Tritter. Miss Marjory McCarthy, of Moncton, is enjoying a visit here with her cousin, Miss Louise Telle. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H.