

was missed by all. During the year, still another of our number was taken, Miss Lamb, who was at the time our Acting Treasurer, she also is much regretted.

The Committee again desire to thank the many friends for their donations of old clothing, especially Mrs. Clearihue, Mrs. A. Brodie, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Geggie, Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Renfrew, Mrs. Love, Mrs. Pfeiffer, Mrs. Pentland, the Misses Ross, Clint, Foote, Tremaine, and also Messrs. J. T. Ross and Turner & Co., for tea, sugar and codfish. Mrs. Veasey, a Xmas dinner. Mrs. Williams, a Xmas dinner. St. George's Society, St. Andrew's Society and The Irish Protestant Benevolent Society have also lent their aid in time of need, for which thanks are expressed. To the W. C. A. for $40 to help the distressed. The Committee tender thanks to the Trustees of the Jeffery Hale Sunday School for their continued kindness in giving the use of their rooms. May the seeds of kindness sown bring forth fruit to Our Heavenly Father's glory.

BELLA M. GEGGIE,

Secretary.