Local Happenings.

FOR SALE—House on Gaspeaux Avenue. Easy terms. Apply to Miss Robinson.

On College Anniversary Sunday, May 26th, there will be service in the Methodist church, Wolfville, in the evening only.

Mr. A. D. Elkerkin is having his commodious residence improved by the addition of wide verandahs and other changes.

Mr. J. W. Williams, of this town, has purchased the property of Dr. Writman on University avenue and will go there to reside.

The graduating recital of Miss Prudence Hunter Gilroy, reader, and Miss Lila Maude Strong, pianiste, will be held in College Hall this evening.

A Bliss Native Herb Tablets for sale. Mrs. H. E. STARR, Main St., Wolfville.

Rev. Dr. Stuart, of Pine Hill College, was the preacher at St. Andrew's church last Sunday at both services, and his able sermons were much enjoyed by the congregation.

Miss L. E. Crawley, of Yarmouth, will be in Wolfville the 25th of May to spend one week. Those desiring her professional services will please phone to Acadia Villa Hotel.

The boiler at the Acadia Dairy blew up on Saturday last causing quite an excitement. Fortunately no one was injured. The steam-roller has been secured to furnish power until repairs have been made.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

At the recent sitting of the County Court at Kentville, before Judge Chipman, in the case against Louis Paul, the Hants county Indian, for assaulting Mrs. Dominic Landry, on Jan. 25th, last, the defendant was bound over to keep the peace for twelve months.

Attention is directed to the large adv. of Mr. E. M. Beckwith, of Canisig, which appears in THE ACADIAN this week. Those of our readers who have money to invest in western lands will find it to their advantage to have a man of Mr. Beckwith's good judgment and business integrity through whom to act.

DYKE FOR SALE.—Between 5 and 6 acres west side of road leading to Government wharf, Wolfville.

D. A. MURROE LADIES' TAILORING.—F. B. Newcombe & Co. are now preparing for the SUMMER SEASON in their tailoring department. The spring season has been a most successful one. Many delighted customers have been fittingly attired with a MOLLMAN tailored suit or coat. They are about ready to take orders for Summer Suits and Coats of silk, linen, or light weight fabric materials, which makes hot weather enjoyable, and at the same time give a consciousness of being dressed in the most attractive and up-to-date manner.

ASPHALT ROOFING.—Best on the market, sand surface, needs no painting. Good for 30 years. Sold by D. A. MURROE, Wolfville.

A report appeared in the Montreal Star some weeks ago from San Antonio, Texas, giving an account of a tornado in that state which destroyed a number of lives and much property. It was said that among those killed was Grover Nye, of Loredo. Mr. Nye is known here having visited Wolfville a few years ago. His wife was formerly Miss Evelyn Bishop, of Wolfville. The news therefore caused much uneasiness. THE ACADIAN is glad to be able to report that Mr. Nye was not injured, although he was dwelling and working in Loredo.

A PRIZE was given this week by the Royal English Hand Bell Ringers for the best performance given by the Royal English Hand Bell Ringers of the Academy of Music, Halifax, last evening, was one of the best entertainments ever given in that building. The audience were delighted and showed this by enclosing every number. The bell ringers are not only perfect in their own specialty, but they are good vocalists, and the splendid program included vocal solos, quartets and double quartets. They also have in Mr. Dawson a good leader.

Frederick, beautiful tone and perfect shading marked the bell ringing, and the eight artists act like one man under the baton of Conductor J. H. Jessop. The bell program was most attractive, including Cavalieria Rusticana, 'Caliph of Bagdad,' 'Hallelujah chorus' and the overture to Suppe's 'Poet and Peasant.'

Nothing but praise is possible for this magnificent company of musical talent. Mr. Wain has a pure tone voice of much beauty. Mr. Charles Wright is an alto, and Mr. Jessop a good bass. Opera House, Wolfville, June 1st.

What about a new pair of Shoes for Anniversary?

We are showing the best range of Oxfords this spring we have ever shown. New lasts every season.

It is not a question of 'Which shoe shall I select?' but 'Where can I purchase "Empress" Shoes?' We carry a complete range of styles in "Empress" Shoes for Women.

We expect to have by Saturday of this week a new line of Ladies' Pumps, including Tan Suede, Black Suede, Velvets, Patents and White Duck of very fine quality.

Don't miss seeing these lines as they are positively new, and are ordered especially for Anniversary trade.

C. H. BORDEN WOLFVILLE.

Personal Mention.

Miss D. Evelyn Reid, who has been spending the winter in Parraboo, has returned home.

Mrs. J. Edward Hales returned home last Saturday, after spending six weeks visiting friends in the United States.

Mrs. Kennedy Ranson and daughter, of Sydney, are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Christie.

Dr. McKenna left on Monday to spend a few weeks vacation. Mrs. McKenna accompanied him. They expect to return about the middle of June.

THE ACADIAN is very sorry to learn of the serious illness at his home at Kentville, of Mr. A. W. Foster, the popular representative of this county. We trust he may have a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Marshall and her daughter, Miss Beatrice Marshall, of Malden, Mass., arrived in Wolfville last week to spend the summer. Their summer home is now being made ready and they expect to be occupying it shortly.

Miss Amelia Irene Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burpee Shaw, Falmouth, is to be married on Wednesday, June 27th, to Mr. Leverett F. Fuller, of Annapolis. The ceremony will take place at the Baptist church, Falmouth, at 3.30 p. m.

Mr. W. C. Archibald, of this town, editor of the Maritime Appeal, who has been spending some months in Great Britain and on the continent in the interest of that journal, returned home this week. He was much pleased with his first visit to the old land.

WOLFVILLE HARDWARE & STOVE STORE

The Boy Scouts.

Last Saturday the First Wolfville Troop, mustering 25 boys, assembled at Headquarters and at 8 a.m. set out for Stivers' Pool, in the Gaspeaux River. In favorable weather and amid scenery which, for splendor and picturesqueness, is second to none in the Dominion, a very pleasant time was enjoyed, scout games, fishing and rifle practice fully occupying the whole time. The scoutmaster was especially gratified to discover so many promising good shots among the junior schools, one of the most recent recruits actually trying for second place with a last year's prize-winner in the Wolfville shooting competitions.

To-morrow (Saturday) the first rifle match of the season takes place. The scouts will meet at the club room (in Main street, where there once flourished a really live Board of Trade, but of which there is now visible only the name on the door) at 2 p. m. All will be in uniform and will march to the Ridge range to shoot for prizes that have been generously presented, to a first prize by Mr. Henry Peck and the second prize by the scoutmaster.

This (Friday) evening all scouts are expected at Headquarters for the rehearsal of the program recently presented at the Wolfville Opera House. The association having consented to the Troop's acceptance of a very hearty invitation to repeat this novel entertainment at the Pastime Hall, Kentville, arrangements have been completed, whereby a very enjoyable trip to Kentville next Friday evening, the 31st, is anticipated by the boys. The program will be varied only very slightly. Instead of the scouts competing in the essay on 'Why I am a Scout' the would-be scouts of the other towns are to be given the opportunity of saying, 'Why I would like to be a Scout?' Clergymen at Kentville will be the adjudicators. The troop is very much gratified to learn that Mr. Walter Barrs has decided to postpone his return to Halifax in order to comply with the scouts' wishes to act as their accompanist. It is also hoped that both the Revs. Dr. Martell and Commissioner Bryant will be permitted by their engagements to accompany the Troop on this occasion as at Wolfville. It is proposed to drive there and back and Wolfville supporters having teams are invited to accompany and to cheer the boys.

We expect to have by Saturday of this week a new line of Ladies' Pumps, including Tan Suede, Black Suede, Velvets, Patents and White Duck of very fine quality.

Don't miss seeing these lines as they are positively new, and are ordered especially for Anniversary trade.

Acadia Wins Athletic Meet.

Acadia scored the fifth consecutive win in the intercollegiate field and track meet at Montreal, on Wednesday, Mount Allison gave her a close run, losing by but a few points. This is the seventh time Acadia has won during the ten years these contests have been held. The score by colleges is as follows: Acadia.....41 3 5 Mount Allison.....33 4 5 U. N. B.....14 2 5

Mount Allison proved strong on the track, scoring 31 points to Acadia's 7, but in the field events Acadia pulled out 34, while her opponents fared less than six.

Two intercollegiate records were broken. Brown, of Acadia, won the mile in 4:47. Brown took the lead in the second lap and was never headed, though Dickinson, of Mount Allison, and Melrose, of U. N. B., ran him close until the finish. Higgins, of Acadia, cleared 10 feet 9 3/8 inches in the pole vault, thus breaking the old record by nine inches. It was seven o'clock when this event was finished and but for the cold it was thought Higgins could have broken the maritime record of 11 feet.

Loring Andrews, of Acadia, was the highest scorer. He captured nine points for his team. Godfrey and Smith, of Mount Allison, each won eight. Kubring was the high scorer for U. N. B., with six points to his credit.

Nova Scotia is in the Lead.

Another of our Kings county boys has succeeded in winning the honors of his class. Mr. Leslie T. Allen, son of Capt. C. O. Allen, of Kentville, graduates from the Baltimore Dental College June 1st, winning the University Gold Medal and highest honorary diploma. Mr. Allen spent one year at Acadia University. He has been at the Baltimore College for the past three years, and has won these high honors from a class of two hundred students. His many friends here and elsewhere will be very pleased to hear of his fine achievements.—Kentville Advertiser.

Graduating Recital.

The graduating recital of Miss Clara Ledyth Macdonald, of Alma, N. B., pianist, and Miss Edith Marguerite Woodman, of Grand Pre, soprano, was held in College Hall on Tuesday evening, and was the best heard here for some time. The program, which was a difficult one, was admirably rendered and the applause was hearty and prolonged. Miss Macdonald exhibited much temperament and feeling, playing her numbers with an artistic finish which greatly delighted the large audience. Miss Woodman, always a favorite with Wolfville audiences, was at her best on this occasion. She is a vocal list of unusual excellence. Her voice is a pleasing soprano and her tones full, rich and finished. The following was the program rendered:

(a) Le Papillon, Op. 26, No. 2—Dennee. (b) Notturmo, Op. 54, No. 4—Greg. Miss Macdonald.

Air: Rejoice Greatly (from the Messiah)—Haedel. Miss Woodman. Kismet Ostrrow, Op. 10—Roberts. Miss Macdonald.

Reclatment, Waltz Song—Scott. Miss Woodman. (a) Scherzo, Op. 44, No. 2—Rabentritt. (b) Bergers et Bergers—Godard. Miss Macdonald.

(c) Thine Eyes so Blue and Tender—Lassen. (d) The Year at the Spring—Mrs. H. H. Beach. Miss Woodman.

Concert Etude, Op. 36—MacDowell. Miss Macdonald. Cavatina: Lacs la notte placida (from La Traviata)—Verdi. Miss Woodman.

The Military Air-Scout.

Far above the ordinary drama is the novel and modern means of warfare employed by the 'Air-Scout' and his flying machine and the aeroplane gun introduced by the enemy to offset his attacks. They bring the 'bird man' down but he bids us severely, defeat long the foe and winning his commanding officer's daughter, The Military Air-Scout will make a brilliant flight on the screen of the Opera House to night and everybody will learn what the aeroplane will mean in matters of war.
