SACHEL

—OF THE—

SATELLITE

A whistle in the morning makes more noise than two in the evening.

There was a hot time in the old town last week, but this week the weather man has changed his order.

I don't see how the people can help getting aroused when that whistle blows in the early morning, but it's a good thing.

Men are like water, they soon find their level when left to themselves. It is seldom that a man is paid more than he is worth, and then it doesn't last long.

With the condition Chatham streets are in it is almost as easy for Chatham boys to get admired as it is for Chatham girls to get admired.

The people who object to the Chaplain Wheel Works whistle blowing at six a. m. should remember that a blow in time saves many a man being nine minutes late for work.

The man who works hard all day and goes home at night to be told that he is a poor stick and a failure because somebody else gets a larger salary than he, may keep right on saying the old bachelor isn't half a man, but people don't always say what they think.—The Chicago Record-Herald.

THINGS THAT WILL NOT HAPPEN.

Through a concatenation of circumstances which amount to little less than supernatural coincidence, various false reports, calculated to deceive a trusting public regarding political and local affairs of consequence, have lately found circulation. The Satellite is in a position to illuminate these dark objects and to deny categorically and collectively. That travel will soon be reasonably possible on city streets, save and except parts of King and William streets. This rumor is a libel on Chatham mud. It knows its power. That J. W. White is going to build that athletic bungalow on the Park as a monument to his own importance. That Dr. Musson and Squire Marx are going to have a learned discussion and duel on the meaning of an English word. That Burney Weldon has been engaged as star comedian in George Ade's musical comedy Sultan of Sulu. That Ald. G. G. Martin is going to make no more speeches in the Council Chamber. That all the young men in Chatham are going to go to church three times a Sunday. That Ald. Archie McCoig doesn't want to contest this riding for the Provincial House. That the Grit Government will resign as the result of Gamey's exposures. They will wait to be kicked out. That in the event of the Gamey charges being proven, James Holmes is going to resign his job in favor of Ald. G. G. Martin. That Manager Briscoe, of the Grand, is going to get one real good show. That all the men in Chatham stayed away from that show "Wine, Women and Song." That the Satellite is going to get up at six a. m. every day and work on his lawn so as to get Mayor McKee's landscape prize.

A DESPERATE FIGHT.

Robbers Kill One and Wound Three Passengers.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 23.—Three masked robbers attempted to hold up a car on the Los Angeles-Pacific Electric Line, running between Los Angeles and Santa Monica, about a mile west of the city limits, last night, and after a pistol duel between C. H. Henderson one of the passengers, and one of the robbers, the other two highwaymen began shooting right and left through the crowded car. One passenger was killed and three wounded. The dead: H. A. Griswold of Mansion, Iowa. The wounded: J. C. Cunningham of Los Angeles, Ellis Pearson of Sawtelle, Dr. C. A. Bowles of Los Angeles. It is believed that one of the robbers was badly wounded. The holdup occurred at the head of a deep cut. The robbers had placed a steel rail, a large bench and a cement barrel on the track. The motor-man saw the obstruction when the car was several hundred yards from it, and at once turned off the current and ran slowly to the place. The moment the cars struck three men wearing masks over their faces sprang from the weeds alongside the track. One boarded the front of the car, and the other two the rear end. The first man commanded the passengers to put up their hands, and when one of them did not comply he fired a shot. Henderson then opened fire on the robber. The robber turned his gun upon Henderson, but as he did so he was seen to bend over and cry out as if in pain. Then straightening up, he again began shooting at the passengers on the front seats. One of the bullets struck Ellis Pearson. Henderson continued firing and the robber was seen to fall. The two robbers who had entered the rear door commanded the passengers to put up their hands, and most of them did so. When Henderson began to shoot the other two robbers began shooting right and left among the passengers.

Griswold was seated about the middle of the car, with his back toward the robbers. At the command "Hands up" he tried to hide his watch, and one of the robbers, thinking he was about to draw a gun, fired point blank at him. The bullet struck him in the back of the neck, and he fell over into the lap of his aged mother, who was at his side. Dr. Bowles was near the front door, and at the command of the robbers he raised his hands. When he had them in the air one of the bullets from a robber's revolver struck his left hand and shattered the bones. After emptying their revolvers the robbers backed out of the door, sprang off the car, and disappeared. The car ran rapidly to Sawtelle, the nearest point where medical aid could be secured. Griswold expired before the car had gone a mile. Officers were sent to the scene, but no trace of the robbers was found. The highwaymen secured nothing from the passengers.

DEAN FARRAR DEAD.

Noted as a Divine and a Famous Author.

London, March 23.—The Very Rev. Frederic Wm. Farrar, Dean of Canterbury since 1895, died. He was in his 72nd year.

Dean Farrar had long been in delicate health and disabled by creeping paralysis. He latterly had to be carried everywhere and was unable to officiate, although a constant attendant at the Canterbury Cathedral services to the last. He was present at some school sports on Saturday afternoon, but passed a restless night. His condition became serious this morning, and he expired peacefully at 7 o'clock last evening.

PEACE FOLLOWS WAR.

FERNIE MINERS SETTLE THE STRIKE.

A Serious Riot at the Mines on Friday—Workmen Driven Eight Miles With Revolvers and Stones—Several Arrests Made.

Fernie, March 23.—The coal strike in Crow's Nest mines was practically settled Saturday, and everyone is jubilant. The Conciliation Committee this morning interviewed Mr. Tonkin, who asked for another interview between the district union and himself. This immediately followed, and negotiations were taken up in rapid order from where they left off on Wednesday. In the evening another meeting took place, and the District Executive agreed to a final settlement, subject to the ratification of the local unions, which will be easily secured. The settlement involves some slight adjustment of the old rates, and the recognition of the union. The settlement is to run for two years, subject to two months' notice by either party to the British Columbia Mining Association. The strike has lasted 39 days. This was pay day, but little money was paid out.

Victoria, B.C., March 23.—A special from Fernie, B.C., dated Friday, says: Friday a masked mob of over four hundred men went up to the No. 1 Coal Creek mines, four miles from Fernie, and compelled, at the points of revolvers, half a dozen workmen, who were in charge of the fans of the closed mines, to leave the Town of Fernie, and drove them down the C. P. R. track. The mob at first went to the house of Mine Superintendent Drinnan and assaulted him and his wife, firing a number of shots in the air to intimidate them. Drinnan recognized one of the men as J. W. Morrison, and he was later arrested.

The mob drove the men from the boilers and fans, forcibly entered houses, taking men from their beds, threatened women, drove the men a distance of eight miles with clubs and stones. Some men were quite seriously injured. The lives of the men were threatened if they returned to this district. Three important arrests were made.

As soon as the Provincial police at Fernie, under Chief McMullen, heard of the trouble they went to the mine posthaste. Later a special train was made up and went as far as Morrissey, bringing back the men who had been driven out. Their names are: J. Hunt, F. Spence, T. Evans, E. Tasmier, W. Dupree and G. Serimox, and some were seriously hurt. It is expected that several arrests of the suspects will be made at Fernie this afternoon, and the Attorney-General's Department at Victoria has been notified.

THE INCOME TAX.

The Burden of Empire Weighs Upon John Bull.

London, March 23.—There is undoubtedly a growing demand by the people of this country that the self-governing colonies should bear a larger share of the cost of the Imperial defence. It is pointed out that, although colonial commerce forms one-fifth of the total trade of the empire, and although the population of the colonies is more than one-fourth that of the United Kingdom, yet the colonial contribution towards the cost of the navy is almost non-existent.

Arnold Forster, speaking on his authority as Secretary of the Admiralty, has made it unmistakably clear that the Admiralty cannot continue to accept with equanimity the idea that almost the whole burden of supporting the defence of the empire should rest on the United Kingdom. His speech has not been repudiated by any member of the Cabinet, and the colonies are advised to take the warning to heart. The British people cannot understand that it is useless to expect the colonies to saddle themselves with the debts of European feuds.

The Saturday Review, for instance, argues as follows:—"Supposing for a moment that Canada were a separate country, she would be forced, especially as her wheat export increases, to keep a considerable fleet to defend her merchantmen, and yet Sir Wilfrid Laurier maintains that Canada is doing her full duty in Imperial defence by building railways, most of which were made possible by English capital." The real meaning of this and similar arguments is that John Bull, in spite of his broad back, is groaning under an income tax of fifteen pence in the pound, and is anxious to be relieved of the load.

AMERICAN FALLS DRY.

Ice Jam Diverts Water to the Canadian Side.

Niagara Falls, March 22.—The ice jam in the upper river above the Falls diverted more than half the volume of water that usually comes down the American channel and passes over the American falls to the Canadian side of Goat Island to-day, turning the American falls into a few broken and ragged streams. More than half of the wall of rock that has been hidden from view for past ages behind the falls was exposed to the full view of thousands of persons who flocked to the falls to-day to see the unusual occurrence.

The mountains of jagged rocks at the base of the American falls that the torrents have fallen on for years were exposed and dry except those which the hillocks of ice clung to. The sight was a peculiar one, unknown to the memory of the oldest citizen. Several venturesome persons walked almost across the river-bed above the falls.

THAMESVILLE

March 20.—W. Courtney, of Chatham, is in town to-day. Mr. Climie has returned from Wyoming. Mr. Hadden, of Alvinston, was in Thamesville studio to-day. Mrs. Grass, of Ridgeway, is visiting friends in town. Dr. Stewart was a Chatham visitor to-day.

Mr. Coates, of London, was in town to-day. Mrs. Reid returned to her home at Elgin yesterday.

March 21.—About three o'clock this morning the citizens of Thamesville were aroused by the fire alarm. The fire broke out in the Adair estate, now occupied by J. Griffith, agent for the Deering machines, and Mr. Hadden, the photographer. The belongings of the studio were insured, but the loss of machinery amounted to about $1,200. The fire started in the studio and great efforts were made to save the building, but it was too late. The firemen showed great skill in saving the other buildings surrounding it. The bucket brigade worked hard. Every building in the block had to be watched. The citizens of Thamesville extend their sympathy to the losers.

W. Meldrum, of Windsor, is visiting friends in town. Miss Galloway, of Bothwell, is the guest of Mrs. N. K. Corawall.

Rev. Mrs. Borland and Mrs. D. McFarlane were in Chatham on Saturday.

T. M. Syer, who has been in Toronto for a few days, has returned.

"IT'S GOOD TEA."

This is what the proprietor of Red Rose Tea claims for it. Some say the claim is too modest, but you may notice that a grocer is very often asked,—"Have you any good tea?" The word "good" in this sense is probably intended to mean "best." So perhaps Red Rose Tea is The Best Tea.
