Correspondence.

To the Editor of "The Church." Downsville, 5th June, 1854. Rev. Sir,—In the midst of the bustle and confusion of a removal from the Rectory of Church of Darlington, I have neglected to furnish you with a statement of the interesting proceedings that took place at the Vestry of St. John's Church in this village on Easter Monday.

It thus appears that the Church in the United States is somewhat superior in numbers and wealth to the English Church, and that the Protestants see it in the proportion of about 1 to 17 in accommodation, and more than 1 to 5 in point of wealth.

General Stuart is erecting a new Hotel at the Niagara Falls Suspension Bridge, of blue limestone, and in the Norman style of architecture. "There will be a tower 140 feet in height, a piazza round the building 300 feet in length, a beautiful carriage way and twelve acres of ground to be enclosed, and elegant cottages erected thereon for the use of summer boarders."

ARRIVAL OF THE NIAGARA. Halifax, June 6. Breadstuffs—Dennistoun & Co. say that in the early part of the week the market was tolerably active, but at the close prices fell off.

Colonia.

We are informed that the managers of the Toronto House of Industry have now under their charge eight boys and four girls, whom they desire to send out as apprentices or to be adopted. They are of all ages of childhood.

European News.

MAGNA EST NIDIVAS.—The foreign correspondence of the Morning Chronicle enjoys deserved celebrity; but the last instance of devotion on the part of one of the gentlemen at the seat of war, surpasses, we think, any of its predecessors.
