The deposit on account of this branch is $1,000 municipal debentures, still in the hands of the Receiver-General. The license of the Hand in Hand Insurance Company expired on the 31st March, 1887, and was not renewed, owing to the fact that under "The Insurance Act," the privilege of obtaining a Dominion license in the case of Companies having Provincial charters was restricted to Companies which transact the business of Life Insurance. The deposit of $5,000 still remains with the Receiver-General.
