

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Governor, in his discretion, at any time to transfer any offender from one of the said Reformatory Prisons to the other, and at pleasure to re-transfer such offender.

Transfer of offenders from one Prison to the other.

IX. It shall be lawful for the Governor at any time, on report of the Inspectors, in his discretion, to order any offender sentenced under the fifth section of this Act to be removed from either of the said Reformatory Prisons, as incorrigible; and in every such case, the offender shall be liable to be confined in the Provincial Penitentiary for the remainder of the term of imprisonment for which such convict had been originally sentenced in such Reformatory Prison.

Incorrigible offenders to be removed to the Penitentiary.

X. The Warden of a Reformatory Prison established under this Act, shall have and perform the same powers and duties, with respect to such Prison, as are vested in the Warden of the Provincial Penitentiary by law, except in so far as they may be altered by this Act or by the rules made under the next succeeding section.

Powers and duties of Wardens.

XI. The Inspectors shall be empowered, from time to time, to frame rules for the government and regulation of the said Reformatory Prisons respectively, and for the discipline of the offenders imprisoned therein, and to submit such rules to the Governor, and upon such rules being approved by him, they shall thereupon be enforced in such Prisons respectively; and all such rules shall be laid before Parliament within six weeks after the then next meeting of Parliament.

Inspectors to make rules for such Prisons.

To be laid before Parliament.

XII. It shall be lawful for the Governor to cause to be procured and provided, surrounding or adjacent to each of the Reformatory Prisons, a tract of land fit for agricultural purposes not exceeding two hundred acres for each Prison, and to cause the same to be securely inclosed, and each Prison shall be held to include all the land contained within such inclosure.

Farm may be attached to such Prison.

XIII. It shall be lawful for the Governor at any time hereafter, should he deem it expedient, to cause to be procured and fitted up, at or below the City of Montreal, a Hulk or Receiving Ship—in every respect fit for Ocean Service, and to appoint a Captain and other Officers thereto, and from time to time to cause to be transferred by Warrant, from either of the Reformatory Prisons, such offenders as may desire to embrace a seafaring life, and as the Governor may think fit so to transfer; and such Hulk shall be held to be a Reformatory Prison and to be subject to the provisions of this Act relating to Reformatory Prisons, so far as they can be made applicable thereto; and the Captain so to be appointed shall be the Warden of the same, and have and perform all the powers and duties incident to that Office.

Hulk may be fitted up and used as a Reformatory Prison.

Captain to be as Warden.

XIV. And whereas it is expedient to establish a uniform system for the government and inspection of Public Asylums, Hospitals
