this week, someone will buy a new copy of a book you own, have used, but will never read again.

If you had sold him your copy both of you would have benefited financially.

And that's the whole point of the Book Exchange one of your Student Union's most universally beneficial services.

Pack those books you don't need and leave them at the Book Exchange. The manager will list them and price them at whatever you would like to sell them for. And that's it. Every month you'll receive a cheque for your sales, less a commission for the service.

And while you're in the store, look around you'll find some good deals on books you'd like to have. Everything from texts and reference books to science fiction.

THE BOOK EXCHANGE

Rm. 106, Student Union Building

9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Monday to Friday

The only major injury is to Tony Proudfoot, last year's defensive standout, who has a broken toe, although he is still running light practices, and will be ready for the official season opener here against Acadia, Sept. 26. The first test of this year's team will be on Sept. 12 at Moncton, where the Bombers play Mt. Allison in an exhibition game starting at 1:30, at which time Coach Underwood and his assistants John Burke, Dan Skaling, Doug Cotteral and Wally Langly will get an indication how well this year's team is shaping up.
